1981 LIFE

Reflections

of a school year:
decorated hallways,
Mac's for lunch,
sleeping during class,
cramming for tests,
sending carnations
on Valentine's Day, lockers saying
"Happy Birthday," phone calls
between classes,
pride days
and battle cries.

Reflections

of a school year:
'Urban Cowboy,'
French braids,
Dolly Parton
in '9 to 5,' baggy pants,
Billy Joel's
"Still Rock-n-Roll to Me," cowboy hats,
John Lennon
imagining
all the people living life in peace.

Faculty: Acceptance sought

WILLIAM SAGERT
Principal

The Board of Education waited until summer to announce appointment of Mr. William Sagert as new principal to replace Mr. Arley Ludwig, who retired at the end of last year after having served as HHS principal since 1968.

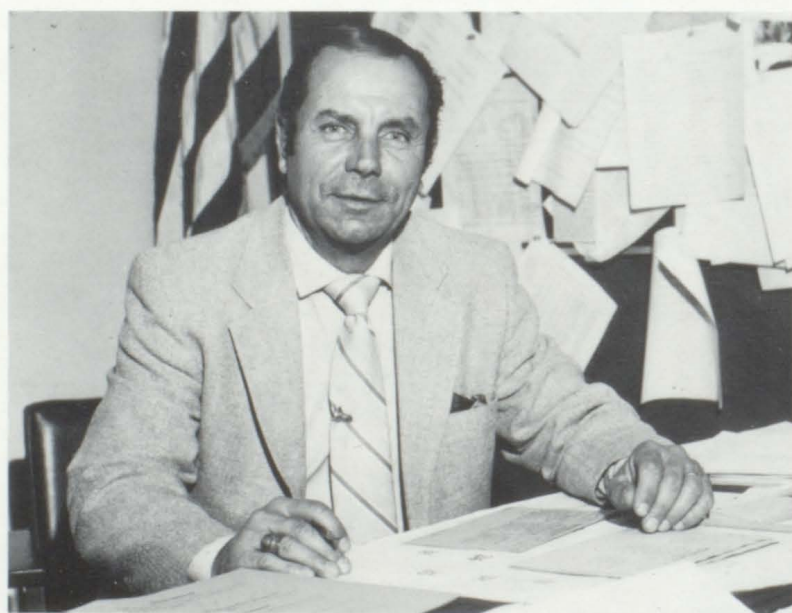

A thirty-year veteran of public school education, Mr. Sagert assumed his new role following six years as principal at Central — an assignment which had him supervising a large building which was in the midst of major rehabilitation.

Mr. Sagert came to the West Side with an attitude of one who hoped to be accepted by this school community and as one who would do all he could to be worthy of this acceptance. He became known as a quiet leader, except when he led the PRIDE cheer at a football pepfest.

He believed in being visible to all in the building and went to work on such objectives as trying to improve student attendance records, build a true sense of school spirit, and help provide a "proper" educational climate for all students.

This was quite a challenge in a year marked by more declines in enrollment, more teacher cut-backs, and fewer budget dollars.

Homecoming proved to be a fun and exciting display of events which was highlighted by the participation and pride of students and the football victory over Highland's Scotsmen.

The Friday night game was the football team's best effort of the season, a 28-12 victory. The squad was encouraged by a P-R-I-D-E pep fest, the noisiest in the school's recent history, and Homecoming buttons, which sold for $1 and carried the slogan "Squeeze the Scotties."

Following the win at Central Stadium, football players and fans returned to the West Side for the dance, which included music by Phantasy.

"Always and Forever" was this year's theme for the coronation. Tim Osborne was crowned king, and he crowned Leslie Schwab as queen.

Other activities for the week included: shade, sock, short, and hat day; uniform day; back to the 50's day; and cowboy day. Powder puff football was played Wednesday night with the seniors reigning as overall winners.

