Cheerleaders raise spirit and pride

Sixteen returning varsity cheerleaders and four newcomers helped raise the spirit and pride of Humboldt.

Along with raising spirit and pride, the cheerleaders became part of the athletic teams as they shared in the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat.

The twenty-member squad raised money for new skirts by holding a car wash and selling World’s Finest candy.

The JV squad held tryouts in November, and eight cheerleaders were chosen to lead the fans.

Captains were Tina Morales, Stella Romo, and Joelle Stanton.

Both varsity and JV were advised by Ms. Charlene Hunter, home economics teacher.

Cheering for junior high sports were eight cheerleaders who were advised by Ms. Gina Kunz, Spanish teacher.

They sold jewelry to raise money which was used to buy pins for their uniforms.

Special team cheerleaders, advised by Ms. Cheryl Weiss, IGLD teacher, cheered for all inter-program events and marched in the Special Olympics.

Footballers fall in final 2 minutes

Ending a football game two minutes sooner or two minutes later would have really helped Humboldt add victories to its record.

During the Johnson game, as the two-minute warning approached, the ball switched hands and the Governors defeated the Indians, 18-16. Tony Charles and Mike Pizzuti scored the touchdowns in the close loss.

This was the best game of the season, for we moved the ball very well and were good on defense, said Coach Bob Ryan. This was Coach Ryan’s last year of football coaching as he resigned at season’s end.

Not only was the Johnson game a “two-minute loss,” but the same thing happened in the Homecoming game against New Prague.

“It was the comeback of the year,” stated Coach Ryan. Humboldt was down, 29-8, and came back to make the score 29-24. The Indians had two minutes to sweep to a victory after the defense blocked the Trojans’ punt but were unable to score.

For the season, Humboldt was 1-8, with the only win being the opener against Highland, 8-6.

No wins for JV in conference play

The junior varsity faced a tough season and finished with a winless record.

Randy Kautz was the only player to score during the season. The touchdown was made in a 28-8 loss to Cretin. Ben Soto, a tough lineman, was named MVP.

Coach Jay Anderson's squad had six shut-out losses prior to the Cretin game and came closest to winning in a 10-0 loss to Highland in the season opener September 2.

Humboldt finished the season with losses to Hill-Murray, 55-0, and Harding, 42-0.

The ninth grade team started two weeks late and ended its season 0-6.

Not only did the ninth grade season start late, but after the team was formed it consisted of only fifteen members.

Even with a small squad, Humboldt stopped Johnson twice inside the five yard line in a 26-6 loss. Billy Taylor, a favorite receiver for quarterback Terry Andrew, was named the team's MVP.

The Indians came close against Cretin, 20-14, and scored at least one touchdown in each game.

Late start hurts tennis prospects

Despite its enthusiastic efforts, the ten-member tennis team could not overcome its small size and lack of pre-season practice and finished with a winless record.

Even though Humboldt was defeated in all seven of its matches, Coach Marlene Ziemski said that the girls' best matches were against Como and Central.

Playing against Como, the team work and skill of Laura Bock and Joy Granda led to victory in the first doubles event. Sue Meron also won her fourth singles match, but Humboldt was defeated, 5-2.

In the Central loss, 5-2, LouAnn Dufour outplayed her opponent to earn a point in the first singles, while second singles player Jody Sailor used her superior skill with the racket to also score a win.

With wins over Como and Central, Chris Brewer led the boys' cross country team with his best time of 17:43.

In the victory over Central, Brewer came in with a three-mile time of 17:54, followed by two other top runners: Tim Kreitz, 18:38, and Tim Newbauer, 18:01.

"Even though we might not have been successful competition-wise, we were a team," said Coach Mike Sullivan as Humboldt ended with a season record of 2-6.

For the girls' team, sophomore Sandy Bartok developed into a top runner, breaking the school record by over one minute with a two-mile time of 13:02.

Despite Bartok's efforts, Humboldt could not field a large enough team and lost all of its triangular meets.

Big victory posted in region action

A mark in Humboldt athletic history was made this year as the volleyball team captured a region victory.

The varsity volleyball team had never won a region game until it upset Hastings.

Humboldt was the underdog and things looked doubtful in the first game as Hastings bolted to a 15-3 lead.

As fans cheered the team on, Penny Schuldt received the serve and went on to take the team to a lead of 16-15. The final score favored Humboldt, 18-16.

