DRAMA

LYON'S AND RENDALLS HOUSE PLAY: JEKYLL & HYDE

Wednesday 24 and Thursday 25 January
7.30pm – Ryan Theatre

'If I am the chief of sinners, I am the chief of sufferers also'.

Victorian London. A series of horrific nocturnal attacks are beginning to spread panic and fear. Meanwhile, the friends of a highly respected doctor are beginning to wonder at his regular disappearances and his ties to the shadowy and strange Mr Hyde. Exploring the depths of human depravity in a society where morality is everything, Lyon's and Rendalls present an adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's terrifying tale, directed by Gaynor Jervis.

NEWLANDS AND WEST ACRE HOUSE PLAY: THE HOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES

Wednesday 7 and Thursday 8 February
7.30pm – Ryan Theatre

On a dark, moody night on deepest Dartmoor, Sir Henry Baskerville smokes his last cigar to the bloodcurdling howl of a deathly beast. Inspired to crack the case, Sherlock Holmes sends his trusty – though clueless – companion, Dr Watson, to the murky moors along with the heir to the Baskerville estate, Sir Henry. Join Newlands and West Acre for a whacky, fast-paced, barking-mad spoof of the classic Conan Doyle tale, directed by Eoin Bentick.

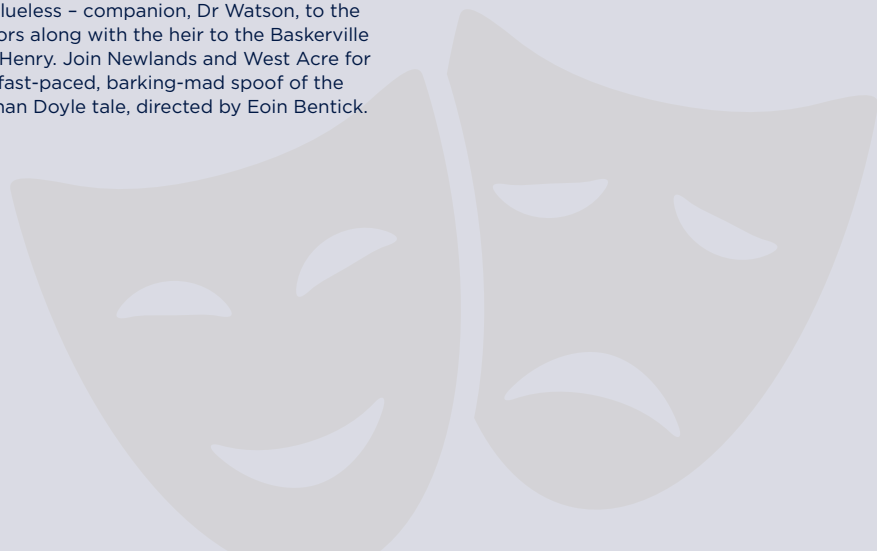

THE GROVE HOUSE PLAY: HENRY V

Wednesday 28 February
7.30pm – Ryan Theatre

Thursday 29 February
8pm – Ryan Theatre

Enter a realm where humility meets honour and fellowship ignites courage. The Grove brings to life the story of a once-reluctant leader who transforms into a legendary king. Join us for a theatrical celebration of inspirational leadership and the power of noble virtues, directed by Oliver Williams.

Tickets are required for all performances and can be obtained through the booking links emailed to Friends of Harrow School. For more information contact theatre@harrowsschool.org.uk or call 020 8872 8344.

OLD SPEECH ROOM GALLERY

THE TRAVELLER: FROM OCEANIA TO OUTER SPACE - FOUR THOUSAND YEARS OF JOURNEYING AND EXPLORATION

Tuesday 30 January–Thursday 21 March

Stories of distant lands and unfamiliar customs have always been a source of fascination, and accounts of pioneering expeditions capture the imagination even today. This term's exhibition brings together a wealth of objects, artworks, maps and early printed volumes from Africa, the Americas, Antarctica, Asia, Oceania and Europe, all illustrating remote places and societies that travellers have revealed to us. Old Harrovians feature not only as travellers in their own right but also as donors of the historic artefacts in the display. Exhibitions in the OSRG are drawn mainly from the School's collections but this term include several items on loan from current Harrovians as well as staff and Harrow families.

The OSRG is generally open to the public from 2.30pm until 5pm on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays in term time. Occasionally, the gallery is closed for School business. Please call 020 8872 8205 to check opening times and dates before planning your visit.

ART AND PHOTOGRAPHY

A-LEVEL PHOTOGRAPHY INTERIM SHOW

Tuesday 30 January–Monday 5 February
6pm – Pasmore Gallery

A showcase for the coursework of our current A-level Photography students. The wide variety of images cover everything from environmental issues to portraiture.

HOUSE ART EXHIBITION AND ADJUDICATION

Tuesday 27 February
5.30pm – Art School and Pasmore Gallery

This year's House Art event promises to be a spectacular one! With all 12 Houses taking part, there will be an array of artworks demonstrating the creativity, skill and imagination of current Harrovians. Alongside painting, drawing, printmaking and sculpture, expect the unexpected with collaborative works, film, video and installation.

For information about these exhibitions contact Laurence Hedges at lwh@harrowschool.org.uk.

MUSIC

ORCHESTRAL CONCERT

Saturday 20 January