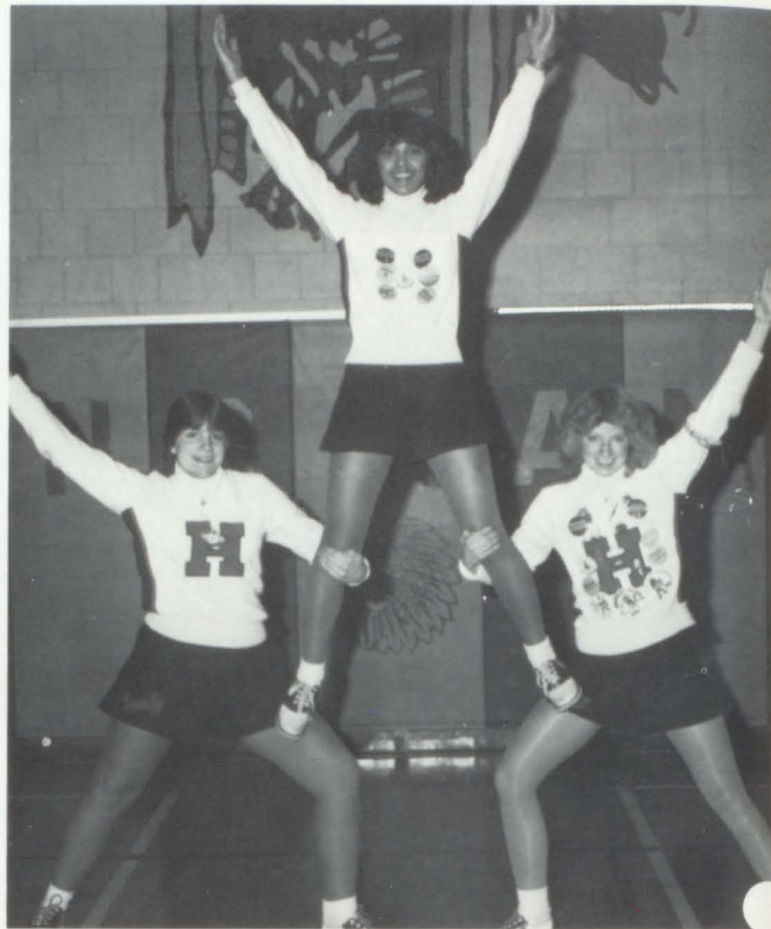

As King Tim Osborne looks on, master of ceremony Joe Gaona places the cape on the shoulders of the new Homecoming Queen Leslie Schwab.

Spirit return recognizable

The return of school spirit was recognizable, as the nineteen-member varsity cheerleading squad participated in parades and pep assemblies which supported a boost in Humboldt's morale.

Making posters, cheering 2-3 nights per week, arranging pep assemblies, obtaining helium balloons to be set free at Homecoming kickoff, toilet papering the player's houses, and initiating new cheerleaders were all a part of being a varsity cheerleader.

Led by co-captains Joyce Heininger and Pam Lerczak, the Cheerleaders raised money to purchase sweaters for four winter squads, which meant selling candy, cookies, and Christmas ornaments, and holding an occasional lunch-time bake sale. Ms. Lilian Lee, adviser, said, "Our cheerleaders were enthusiastic till the very end."

Tryouts for the twelve member JV cheerleading squad were held in late October, which called for an unmeasured amount of dedication to after-school practices. Co-captains were Peggy Kegler and Laurie Omelenik.

goals set by director

When asked to summarize his goals for the Instrumental Music Department, Mr. Roger Sorenson, Humboldt's new Band director as of September, commented that his goals were to start an Orchestra and a Jazz Band, and to increase the Band membership to 85.

Having the advantage of a size increase opened many new opportunities for the Band. With its 54 members, the Band played at as many activities as possible, including Homecoming, assemblies, parades, and sporting events. They also combined with the Choir for a Christmas Concert held in the auditorium December 9.

Violins, violas, and cellos were all part of the 21-member Orchestra which started at the beginning of the second trimester. For an introduction of themselves, the Orchestra appeared at the Christmas Concert and demonstrated their newly acquired abilities.

Band officers were: Lisa Kasella, president; Nancy Firkus, vice-president; Julie Helquist, secretary; and Richard Kast, treasurer.

With a cast of 88 students, Calamity Jane was presented by the Concert Choir February 26-27 on Humboldt's stage. Forty-five of those students were performers, while the others assisted by contributing in such ways as designing scenery, creating costumes, and organizing publicity.

Most of the cast parts were doubled by Director Darwin Korum to give more students the opportunity to become involved. Lead parts were played by Sue Dwyer and Janet VanZyl, as Calamity Jane; and Luke Salverda, as Wild Bill Hickock.

Seasoning Kits were sold to help pay musical costs, which ran to about $500. Included in the costs were costumes, music, scripts, set construction, programs, and tickets.

During September through December, the Concert Choir was preparing for the annual Christmas Concert, held December 9. Happenings Coupon Books were also sold to raise money for new choir music.

As the final traditional performance of the year, the Concert Choir participated in the Commencement Program presented June 3.

