PTO Positions: 2022-2023 Openings

Have you been considering getting involved with the Thurston PTO? We will be looking for a new PTO President for the 2022-2023 term. The PTO President coordinates activities and fundraisers between Thurston staff/teachers and parents, runs our monthly PTO meetings, and supports parents who want to do something for the betterment of our community. Our current talented PTO President, Grace Chae, is embarking on a new chapter in life later this year in Minnesota with her family. We wish her and her family all the best! If you are interested in running for Thurston PTO President, please reach out to the PTO for further information.

International Night Planning Underway!

What do Korea, Libya, Poland, and Uruguay have in common? They'll all be representing at International Night! Planning is underway for an in-person, outdoors International Night where families can share their culture with the Thurston community. We hope to continue the tradition of presenting both displays and performances. Please contact Smita Malpani at thurstoninternationalnight@gmail.com if you are interested in representing your country or culture.
