

Title: Organization of Instruction

The Council Bluffs Community School District is organized into grades Preschool, Kindergarten-5, 6-8, 9-12.

All elementary schools offer instruction from pre-kindergarten through grade five. An early learning center offers programming for children from six weeks through preschool.

Middle schools offer instruction in grades six through eight. High schools offer instruction in grades nine through twelve. Students may also acquire high school credits from approved colleges and universities.

Appropriate instructional programs are organized for, and available, to individuals with disabilities, ages 3 through 21.