A soccer team had a 1-4 record during its fall season. The victory was posted over the St. Paul Independents.

Leading scorers for the Indians were Dan Lindbeck and Jeff Tyler. Todd Ronngren and Billy Efron were also strong on offense. Stand-out as goalie for the squad was Kim Strader. Coach for the Indians was Mr. Steen Seestedt.

The floor hockey team started its five-game schedule January 11. Included among Humboldt's opponents were: Osseo, Anoka, St. Paul Independents, Minneapolis Independents, and Marshall University.

A five-course French dinner on the night of Humboldt's Open House for parents gave French Club members plenty of favorable publicity and the opportunity to show people that all of their academic skills were not strictly tied up with mastering a second language.

Entertainment, publicity, and serving were provided by members, while the Food Service classes handled menu preparation.

French Club officers were: David Bryant and Sue Dwyer, co-presidents; Gennell Casillas, vice-president; Anne Nehring, secretary; and Gerry Ewald, treasurer. Ms. Dianne Hopen was the club's adviser.

Career Club members promoted individual days for professional men and women from various fields to come to Humboldt to explain their careers and tell more about how and where to enroll in a schooling program.

College representatives were also invited to Humboldt to inform students about the benefits of their schools, both academically and in their extra-curricular activities.

Ski Club: 100 members

Taking the title as the school's largest student organization was the Ski Club, which could brag about its membership total of more than 100.

Each week during the skiing season, a bus-load of students traveled from Humboldt to Afton Alps for four hours of fun on the slopes.

Skiing activities were off to a slow start as snow did not make its first real visit until well after the first of the year. This did not hinder the group, which took advantage of people-made white stuff for several of its early trips.

Seventy-five members went to Thunder Bay, Ontario in February for a weekend of skiing.

The club gained additional notoriety when some members were selected to represent Humboldt in City Conference skiing competition.

Ms. Dianne Hopen presided as adviser, ski-trip organizer, and official money counter for the group's many fund-raising activities.

Best Times'

"Slip-n-Slide with Indian Pride" was chosen as the button slogan for Sno-Week, while "These Are the Best Times" was the theme used for the coronation.

Crowning of the candidates took place January 26, with Rick Schmidt and Debbie Alverson chosen as king and queen. Also reigning were Tom Brennhofer and Rosa Gaona, as prince and princess; and Tim Samec and Peggy Kegler, as duke and duchess.

Activities during the week included Dress Up Day, Cowboy Day, Clash Day, and Pride Day.

Lunch-time activities, sponsored by Student Council, were apple bobbing and doughnut eating contests and an applesauce race.

A new addition to Sno-Week was a cash drawing in which a total of $130 was given away. Buttons were registered to make holders eligible for the cash prizes.

To conclude Sno-Week, there was a pep-fest during sixth hour and the Sno-Daze dance, held Friday night.

Working to revive a sense of school pride was the Student Council's main objective during the school year.

Board members were busy organizing and carrying out such activities as Homecoming, the Humboldt Helps Santa Campaign, and Sno-Daze.

The Council, which met daily during first hour, named twenty new members to the delegate assembly. These members made it easier to cover all homerooms and to spread information regarding school activities.

One of the major events of the school year, the Humboldt Helps Santa campaign, brought in $750 and 868 items of food. All money and items of food received during the week of the campaign were given to the Salvation Army and the Neighborhood House.

The big fund-raiser of the year was the annual cheese and sausage sale. The Council also sold baseball caps and jerseys, which were available at the bookstore along with the usual array of candy bars and other goodies.

NHS: Early selection made

RIGHT: Dawn Dowd questions Mr. Klawitter about the NHS banquet.

Selection of National Honor Society members began early this year with 13 new members added, to bring the total to 21.

Students were chosen in December, instead of in spring as in previous years, to enable the group to have more NHS activities during the school year.

Requirements for membership were academic achievement as well as involvement in school organizations, such as athletics or Student Council.

By receiving a notice from adviser Calvin Klawitter, students were invited to become NHS members.

In the selection process, eligible students had to gain sponsorship of teachers, coaches, and advisers. They were then judged in three areas: service to the school, leadership qualities, and character. These recommendations determined who the new NHS members were.

All new members were initiated at a breakfast at Perkins. At that time, they were asked to recite a poem, riddle, or joke in front of the rest of the group.

Indianettes: New routines

Ms. Kathy Fuller, eleven new members, a choreographer, and less repetition in songs and routines were all part of the new look of the Indianettes.

