The Heritage School
Newnan, Georgia 30263
www.heritageschool.com

The Heritage School seeks an Instructional Coach to begin in January of 2024. The Instructional Coach will work as a colleague with classroom teachers to support student learning and teacher practice and will provide personalized, 1:1 support based on the goals and identified needs of individual teachers. Preferred credentials include a minimum of five years of successful teaching experience, two or more years of results driven teacher supervision, experience in researched-based instruction and a deep knowledge of and experience in instructional strategies, lesson design, and the teaching/learning process with a strong focus on differentiation. Leadership experience in an independent school setting is preferred. The candidate must be a positive, collaborative learning leader ready to become a part of a dynamic learning community.

Founded in 1970, The Heritage School is a co-educational, independent, college preparatory school committed to providing an environment that develops the mind in preparation for college and later life, the body through competition and teamwork, the spirit through self-awareness and growth, and camaraderie through shared experience. Mind, body, spirit, and camaraderie are infused throughout the opportunities offered on and off campus in academics, fine arts, athletics and service. The ideal candidate will demonstrate a balanced approach to these areas throughout his or her personal and professional life.

Located in a pecan grove in Newnan, GA, The Heritage School's beautiful 73-acre campus offers opportunities for students and faculty from PreK 3 through 12th Grade to interact in meaningful ways every day. Newnan is situated in the heart of Coweta County, just south of the Atlanta airport. With a population over 130,000, the community offers families the advantages of a small town with the appeal of a nearby metropolis.

Interested and qualified candidates should submit a specific letter of interest and resume to:
