About Liberty Ridge Elementary School

Liberty Ridge Elementary School (LRES) serves students in Preschool through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools. Liberty Ridge has two buildings, one building is for students kindergarten through fifth grade and the other building is for early childhood programs. At LRES, each grade level has a pod area, creating a welcoming and inclusive environment. LRES students have the opportunity to participate in fine arts through art and choir.

Teachers at LRES personalize learning for students by building relationships. Each student meets with his/her teacher before the start of the school year and teachers continue working one-on-one with students during the year.

Enrollment and Staffing

850 + students are enrolled at Liberty Ridge Elementary School.

115 caring staff members work at Liberty Ridge Elementary School who encourage and personalize learning for each student.