Ms. Fuller, home economics teacher, was named at the end of the '79-'80 school year as the new adviser.

When Ms. Fuller was asked how she felt the year had gone, she said, "I think it went great. They've improved a lot since last year. They're working together more, too."

The Indianettes recruited for about five days, and eleven more girls joined, both from the junior and senior high.

At the beginning of the year, all of the routines were made up by the Indianettes. In mid-November, they hired Ms. Alice Quinn to choreograph the dances. Ms. Quinn has had eighteen years of dance experience and has her own dance school.

Officers for the danceline were: Mary Schmitz, captain; LeeAnn Dahlberg, Kathy LeMire, and Shannon Martagon, secretaries; and Dianne Jordan, and Collette VanGuilder, treasurers.

Publications: Small staff

Despite the disadvantages of a small staff and an even smaller budget, Humboldt's journalists managed to overcome most of the obstacles they were faced with during the school year.

With only 350 students purchasing subscriptions during the ten-day drive, the staff found it had less money to work with than in previous years. But after replacing the popcorn popper which burned out in early September, everyone was set and ready to go.

The eleven-member staff, that got even smaller after 2:30 p.m., spent many long hours after school drawing layouts, typing copy, and selecting just the right pictures in order to meet three major yearbook deadlines. A few other tasks that kept members busy were keeping a calendar of events and filling up the bulletin board with items ranging from Katie's rules to a sign reminding the group that back was not the same as top. Also, occasional seminars celebrating such special events as birthdays, holidays, and the completion of this book help to ease the tension.

streak

When thinking in terms of a win-loss record, the 1980-81 football season was not a prosperous one, but determination, might, and team spirit made the season worthwhile.

Led by tri-captains Tim Albrecht, Tony Casillas, and Luis Rosario, the Indians took home a victory against Highland Park, 28-12, which broke their two-year losing streak.

The first touchdown was a 58-yard pass from Ron Clevenger to Curly Cenicerros. There was also a touchdown by Steve Montantes followed by two TD's by Casillas. The season ended with a 1-7 record.

Casillas was voted most valuable player and best offensive back. Other honored players were Scott Scheuer, top receiver; Layo Cerda, best defensive back; Luis Rosario and Dave Theno, best defensive linemen.

All City honors went to Casillas and Rosario, with Casillas also earning Honorable Mention for the All Metro team.

JV: A winless season

With a season record of 0-7, the boys' JV football team had its closest game against Harding, October 3, a 16-6 loss.

Coach Pat Funk has coached JV football at Humboldt for the past two years. Coach Funk and Assistant Coach Jay Anderson had to deal with the problem of losing many of their players to the varsity.

Cited by the coaching staff for their consistent contributions to the team were Rick Bravo, Chuck Cardenas, Ron Leder, Paul Parkos, Dave Shepherd, Mike Vosper, and Bob Zimmerman.

Humboldt's worst loss came early in the season to Johnson, 50-0.

Other losses were to Central, 36-0; Highland Park, 32-8; Cretin, 40-0; and Como Park, 24-8.

A conference record of 0-8 was recorded by the cross country team this year. Despite the loss of six members during the season, the nine-member team put forth an exceptional effort.

Competition was very difficult as Humboldt was forced to run against squads of 30-70 members.

Senior Mike Foster and sophomore Keith Nielsen were cited as the team's top runners with times ranging in the 18-19 minute mark for the three-mile course. Both were considered to be very strong and determined runners.

Michelle Helsper was the only girl on the team to finish the season and was praised by Coach Mike Sullivan for her dedication.

Despite a season which resulted in a losing team record, the coach was proud of the positive attitudes which made his work much easier.

important

The Indians' second match in conference play proved to be their first and only taste of victory as they beat Central, 2-1.

First year coach Ms. Denise Quinlan said, "I worked to get the girls in good shape. I ran them through long and difficult practices, concentrating on lots of running."

But all the dedication seemed frustrating as the squad finished the season with a 1-6 win-loss record.

Certificates were presented at an awards banquet, held at Mancini's, to the team's outstanding players: Theresa Newbauer, most aggressive; DeDe Adamez, best defensive; Dori Pnewski, most valuable; and Pnewski and Michelle Traynor, captains.

Junior varsity won its conference opener against Derham Hall, 18-7 and 18-15, but stumbled into the same disappointment as the varsity squad, with a conference win-loss record of 1-6 to hand to Coach Ray Schwabe.

scoring efforts

An unsuccessful but self-fulfilling season is best illustrated by the boys' varsity basketball team. Led by tri-captains Mark Aeilts, Bob Murphy, and Luis Rosario, the Indians managed to encounter teams of much more size and numbers, only to be disappointed by defeat.