In the second game, the girls came out strong and beat the Raiders, 18-16, earning a first-round region victory.

The Indians went on to the quarter-finals but were over-powered by eventual region champion Johnson.

Captain Dorie Adamez led the team in conference action as Humboldt had victories over Central, twice; Como Park, and Highland, making a season record of 4-5.

Special recognition went to: Adamez, All-Conference; Paula Burton, most dedicated; Jodi Pnewski, MVP; Shannon Royce, most improved; and Schuldt, All-Conference.

3 non-conference teams conquered

Hit the ball down and in the court was a phrase frequently repeated by the JV Coach Ray Schwabe.

Captains Teri McIntosh and Nancy Regan helped keep the team concentrating throughout the season. The JV captured three non-conference wins but had only one conference victory for the season.

Humboldt defeated Hill-Murray, 2-1, in conference play. St. Paul Park, 2-0; Sibley, 2-1; and Woodbury, 2-1; were conquered in non-conference action.

Most frequent starters for the team were Sydney Hanson, McIntosh, Regan, Tammy Vasquez, Patti Verdeja, and Jean Zigan.

A 6-4 record made this the most successful season ever for a Humboldt ninth grade volleyball team.

Co-captains were Candi Rosario and Karen Schmidt. Coach Mary Munkwitz was quick to single out Schmidt as the top player on the team for her overall talents and gave credit to both captains for their leadership abilities.

A City Conference tournament was held for the first time, with Humboldt posting a 1-3 record and finishing fourth out of six teams. The victory was over Como.

Swimmers gain first wins in 5 years

"The kids win again; this is not a misprint," was the main headline on Coach Jay Wescott's February 21 edition of "Swimming News" as his squad posted its second victory of the season — over Harding, 100-53. Humboldt's other win was over Como, 92-58.

These were the first dual meet wins for the Indians in five years.

"We came out winners! This is the best season I've had since I came to Humboldt," stated the enthusiastic coach.

Although the victories were truly team efforts, Humboldt's most valuable performer was Andy Flores, who led the way with 73 points. He was followed by Bob Parnell with 69, Rodney Owen with 52, and Paul Hernandez with 40.5. Flores, Parnell, Owen, and Tim Salak qualified for the Section Meet.
Captain Salak has best point total

With a conference record of 0-6, Humboldt had its closest meet of the season against Como. The final score was 76-40.

Junior Patti Patton shattered the school backstroke record against Central with a time of 1:16.33. Patton was ranked third in the City Conference in this event.

Sue Weir was out most of the season with a shoulder injury but still holds the school's breaststroke record.

An awards banquet was held at Duff's in Signal Hills. Most valuable swimmers included Robin Anderson, eighth grader; Patton, eleventh grader; and Dawn Salak, twelfth grader. Salak was also captain and had the most team points.

"I think the girls worked extremely hard, though we could have used more swimmers," stated Coach Jay Wescott.

Wrestlers capture Twin City title

A City Conference championship, a Twin Cities championship, four wrestlers qualifying for individual State Tournament competition, and a strong bid for the team portion of the State Tourney as this yearbook was being completed were all accomplishments of the varsity wrestling team.

Veteran Coach Bob Ryan led his charges far beyond an early-season loss to Johnson, as Humboldt took on all challengers and made respectable showings in tournaments involving many local big-school powerhouses. There was a second-place finish in the Burnsville Invitational, which included a special award for heavyweight Greg Sabin for the fastest pin — 33 seconds.

Humboldt finished second in the individual portion of the Region 3AA Tournament, and, as a result, qualified for the team portion of action.

Greg Brennhofer and Sabin led the State Tourney qualifiers. Brennhofer, wrestling at 126 pounds, posted a 25-2 mark, while Sabin was 25-1-1. Other qualifiers were Tim Newbauer at 98 pounds, a two-time region champion, and Gary Walker, region runner-up.

The winning tradition of Humboldt’s wrestling program will continue, if success of the junior varsity is any indication. The Indians were 6-1-1 in conference action, and the record included resounding wins over Highland, 68-0, and St. Thomas, 66-6. There was a 30-30 tie with Central and a 30-15 loss to Como.

Ninth grader Ruben Gomez led the way with twelve victories, while Erik Mickelson, Meng Lysongseng, and Pete Rosario had eleven each. After them were Andy Gomez and Steve Martineau with ten, followed by Bob Zimmerman with nine.

