

Cambridge Global Perspectives

11th Grade

Critical Thinking

PS 1 - To analyze arguments to understand how they are structured and on what they are based.

PS 2 - To analyze perspectives and understand the different claims, reasons, arguments, views and evidence they contain.

PS 3 - To critically evaluate the strengths, weaknesses and implications of reasoning in arguments and overall perspectives.

PS 4 - To critically evaluate the nature of different arguments and perspectives.

Communication

PS 5 - To consider the ways in which personal standpoints may have been affected by the research process.

PS 6 - To identify the need for further research in light of research findings.

PS 7 - To reflect on the scope, nature and limitations of own research

PS 8 - To provide an oral explanation and justification of own report findings, choice and use of research methods and methodology.

Knowledge and Understanding

PS 9 - To select and analyze appropriate concepts, arguments, perspectives and evidence from a range of source material and use these in own research report.

PS 10 - To research and consider alternative perspectives objectively and with empathy.

PS 11 - To evaluate the impact of alternative perspectives and conclusions on personal viewpoints.

PS 12 - To use appropriate technical terms and cited references effectively.

Investigation and Research

PS 13 - To synthesize relevant and credible research in support of judgments about arguments and perspectives.

PS 14 - To synthesize relevant and credible research in support of judgments about arguments and perspectives.

PS 15 - To design and manage own research project using appropriate research methods and methodology.

PS 16 - To evaluate specific research methods and methodology as used in own research report.