Leading the scoring was Aeilts, with a 16.1 scoring average, followed by Rosario and Murphy.

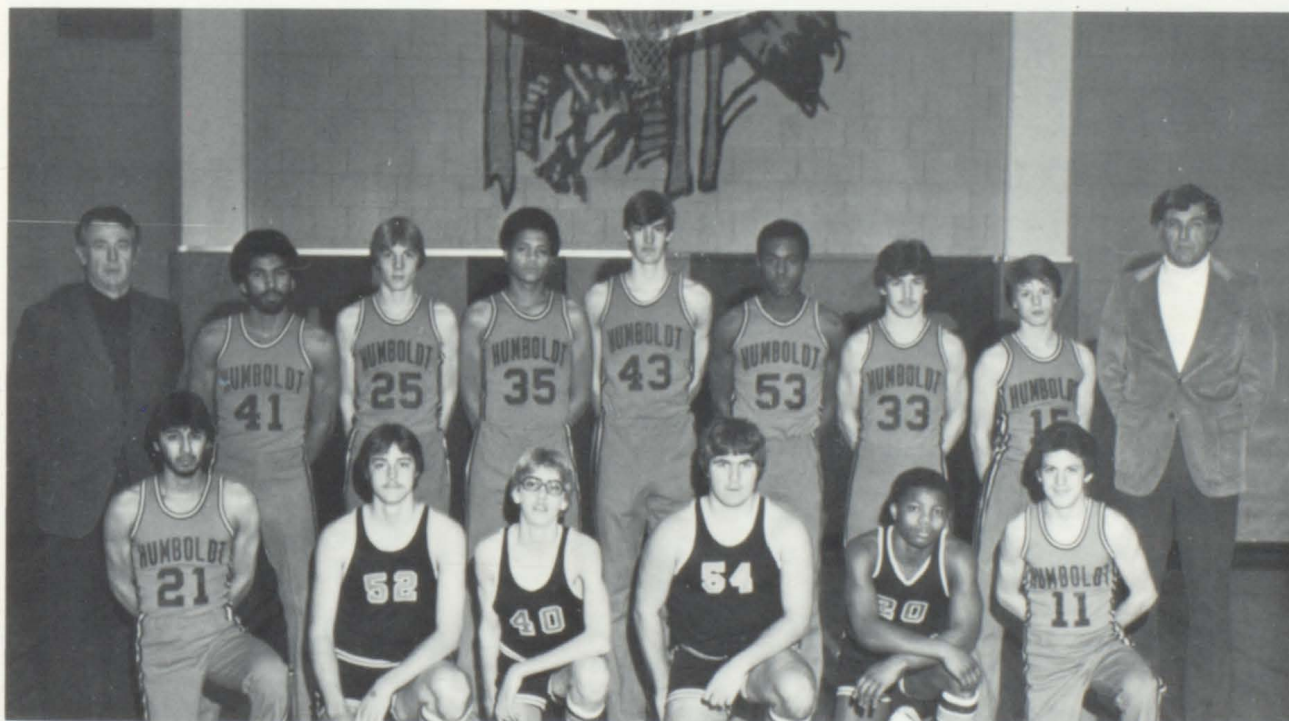

The JV basketball team's quickness and teamwork resulted in four victories this season, over Como twice as well as over Central and Highland.

Leading the team in scoring were juniors Tom Deutsch and Dave Johanson.

Due to the lack of players, the six-member team included four juniors who were not eligible for JV play. This resulted in all of their games being considered scrimmages, rather than counting in City Conference standings.

The drive and eagerness of both the varsity and the JV teams gave them the courage and the confidence to try for the top, and every basketball player learned the definition of the word "pride."

Swimming: Small squad sizes

Dean Cota and Tim Hossalla led the boys' swimming team in scoring through a very tough season.

Humboldt did not win a meet, but they had many individual accomplishments.

Cota, co-captain and the team's leading scorer, earned most of his points in diving and in the 100-yard freestyle.

Hossalla, second leading scorer, excelled throughout the season in the 100-yard backstroke, the 200-yard individual medley, and diving.

Frank Riefkohl, co-captain, was third in individual scoring.

Char Rea was the only senior high girls' swimmer to stick it out through a very tough schedule. Three junior high members — Carrie Garcia, Dawn Salak, and Sue Weir — also stayed with the team for the entire season.