While lack of participants is a major problem for many Indian sports teams, Coach Tim Ryan called on 21 different wrestlers to represent Humboldt during the season.
Small squad size hinders efforts

"We're a much better team than the record indicates," commented Coach Bill Hickok.

The record for the girls' varsity basketball team was 2-13, with both wins coming over Como.

Coach Hickok said inexperience, a lack of height, and the small size of the team hindered Humboldt's efforts to win.

The small size often made it necessary for Jodi Carlson, Kim Pierce, and Yvette Schultz to come to the floor after having already participated in a full junior varsity game.

Leading scorer Dorie Adamez's ability to shoot successfully from outer court was the team's primary advantage.

Adamez, who scored 41 points in a 67-54 defeat by Johnson, was named "Prep Athlete of the Week" by the St. Paul Dispatch.

Another top scorer, Kelly Oglesby, made 13 rebounds in a 56-48 loss to Central. "The free throws killed us," Coach Hickok said of that game, in which Oglesby and Denise Rios fouled out.

As long as you're striving for improvement, it's enjoyable," said girls' JV basketball Coach Ann Nehring, who attributed the team's 0-15 losing streak to the small size and inexperience.

"We need the numbers, then we could compete," stated Coach Nehring. She indicated the team is still building and that it will take two years to develop a strong squad.

The girls' best games were against Como and Derham Hall. In the Derham Hall game, Diane Dow scored eight points.

Other top scorers for the season were Jodi Carlson, Missy Castillo, Shelly DeMarre, Monica Rodriguez, and Yvette Schultz.

Players receiving special recognition were Laura Bock, MVP; Kim Hottinger, most improved; and Elizabeth Vasquez, most dedicated.
Injuries ruin victory chances

"We had a tough season. A lot of our girls received injuries which put them out of competition," stated Coach Betty McNiff.

With usually one gymnast out of every meet, it was difficult for Humboldt to earn a victory.

In close competition, Humboldt was defeated by Como, 99.55-75.35; Highland, 99.30-65.45; and Johnson, 93.5-79.2.

In the Como meet, captain Penny Schuldt was first on beam and Tracy Vasquez was second on floor. Placing in the Highland meet was Schuldt, as she took third on beam. Scoring third place on beam and floor against Johnson was Kari Carlson.

Receiving recognition were Kim Michalek, most dedicated; Stephanie Wilson, most improved; and Vasquez, most valuable.
Record skids with injury to Aeilts

With a 0-18 record, the closest the Indians came to a victory was against St. Thomas, 56-50.

"It was the best game we played," stated first-year varsity Coach Larry Lucio. Top scorer against the Cadets was Steve Aeilts with 26 points.

Aeilts, a 6-8 center, received an injury to his wrist, which caused him to be out for most of the season.

With leading-scorer Aeilts out of competition, it forced Humboldt to be at a great disadvantage against any other teams who had players above the height of 5-5.

Although the Indians faced a tough season, Coach Lucio emphasized the importance of a positive attitude and attendance at practices.

Helping Coach Lucio with the "positive attitude" was Harvey Mise!, who has worked with such people as Rod Carew, and Phil Ravitsky, locally-known basketball expert.

There was also a new tradition started this year, an alumni basketball game which raised money to send players to camp and to buy basketball shoes.

More bench strength needed by JV squad

Facing tough competition with only six players was a strong factor in conference action as the JV boys’ basketball team ended with a winless season.

Coached by Mr. Steve Elizondo, the Indians were forced to play an entire game with only one player available to give others a rest.

There were two “clock-ticking” losses for Humboldt. The Indians were defeated by Como and St. Croix Lutheran in overtime. Top scorers were David Firkus and Roy Hernandez.

The ninth grade team, coached by Mr. Don Luna, had victories over St. Croix and Minneapolis Lutheran. In conference action, Humboldt finished with a 1-17 record.

Top scorers were Scott Aeilts and Mark Reinke. Marvin Stoltz was the leading rebounder, while Ricky Perez was assistant leader.
Girls’ team records

win over Como, 11-8

Above: Nancy Regan takes her final run of the day; Scott Englund makes a quick stop. Above right: Mark Bukowski and Scott Englund prepare to race; Scott Englund helps Mark Hejhal adjust his skis.

Cold weather and snow generally are very helpful for the development of ideal skiing conditions, but too much of each too early in the season made life difficult for Coach Dianne Hopen and her ten varsity competitors.

