

1999 Hall of Fame Inductee

Dr. Richard “Dick” Yore

Class of 1935

Awarded posthumously.

The late Dr. Richard “Dick” Yore was a quarterback of the Washington

University

Bears’ celebrated

“Iron Men”

squads, which played against teams such as Army,

Notre Dame, Illinois, Boston University, Missouri, and

Southeast Missouri State University.

Dr. Richard “Dick” Yore

Class of 1935

Dr. Yore later earned a medical degree from Washington University’s School of Medicine where he was a member of the Honorary Thirteen community service organization, Phi Delta Theta, and Nu Sigma Nu Fraternities. Known for his compassion and dedication to his profession, he worked as a thoracic surgeon at St. Luke’s, Missouri Baptist, Deaconess, and Lutheran hospitals for 35 years.

Dr. Richard Yore died in 1998.