Rea received two first place wins and three second place finishes in diving. She also earned two third places in the 100-yard freestyle.

Under the direction of a new coach, Ms. Katheleen Avila-Smith, the girls' tennis team finished the season with a 3-4 conference record.

Humboldt's wins were over Como, 5-2, Central, 4-1, and Johnson, 4-2.

Due to lack of participation, it was a very tough season. With an eight-member team, the girls were two short of a complete squad.

With Humboldt's best record, 6-1 in conference play, the first doubles team of Debbie Alverson and Dawn Saros took third place in the conference tournament.

Third and fourth singles players Donna McElmury and Sharon Weber combined as second doubles and tied for fourth place. Chris Robinson placed fifth among third singles players.

Humboldt's team losses were to Derham Hall, 5-1, Harding, 5-1, Highland, 5-1, and Hill-Murray, 5-0.

satisfying

A four-point victory over Central helped the gymnastics team escape the fate of a winless season and brought a sense of satisfaction to team members and coaches who spent many after-school hours preparing and practicing routines.

In the meet against Central, Nora Vanyo, a sophomore, took first place in the vault and a second place on the balance beam, while Shelly Vandenberg, a senior, recorded second place finishes on the beam, the uneven parallel bars, and floor exercise. Stephanie Wilson finished first in floor exercise.

In the meet against Como, a close meet which Humboldt lost, Vandenberg had two second place finishes and a third, while Wilson took a third on the beam, and Chris Geiger had a third on the vault.

Other contributors to the team's point totals included Sue Jorgensen, Lori Mailer, and Laurie Michalec.

Vandenberg closed out a six-year gymnastics career, including three letter-winning years at Humboldt.

impressive

Recognition was deserved by the girls' varsity squad for finishing with a 4-10 record in conference action, a real turn around from last season when the team was winless in sixteen games.

Though 4-10 was not one of the best records in the city, the Indians were known for aggressive play but a lack of height gave their opponents a big edge.

Usual starters were DeDe Adamez, Anne Nehring, Theresa Newbauer, Dori Pnewski, and Laura Wallace.

Top scorer for Humboldt was senior captain DeDe Adamez. Leading rebounders were Nehring and Wallace.

The junior varsity had an outstanding season, with a 9-5 record and a fourth place finish to hand first-year coach Ms. Denise Quinlan.

"I was very impressed with the girls' accomplishments," commented Coach Quinlan.

Leading the team in scoring were Shelly Crotty, Jenine FourCloud, and Julie Somora, with rebounding strength coming from Monica Hauwiller.

Skiing: New team wins twice

Humboldt's newest athletic team to enter City Conference competition was the twelve-member ski team, which finished the season with a 2-5 record, including big wins over Central, 10-5, and Johnson, 14-1.

Losses were to Harding, Como, and Highland Park.

The skiers had a tough one-week practice and training session, directed by Coach Dianne Hopen, and were ready for their first meet in early January.

Injuries plagued the team, putting two skiers — Dan Bryant and Dave Sanft — out of races, but both were back on the slopes within a week.

Six skiers qualified for regions: Shawn Bisbee, John Karas, Tom Langlois, John Plante, Sanft, and Scott St. Martin.

All meets were held at the Birch Park ski area in Wisconsin.

"We had a lot of fun and all learned and improved a lot," said one skier, "and that's the most important part."

JV Hockey: 4 wins posted

Despite early season let-downs, with losses to such teams as Hill-Murray, Como Park, Cretin, Harding, Johnson, and St. Thomas, the JV hockey team came up with four wins to bring its overall conference record to 4-12.

"Faced with a small number of players hurt the team this year," commented Coach Mike Sullivan.

Since players were switched between both varsity and JV, it was difficult when both teams had a game on the same day.

Highlights of the season were wins over Central, 13-7, Harding, 4-3, and Highland Park twice, 8-5 and 5-4.

Dave Lofgren led the way against Harding with two goals and Dave Shepherd and Steve Lorr each added one to make the final score 4-3.

Leading scorers for the season were Lofgren, Lorr, and Victor Lucio.

The best summary of Humboldt's varsity hockey season is the following quote by Coach Ralph McDonough, from the February 3 issue of the St. Paul Dispatch: "It hasn't been fun losing six one-goal games this season, so I guess you might say Dame Fate finally smiled on us."

Smiled she did, as Humboldt went on to overcome Harding by a score of 4-3. Scoring for the Indians were Jim Nielsen twice, Ron Clevenger, and defenseman Steve Lorr.