Scott Englund, a junior, was best overall performer for the boys’ team, which was winless in conference action. Second-best skier was Mark Hejhal. Humboldt could have used more skiers.

Jolene Jenniges, best overall skier, and Nancy Regan, team captain, made up the entire girls’ team, which had an 11-8 win over Como to its credit.

The biggest blow for the future of skiing at Humboldt came at the end of the season when Coach Hopen announced her resignation.
Slow start hurts; Indians drop Cretin

As the varsity hockey team finished with a 6-13 conference record, Coach Ralph McDonough commented that a slow start — four straight losses — really hurt.

In the first round, the Indians defeated Central, 7-3, and Highland, 7-1. The winning pace soon picked up in the second round as Humboldt avenged earlier losses to Como and Cretin.

In the victory over Como, 5-4, the game was tied 4-4 in the third period with 15 seconds remaining when Robby Nelson placed the winning goal in the net.

Scoring the other goals against Como were Dan Hosley, Sean Lane with two, and Brian McDonough.

In a big win over Cretin, 11-4, goals were made by Shawn Eccles, Lane, Karl Lasch with four, Victor Lucio with two, and Brian McDonough with a hat trick.

Top scorers for the team were McDonough with 28 points, followed by Lasch with 25. Coach McDonough also added that senior Tony Lissick was the most improved hockey player he has ever seen.

A manpower shortage haunted the JV hockey team which was made up primarily of varsity sophomores and juniors wanting more playing time.

Conference play ended in mid-February with a final record of 2-11-2.

Hard-fought victories were earned over Central, 8-2, and Como, 10-4. The Indians tied with Harding, 6-6, and Highland, 5-5.

Sophomore Brian McDonough had five goals in the big win over Como. Dan Hosley and Bob Zuniga were credited with two goals each, on assists from Robby Nelson and Mike Lissick.

Co-captains Karl Lasch and McDonough ended the season as the squad's top point-getters.

"We did our best with what we had; we just didn't have enough players," Lasch stated.
The eighteen-member floor hockey team for the physically impaired failed to bring home a win this season and had a final record of 0-7.

It was difficult for Humboldt to win when other schools, such as Osseo and Anoka, had players with fewer severe impairments, explained Coach Helen Swanson.

Goal tenders were Sean Kealy, Eric Peterson, and Kim Strader. Strader played a variety of positions, including both defense and offense.

Five-year member Scott Young was the team's best shot. Other top scorers were Lisa Smith and Steve St. George.

"We have a great bunch. They all have a 'go get em' attitude and also play to have a good time," concluded Coach Swanson.

Dance line returns after 3-year absence

After three years of not being in existence, the Indianettes came alive again with the help of new School Board funding and the work of Ms. Cheryl Weiss, their adviser.

The girls acted as their own choreographer and made up their own routines. Candy was sold at the beginning of the year to raise enough money to make their own costumes.

The group started with twenty dancers but dwindled to eight following weeks of demanding practice sessions.

The band played the music at all of their showings, with "Eye of the Tiger" being one of the Indianettes' most popular songs.

Ms. Weiss explained that because the group is new they did not take part in any competition, though they look forward to local and state participation in years to come.

"We're very pleased with the program. We get employees in areas where we need help, and we feel that we are doing the community a service by providing work experiences and wages to students. The students we've received from Humboldt have been topnotch." These were the words of Ms. Anne Tischler, supervisor of trainees at Cherokee State Bank, when asked for her evaluation of the on-the-job training program.

Now in its twenty-eighth year, the program has been providing half-day work experiences for seniors who not only earn academic credit for their efforts but also receive a paycheck.

Advised by Mr. Joel Arnevik and Mr. Jim Wirth, this year's program involved 38 seniors who were employed by 26 companies.
'Zim,' Johnson reign over week

"Trample the Trojans" was the slogan for annual Homecoming activities, and even though a late-game rally fell short and the "Trojan trampling" did not really happen, the week provided plenty of events to involve students and to promote Humboldt.

Bob Zimmerman and Laura Johnson were chosen king and queen to reign over the week’s festivities which started off with Monday as dress-up day in honor of the coronation.

Many students took part in Tuesday's punk rock day, while spirit and pride were shown on jersey and button day on Wednesday.

Thursday, students were part of toga and pajama day during school time, and after school many were either participants or spectators for the Powder Puff football game which ended with seniors reigning as overall winners.

