

Bridgeport Title 1/título 1

Here are Some Ways Title I Provides Support for Your Child:

- Funding for after school programs
- Parent involvement opportunities
- Extended time for reading and math instruction
- Staff development trainings for your child's teacher
- Materials, resources and technology

Ways Parents Can Support Our Programs and be informed about Title I:

- Ask teachers, principals and Title I staff about the program
- Talk to your child's teacher regarding their progress in the program (all students are assessed three times per year in reading and math)
- Attend events at your child's school
- Volunteer to be part of the annual Title I plan review process at your school

Your Rights as a Parent

If you have a question or concern about your school's Title I program or your child's participation in the program, please contact your school's Title 1 coordinator, your child's teacher or the school principal (see contact information on back).

If your concern can't be remedied or you have further questions, please contact:
