Looking Back...

Humboldt Senior High 2003

When we look back,
these are the times we'll see.

Well remember all that we were,
all that we hoped to be.

Humboldt is more than a memory,
it is a mirror that reflects our lives.

Humboldt is a place where foundations are built and where dreams become goals.

...Moving Forward

Together we change...
...but our spirits remain the same.
Homecoming 2002 was full of fun and excitement! Jenny Harrington and Crystal Royce, the mistresses of the ceremony, presented each candidate to the student body. Everyone cheered as the individual couples graced the gym with their presence. The anticipation was high when it came time for crowning the King & Queen. Kong Vue and Genny Yang won Homecoming King and Queen. They expressed their gratitude with bright, brilliant smiles. The crowd was superb and it was a fun time for all.
On October 11, 2002, Humboldt played its homecoming game against the Harding knights. The school was hyped up with homecoming events such as the Pep Fest and the Spirit Days.

During halftime, Humboldt officially dedicated its field and athletic complex in name of Bob Ryan. During the 70s and 80s, Ryan coached football, wrestling and track and field. He showed outstanding coaching skills and received wrestling coach of the year in 1987.

The game began and the crowd went wild. Afterwards, the student council did a great job setting up for the Homecoming dance. It was a night filled with fun.
Together we grow...

Every new day allows us a new chance to succeed. The hard-working staff and great teachers too are what gives Humboldt students the chance to believe in dreams that will come true.
We cross the paths of a thousand worlds exploring each other and the new.
Discovering the limitless possibilities of the things we can do.

Together we change.
Together we fly...
It's not all work here at Humboldt.

Smiles dominate the halls before, during and after classes.

From challenging courses to fun electives...

Humboldt students put their best effort forth.

Together we soar!

Some people awaken us to new understanding with the passing whisper of their wisdom. They stay in our lives for a while, leave footprints on our hearts, and we are never the same.

This painting of my grandmother symbolizes herself as a woman who concentrates on her sewing for it will help her family. I painted this because my grandmother is a strong significant person in my life. I felt that by catching her in the process of working it would show what kind of person she is. Not only does it symbolize my grandmother but my mom. If you notice that in the painting grandmother concentrates on her work and my mothers work they both represent how one is in the process and the other done.

Every year Asian club organizes Sadie Hawkins. While decorating for the dance, we ran into several obstacles but we overcame them and had fun. -Genny Yang.

Homeland Project Mission Statement: The Homeland Project is a cultural education and community organizing initiative created by and for Hmong Youth, to both reclaim their own cultural identities, and to help non-Hmong Minnesotans better understand the culture and history of the Hmong people. It is a direct response to the daily, lived reality of Hmong Americans a reality filled with the tension between honoring and preserving one's culture, while trying to grow and thrive in another. It is also a grassroots effort to strengthen our diversity in Minnesota through cultural exchange and understanding, especially during this critical time when our collective commitment to democratic ideas of diversity and freedom must be renewed.
Student Council members worked really hard to design and organize this year's Sno-Deze Coronation. They sacrificed an early Saturday morning and rather than sleeping in, they spent the day setting up and decorating the gym for the festivities. The end result was great and all their work paid off. The experience was fun. Great job student council!

They live their lives to enrich those who seek guidance and wisdom.

They teach to give back and in return, they receive the satisfaction of knowing they have helped someone.

To my sweet, Syndal
From Now On
I've never been kissed so passionately
And my heart belong to you
Touched so softly
Or felt this way before.
We met today
And I fell in love
On never turn away.
Your sweet, innocent face.

Learn from the Mistakes of Others
Anger is only one letter short of danger.
If someone betrays you twice, it is their fault.
Great minds discuss ideas.
Average minds discuss events.
Small minds discuss people.
We started our group, our circle of friends, and life is like a circle. There is no beginning or end.
In the end, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends.

Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart.

-unknown-

There will always be a footprint in my heart for y'all.

Love,
Jane

Best Friend -
By: Sara Gould
You told me I was good enough. That I deserved a chance. That I should have the courage to smile, to laugh, to dance. You told me not to care what other people thought. Once you are my best friend. A gift that can't be bought. And now I want to give you. What you always gave to me: love, friendship, caring.
And most importantly, dignity. But how can I do this in ways that equal yours? Once what I want to give you. Can't be bought in stores. What I want to give you is only a simple phrase, I may not mean the very much. But it is in every way. What I want to give you. Will never say my due. What I want to give you is a simple kind. Thank you.
Love,
Always,
Oynthia Murakami

Un Mundo de Paz
Imaginare un mundo hermoso, un mundo de paz
donde no hay odio ni guerra. Solo amor y armonía.
Imaginare un mundo donde la gente no se juzga por el color de su piel o por sus creencias donde la gente puede vivir en armonía.
Imaginare un mundo donde la gente no tiene que vivir en miedo donde existe la violencia.
Imaginare un mundo justo donde todos tengan a todos
la gente con dignidad y equidad.
Si todos somos mestizos creemos naciones y silenciamos pasada. Podemos hacer este mundo una realidad.

Remember the good times! Rob Noyola, you will always be in my heart. Don’t forget the swings at Cherokee. Good luck and God Bless c/o 2003!

My love for you guys goes like this...

Strolling down the beach, with the sand between our toes, we held hands.

We’ve watched as the waves splashed upon our feet, and like our ups & downs, they washed away our footprints. But the waves could never wash away our memories and the time we had with each other. We will continue to hold hands and stroll the rest of the beach together. ~Marri-

I love yall

Good Luck c/o 2003

We Will Miss You

Follow Your Dreams...

Don’t Give Up...
In Loving Memory of Jimmy O'Brien

He was a wonderful friend, his smile was contagious. It's incredible that even though he was here for a short time, he impacted so many lives. He will be truly missed.

Im Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call.
I turned my back, and left it all.
I could not stay another day:
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I've found that peace at close of day.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full. I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Life up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now. He set me free.
...Moving Forward