Real personality was shown on Friday's hat, wig, and shades day.

Although school ended at 2:20 p.m. Friday after a pep fest, school spirit was brought to Highland Stadium where the football team played a tough game but was defeated, 29-24, by New Prague.

Following the game was the week’s final highlight, the dance, with "Wishing on a Rainbow" as its theme.

Greg Sabin and Jackie Theno were chosen by Humboldt students as king and queen to reign over Sno-Daze January 30-February 3.

At Tuesday's coronation, Denise Rios played "When I'm Feeling All Alone" on the piano, and break-dancers performed a routine they created.

Underclass winners were: Nancy Regan, princess; Gary Walker, prince; Rosa Gaona, duchess; Robby Nelson, duke; Michelle Albrecht, lady; and Scott Munos, lord.

The week's festivities included Monday, go-Hawaiian day; Tuesday, dress-up day; Wednesday, back to the twenties and fifties; Thursday, flannel and fatigue day; and Friday, backwards and clash day.

Other king and queen candidates were Kurt Goldberg, Maria Haider, Victor Lucio, Kris Murphy, Mark Osborne, Dawn Salak, Avninder Sehmi, and Tina Sjoblom.

Also nominated for prince and princess were Julie Anderson, Eileen Deutsch, Jon Garcia, Joy Granda, Hazem Issa, Shelly Meyer, Doug Robinson, and Mike Romo.

Tenth grade duke and duchess candidates were Shelly DeMarre, Brian Gomez, Mike Grossman, Ray Kittelson, Mike Lissick, Tina Morales, Melanie Nobello, and Cristela Rangel.

Jackie Bungue, Missy Castillo, Craig Gleb, Ruben Gomez, Dawn LaForte, Sandy Rosario, Tim Salak, and Bob Zuniga were other lord and lady nominees.

Council endorses SADD program

“Student Council is the best thing about this school,” council member Margeret Foster enthusiastically commented, explaining that “we’re not just going to school, but we’re a part of it.”

Throughout the year, fifty delegates planned events ranging from a cheese and sausage sale to Homecoming and Sno-Daze. Julie Todorad and Kim Albrecht organized the annual Humboldt Helps Santa Drive. To encourage student participation, they organized skits about student involvement.

President Laura Johnson said that the biggest project was organizing the Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) program.

Doug Robinson led ten volunteers toward their objective. “I hoped it helped the people at Humboldt,” Doug said. He also stated that in White Bear, a similar program has saved three lives.

Doug believes next year the program, which offers weekend taxi service to those who need a sober ride home, will be more successful because not enough people are informed about it yet.

“I hope they keep it going,” Laura Morales commented. She explained it would be a shame if the program failed, because it gives students a chance to really help people. Even if the program collapses, Morales said, “at least, we started it.”

Members add to song folders

“It’s great to work with kids who have been with me as long as this group has,” stated Mr. Richard Garcia, choir director, who will lose about one-half of his group on graduation day.

The chorus performed more music than ever before. In the past, the chorus members could keep all of their sheet music in one folder. This year, two folders were necessary — one for the music they knew perfectly and one for new music.

“One Voice” and “The Clouds” were among the chorus’s favorite songs. Other favorites included “Lonely Memories,” “We Can’t Say Goodbye,” and “I Need You Friend,” which were written by tenth grader Denise Rios.

Chorus favorites were sung at occasions ranging from the Fall Festival to a first-ever Pyramid performance, where younger students from the feeder schools performed with Humboldt’s chorus.

In January, the boys’ quartet of Eric Kaup, Brian Kittelson, Keith LeMire, and Mike Romo and the girls’ quintet of Raymi Casillas, Molly Conlan, Beverly Nash, Michelle Peterson, and Denise Rios attended a chorus workshop at River Falls State University.

Even though individual performers received most of the recognition, Mr. Garcia emphasized teamwork. He hopes his students have learned “to love music and harmony” and have developed respect for each other.

Musicians set Black Hills trip

“It’s a unique way to be involved in extra-curricular activities and a good opportunity to meet friends,” commented David Campbell, when asked about his three years as a trumpet player for Humboldt’s band.

The band and Director Richard Curran spent much time together at activities ranging from selling cheese and sausage to daily practice. The fundraising financed a trip to South Dakota’s Black Hills, while practice led to the band’s outstanding performances.