And two weeks later, everyone was smiling as Humboldt defeated Johnson for the first time in nineteen years. Dan King, one of the leading scorers for the season, had four goals in the 8-7 victory.

The pucksters started the season slowly, with only one win in the first eight games. During the second half of the season, the Indians seemed to come alive with wins over Central, Harding, Johnson, Highland and Brooklyn Center (a non-conference game).

When the Indians faced Central, each time the "mean-machine" took command right from the start and went on to victories, 9-0 and 8-2. Mike Sura and Nielsen contributed to much of the scoring.

Defensively, the Indians relied heavily during the season on Clevenger, Steve Lorr, Tim Osborne, and Maurice Vasquez.

The Indians finish their season with a 5-11 conference record.

Conference

Doing exceptionally well in invitational tournaments and ending the season with a 6-2 conference record, Humboldt wrestlers placed third in the city, behind Johnson and Como, and had a 10-2 overall record.

In invitational tournaments at Ellsworth, Burnsville, and South St. Paul, Humboldt had six individual champions and, as a team, placed second overall in two tourneys.

Tom Brennhofer, champ in two tournaments, led the Indians with a record of 19-1-1, which included twelve pins. Not far behind in wins were Scott Scheuer and Mark Tonn at 19-2.

For each pin during a match, the boys got a diaper pin. Cheerleaders originated this practice at tournaments last year and carried it over to season matches for this year. Leading pin getters were Tom Brennhofer, Greg Brennhofer, Leo Tejada, and Tonn.

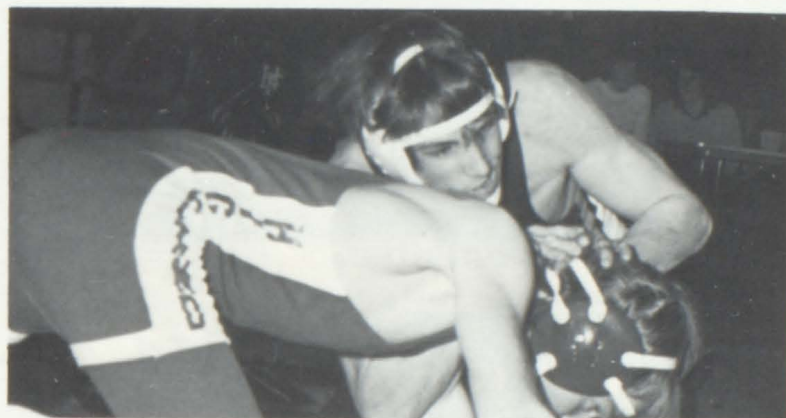

In the Region 3AA Tournament, Tonn, at 119, won first place, and Brennhofer at 128, placed second. These finishes advanced them to state competition.

At state, Brennhofer lost in quarter-final action, 17-3, to the wrestler who took the state championship. Tonn lost in the first round, 8-4.

