

Title: Public Hearings

Public hearings are required to be held by the Board of Directors for the budget and for the approval of certain contracts and as otherwise required by law. The notice of time and place for these hearings shall be published prior to the date set for the hearing in accordance with applicable law.

Termination of employment contracts and student discipline actions may require certain procedures including hearings. These requirements will be strictly followed.

The Board shall set such rules as are appropriate, and as are established by law, for the purpose of conducting all hearings.
