

Title: Board of Directors' Organizational Meeting and Election of Officers in School Election Years

The Board of Directors shall, in school election years, meet and organize at the first regular meeting after the canvass (official election results) for a regular school election. Notice of the place and hour of such meeting shall be given by the secretary to each member and each member-elect of the Board.

At the organizational meeting, the Secretary or designee will administer the oath of office to the newly-elected Board members. The Secretary will preside while the new Board elects the President and Vice President of the Board for the term of one year. The secretary, treasurer or designee will administer the oath of office to the new officers. The newly-elected President will preside over the remainder of the meeting. The Board shall set the dates and times of regular meetings for the year.
