

Labor Management Meeting Minutes December

- Pat Connolly call for meeting to start 2:40
- Addressed those who were absent and present
- Recognize Crystal McFeely for winning Leadership Award
- Correspondence were read and passed around by Donna Volpe from Red Cross and Feed my Sheep. The Giving Committee put on these fundraisers
- Discussion of gingerbread house and door decorating contests
- Dave Zupsic won the monthly perfect attendance drawing for the Sheetz card
- Taking a pause on selling shirts, discussion continued on offering new design such as tie dye
- Giving Committee is sponsoring a pizza party on January 6th for the success of the penny wars. Also looking for any new suggestion on donation ideas
- There will be pizza for lunch at the next Labor & Management meeting
- Cheryl Pilch and the Professional Development Committee will meet in January to discuss in service ideas
- Wellness activity will roll out in February
- Bank balances are good
- The t-shirt money of $726 will go into the scholarship fund
- Going forward committees will keep track of donations and a running total all year
- Update on Aldon included going to Disney world through make a wish
- Mel will post pictures of Aldon on the MIU4 website
- Effort is being put in to have the building meet the requirement of the strategic plan
- Potential capital improvement to the building is going to be discussed with the board
- Waiting to hear back from colleges on their interest of having their marketing students help us out with our marketing
- Pat's monthly report mentioned that the 18-19 audit is not finished yet but hoping to be finished in January
- Also the board will look at the 20-21 GOB draft
- Brenda's monthly report included that all must pay attention to updating their clearances
- There will be extended hours for fingerprinting for school districts
- Communications Dept. has a new form made for the print shop
- The courier system is doing well

- Dave's monthly report included updates on state applications, safety initiative, STEM grant, PA smart grant, and CSI.
- Diane McGaffic is doing amazing job writing for the grants and developing trauma workshop
- Looking to expand Lending Library with IU 19
- Extreme leadership has had 2 meeting so far and they have gone well
- 22 of our 27 school districts are participating in academic games
- PIIC has added 3 new coaches and has 12 in total
- Melissa's monthly update included special ed has hired 5 new employees mostly in EI, and she wants to hire 5 employees for new positions
- Districts want more behavioral coaches
- OT has been expanded
- The feed and swallowing puppet show has been great and is looking to expand
- Cheryl discussed her attending new meetings and making new relationships
- She attended SPAC and wants to get in front of PDE
- Information was provided on Santa Land and much appreciation was given
- Jason's report informed that the technology dept. has been awarded a $18,000 grants for robots. Thanks were given to Diane McGaffic for writing the grant
- We are getting 8 more robots that will be free for our school districts to use and the students love them
- If you want anything sent out through social media see Julie
- We will be getting a new phone system that allows all employees to have their own extension under one phone number. We are working with Armstrong to make this happen and the new system will start just with the IU.
- Dr. Killmeyer shared what happened at his ESSA meeting
- They are in the process of coming up with alternative ways for students to pass high school other than passing the keystone exams. They are working on 5 different alternatives
- Pig out Friday discussion
- Meeting Adjourned 3:30