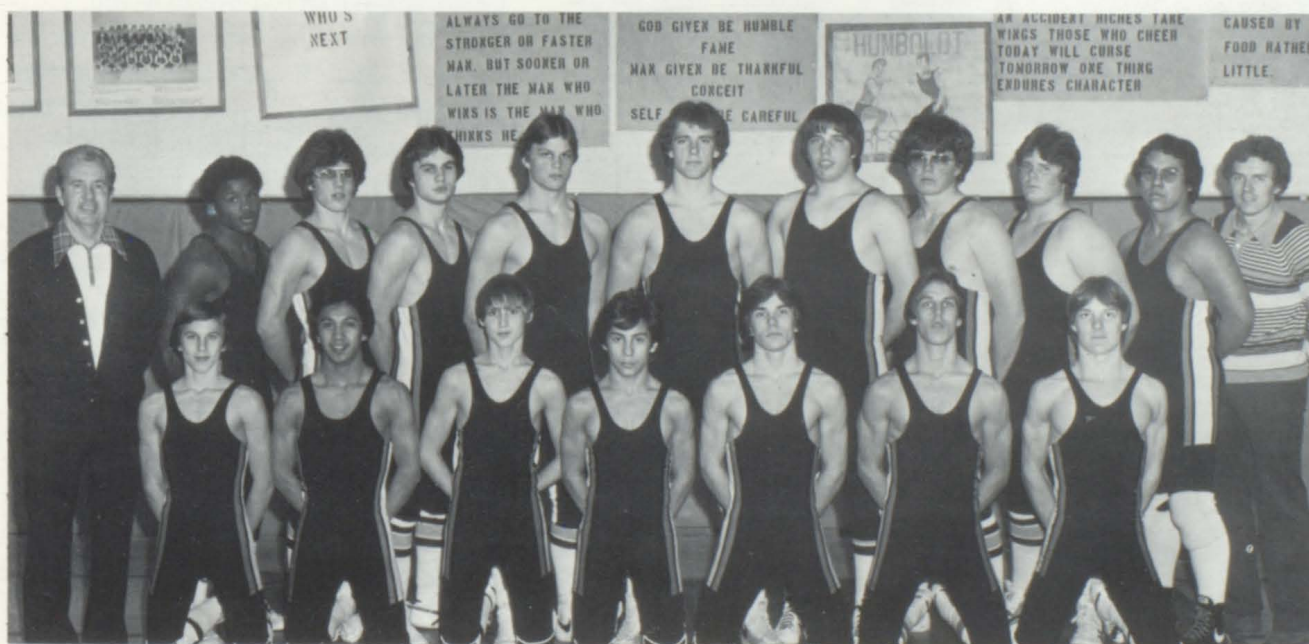

Brennhofer, Scheuer, and Tonn were named to the All City team.

JV Wrestling: 11-1 record

Defeating Johnson, a long-standing rival, was what Coach Tim Ryan considered the highlight of the JV wrestling season.

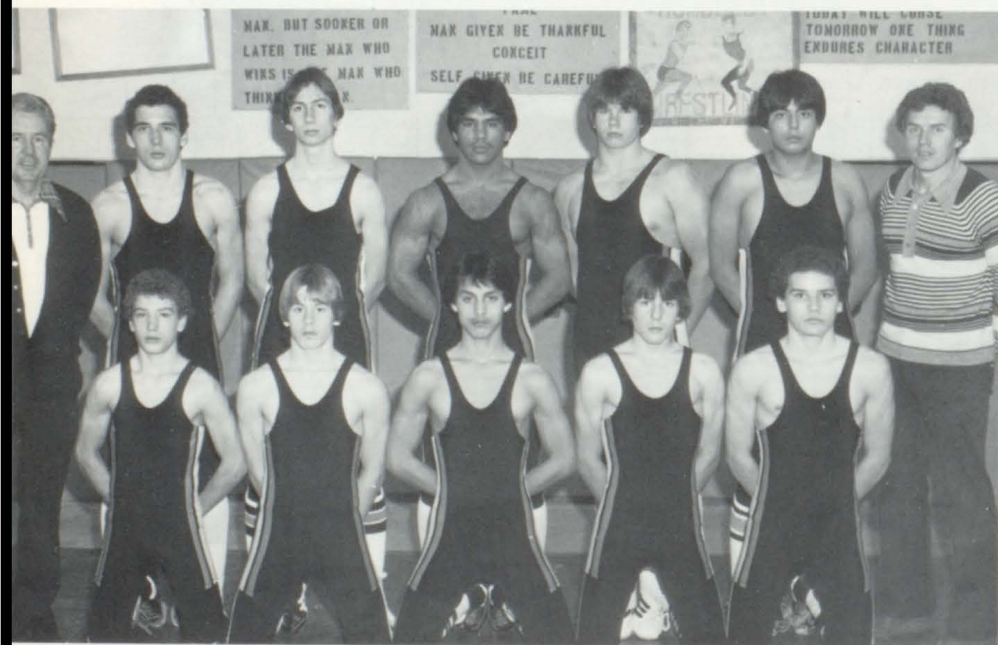

With a record of 7-1 in conference action, the Indians placed second in the city, behind Como, and had an 11-1 overall record.

Along with a championship victory at the South St. Paul Invitational and a second place title at Bloomington, Don Burbach, at 138, finished the season with a record of 18-1 and was city champion.

Second in scoring was Steve Chapman, who, at 105, ranked first at Bloomington. In the South St. Paul Invitational he placed second, and in the city JV tournament Chapman took third place. He finished the season with an 18-3 overall record.

Other contenders at the Bloomington Tournament were Ricky Clark, at 112, and Leonard Dickey, at 185. Both placed second.

In the city tourney, second place finishers were Dan Becker, John Foster, and Gary Walker.

Reflections

From the editors

There have been many special times worth remembering this past year at Humboldt. The 1981 Life staff has tried to capture these moments for you. By working many long hours along with the help and guidance of our advisor, Mr. Klepperich, we feel we have achieved our goal. By now, we hope you have been able to share these reflections of Humboldt life with us.
