¹Offered in quantitative and qualitative methodologies.

²These degrees are designed to provide adequate subject content coupled with teacher preparation from the College of Education. (1) Initial Program-Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure (2) Initial Program-Does Not Lead to Teacher Licensure This program does not include a student teaching component, and does not therefore lead to licensure, but may lead to career advancement for those already licensed as teachers. (3) Advanced Program for Continuing Professional Education (4) Initial Program leads to Principal Licensure. Applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. Arizona or home state fingerprint/background clearance is required for all practicum/field experiences and student teaching.

³This degree, offered by the College of Education, is a regionally accredited program approved by the State of Arizona. It aligns with the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (PSEL, 2015) led by the National Policy Board for Educational Administration (NPBEA, 2018).

⁴Nevada program only.

⁵Available in select states.

Grand Canyon University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLCCommission.org), an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Please note, not all GCU programs are available in all states and in all learning modalities. Program availability is contingent on student enrollment. For more information on the accreditation of nursing programs and other university approvals, please visit our University Accreditation and Regulations page at gcu.edu/CONHCPAccreditation. If seeking licensure or certification, applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. In addition, fingerprint/background clearance is required. Important policy information is available in the University Policy Handbook at gcu.edu/academics/academic-policies.php.