Outside of school, Kim Beto, Corinne Budziszewski, Campbell, Ray Dahn, Dan Hannan, Kathy Kutz, Bill Lee, David Momberger, Jason Redlin, and Tina Sjoblom represented Humboldt at the fifth annual St. Olaf College Festival of Bands.

The Fall Festival, Variety Show, Winter Concert, and Spring Concert were among the many in-school highlights.

During the winter concert, varsity and concert bands combined resources for the first time to play “Winter Sleighride.” “Bugler’s Holiday” was also performed and featured a trumpet trio of Campbell, Redlin, and Sjoblom.

French Dinner breaks attendance record

A record 151 people saw France come to life at the annual French Club Dinner in October.

The T.C. Breakers — Craig Gleb, Tracey Gleb, and Eddie Espinoza — added an American touch to the occasion, as they danced their version of the Pop. Other dinner highlights were the famous Can Can dance, a French song, and nursery rhymes recited in French.

There was a field trip in January to see Ba Bar at Children's Theatre. Members also viewed French impressionist paintings at the Institute of Arts and dined at Hotel Sofitel.

Senior Rose Brotzler took the ultimate field trip as she visited France and spent several days in a French home.
El Quijote, Humboldt’s Spanish Club, went into the publishing business this year with a Spanish-English language newspaper which was distributed to students and community members. Directing this operation were Ernesto Benitez and Mario Duarte.

Other activities included visiting Mexican restaurants, such as Old Mexico and Chi Chi’s, to learn about Hispanic culture and food.

Fund-raising was also on the agenda as the club sold candles, stuffed animals, felt school pennants, and World’s Finest Chocolate as part of a campaign to raise $3000 to help reduce the cost of a two-week trip to Mexico in April.
Small staff beats deadline pressures

Successful meeting of deadlines in November, January, and February made it possible for the publication of this book.

Working to achieve these deadlines was a very small staff led by editor Penny Schuldt and Adviser Robert Klepperich, who returned from a three-month "retirement."

Each deadline involved such chores as designing layouts, writing copy, and cropping pictures, all of which took careful planning and many extra hours outside of school.

Along with putting out a 128-page yearbook, the staff published six issues of the school newspaper, the Arrow, and four issues of the parents' newsletter.

Dedication was a main priority in room 134, where one could hear the sounds of typewriters and kernels of corn popping.
Sub-zero weather cuts Afton trips

Although temperatures were often below zero, the Ski Club managed to take only two trips to the Afton Alps Ski Area.

The club also had a trip planned to Birch Park, but the weather was too cold, and the outing was cancelled.

Expenses were not a problem for the 57-member club. Enough money was left from last year, so fundraisers were not needed.

Adviser Dianne Hopen taught beginners the techniques of skiing during their first time on the slopes.

Humboldt competes in debate, math

Debaters argued the thornier issues of the American criminal justice system, such as plea bargaining, the insanity plea, and the death penalty.

Led by Coach Michael Tweeton, nine students participated in about twenty debates. “We gained a lot of experience and hope to do better next year,” commented Coach Tweeton.

Even though the math team was rated toward the bottom of the league, members had the opportunity to attack a multitude of problems and puzzles, ranging from difficult to practically impossible.

Coach Frank Jondal said that the league’s main purpose was to give students practice for the annual American High School Mathematics Examination, which is used to identify students with unusual mathematical ability.

Mr. Ettlinger named principal

"Being principal of Humboldt is the best job in the city," was one of Mr. John Ettlinger's responses to being named chief administrator of the two-building "complex" in August.

After 26 years at Humboldt, first as a teacher and then as assistant principal, Mr. Ettlinger was well-known in the community and his appointment was well-received.

His reputation as a "firm but fair" disciplinarian followed him into the well-lit principal's office at the end of the hall as he hit upon "school climate" as one of his top priorities.

He also placed emphasis on "basic subjects," — reading, composition, and math — as being of great importance.

In addition to working with the school district's new policy of offering the same courses in all schools, the friendly chief administrator also dealt with the threat of a teachers' strike and how to spend an inadequate amount of money for equipment and supplies.

Survey reveals faculty diversity

A study conducted by students in one of Mr. Richard Robinson’s history classes revealed that the faculty of Humboldt reflects nearly as much diversity as the student population.

Of the 120 teachers surveyed, sixteen geographic areas were mentioned as a result of the simple question, “Which high school did you graduate from?”

