

1999 Hall of Fame Inductee

Wayne J. du Maine

Class of 1983

Wayne du Maine is an accomplished musician. He studied piano from the age of six and trumpet since the age of eight. When he was a student at University

Wayne J. du Maine
Class of 1983

City High School, he was a part of the UCHS Jazz Band which was invited to perform at the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland. Following graduation, he went on to study at the Julliard School where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees.

Currently, du Maine is an orchestra and chamber musician in New York City and performs regularly with symphonies around the world. He is a staff member of Julliard's Music Advancement Program for youth and has recently completed a recording session with the "Artist formerly known as Prince." He recently finished a two-year engagement on Broadway with the production of "Titanic" and has currently performed in "The Civil War," a Frank Wildhorn show.

Wayne du Maine has received numerous awards including the Harry Shapiro Prize for outstanding Brass Musician. His work can be heard on television commercials, soundtracks, and orchestral, operatic and jazz recordings.