SAT: Context

3

▶ Historical

- Achieving universal access
- Ensuring widespread proficiency

▶ Mental Health & Wellness

- Creating life balance

▶ Current Trends

- Fewer colleges require entrance exams
 - more than 1,000 colleges & universities have already made standardized test scores optional
- Shift is to evaluate students in areas other than test score
 - 'A student is more than a test score'
- Recent California lawsuit: 'Standardized testing requirement is biased & unconstitutional.'

▶ Advantages of SAT Assessment

❖ National Assessment

- ▶ Considered an important outcome or exit measure for PreK-12 system
- ▶ Provides important college entrance assessment free of charge for every student during the school day – important to ensure equity and opportunity for:
 - ▶ Students from poverty
 - ▶ Students of color
 - ▶ Prospective and first generation college attendees
- ▶ Provides valuable information about college readiness