Ms. Yasmine Rivera, senior class counselor, and Mr. Ruben Soruco, math, physics, and Spanish teacher, traveled the greatest distance to get to Humboldt. Ms. Rivera is from Panama City, Panama, and Mr. Soruco is from La Paz, Bolivia.

The roster of states mentioned in the survey ranged from California to New York and from Texas to Pennsylvania. Yes, even North Dakota and Iowa were listed.

Ten teachers are from Minneapolis schools, while 33 said their roots were right here in St. Paul. In fact, Mr. Dick Furey, English teacher and work coordinator, Mr. Larry Lucio, junior high counselor, and Ms. Nelsine Stuhlman, ESL teacher, are currently very close to “home,” since they are graduates of Humboldt.

Seniors survive, look for answers

That day finally arrived, Tuesday September 6, when we officially became seniors. That was a big day for us but all too soon came the biggest day of our last year at Humboldt: graduation night, June 7, when we gave up our title of "seniors."

There were many special memories between the first and last days of our senior year.

We started off the school year by welcoming Mr. Ettlinger as the new principal. We soon got to know Mr. LeDuc as he sent out the green corridor passes which entitled us to free trips to the office.

Then came the three days to sleep late as underclasses took SRA tests. Who could ever forget that awful day in late November when a snowstorm forced school to be cancelled?

Christmas vacation was next, and there was the thought of having a couple extra weeks off because of the threat of a teachers' strike. At first we thought those extra weeks would be great, but then we realized that if the strike went longer we wouldn't graduate on time.

The issue was settled, and we returned to school as usual.

Second semester approached, and it went by quickly as we began to get spring fever.

Those last few months were the greatest but yet the scariest. We were finally leaving Humboldt. Now What?

112 — Seniors
In search of pride...

June 7, 1983: the final day of ‘officially’ being a senior...

The things we’ve learned, the friends we’ve made, the way we joked and laughed and played

Senior Year

The time has come,
now it’s our last year.
But it’s what’s ahead that we mostly fear.

We thought it was a jail
going by the golden rule.
But what would we do
if we didn’t have school?

The things we’ve learned and the friends we’ve made, the way we joked and laughed and played.

Our high school years went by so fast.
But just ask anyone,
we all had a blast.

The fun we had when we were together, and the memories we shared will last forever.

— Luann Hieb
What seniors remember most

Tony Charles: Winning the first football game of the season.

David Campbell: I'll always remember the people and some classes, such as my band experience, biology (because of all the films we watched), and chemistry labs.

Bill Lee: Worrying about what to do after graduation.

Fred Winterbauer: Humboldt, making fun of the unorganized morning announcements, and getting hassled in the office for oversleeping.

Richard Peterson: Coming to school.

Nancy Cruz: I'll always remember the best homeroom, 135.

Denise McGovern: Going to McDonald's for lunch, Andi's Halloween party, and Jerry's car.

Kari Bortz: The possibility of a teachers' strike which would mean graduating late.

Avninder Sehmi: Mr. Soruco and Mr. Robinson are unique individuals. Also, being a student in a different country.

Ray Dahn: Going to St. Olaf for the honor band was the best time of my senior year.

Bob Park: Worrying about college tests, (SAT and ACT).

Dan Cruz: Wrestling match against Como for the city championship and hurting my knee.

LouAnn Dufour: Debate road trips to Duluth and Mankato.

Deann Elizondo: When we almost set the graphics room on fire.

Mark Ziertman: The army concert.

John Ohmann: Being a senior and getting to do what I want.

Greg Brennhofer: Starving during wrestling season to make weight.

Luann Hieb: Making cheerleading for the first time and cheering.

Tony Charles heads out the door, symbolic of his final departure from HHS in June.
Sean Vasquez: The good times after football games when everyone got together. Also, cheerleading initiation.

Kelly Bortz: Waiting for graduation night.

Bob Zimmerman: Homecoming week and going to Greg Sabin’s house after the coronation.

Anita Demma: Watching Mr. Klawitter get irritated because of the interruptions over the loud speaker.

Steve Aeilts: Almost winning the basketball game against St. Thomas.

Frank Trejo: Signing up for the army.

Kara Hinz: Trying to get through classes, and Mr. Vokety stealing my shoes on the first day of class while I was sleeping.

Lisa DeTomaso: Getting stuck in the school bus for three hours because of the snow storm.
