*We looked upon each new day
as a challenge to success, an opportunity for happiness,
and we found both.*

*The school year has come to an end,
but we'll remember
the good times we shared with friends.*

*As we close the books
and open the doors to new horizons, we'll relive good times
that slipped by much too quickly.*

*Finishing a test and getting a good grade or a teacher's approval, looking forward to weekends,
going out with the gang, cheering for a team, dancing and partying—good times
we'll remember forever.*

We hope this is only the beginning of the good times to come for us. And good times from the past will never be gone, because we can always look back.

Homecoming gets a new look

With changes like a Thursday night game, a day-time coronation, and a King, a new look was given to Humboldt's Homecoming this year, held Monday, September 24, through Friday, September 28.

The coronation used "A Touch of Class" as its theme. Crowned were Queen Kathy Lofgren and King Beanie Kolnberger. Rowdy behavior was a problem during the coronation held during fifth hour Monday in the auditorium.

The Thursday night game was a 40-12 loss to Highland Park. Homecoming buttons, with the slogan "Scalp the Scotts" and designed by Therese Vanyo, were sold by the Student Council for $.50.

Other activities included dress-up day, back-to-the-fifties day, lumber jack day, jersey day, and Indian day. Powder Puff football was played Wednesday night, with the juniors winning. About 150 people showed up for the dance on Friday, with rock music provided by "Relay."

Student Council-sponsored HHS Drive

Student Council members worked their way through a very busy year, organizing such major school activities as Homecoming, HHS Campaign, Sno-Daze, and helping with arena scheduling.

The annual Humboldt Helps Santa Campaign resulted in a record $1000 and 1073 items of food. The money and food were donated to the Salvation Army and to the Neighborhood House.

Junior homeroom 237 won first place in the overall competition with a grand total of 220 points, and homeroom 232 was recognized as the best decorated homeroom. As a class, the juniors led the school in the amount of food items and money collected, and was chosen as having the most decorated hall. Prizes were awarded at the annual Christmas assembly.

Student Council executive members met first hour every day with President Bill O'Donnell and Adviser Clare Longsdorf.

The Council also held meetings at least once a month with homeroom delegates and alternates, filling them in on activities and getting student responses.

publishing correct scores, exotic menus

Sometimes they "knew the score" and other times they didn't, but having occasional communication seminars helped ease the tensions the small publications staff faced in meeting three major yearbook deadlines, publishing six issues of the Arrow, and three parents' newsletters.

Writing stories, captions, and headlines, setting up pictures, and typing were among tasks that kept the adviser and some staff members after school for many hours. They found that by drinking hot tea, chocolate, and chicken bouillon, and making and eating popcorn, they were better able to face each work day and night.

Some fifth hour journalism students, many of whom will graduate to Publications next year, gained experience writing stories for the newspaper and yearbook.

For many, the year's highlight may have been the seminars which included plenty of conversation and such exotic food items as oranges, lasagna, chips and cheese, Pepsi, cheeseburger hot dish, spaghetti, marshmallow fudge brownies, and Judie's tuiti fruity punch.

From a group of 25 candidates, sixteen girls were chosen last spring to be varsity cheerleaders, but as the new school year progressed the number dwindled to eleven. The reduction in squad size came before the winter sports season when Humboldt had five varsity teams competing, which required the efforts of cheerleaders 3-4 nights per week.

Four separate squads were formed, but at many contests girls were left to cheer alone or with one other person.

Co-captains Jackie Belden and Sherry Rosse organized fund-raisers which included selling plants, popcorn, candy bars, and Christmas cookies along with holding lunch time bake sales. Profits from these activities allowed the Cheerleaders to pay off a $150 debt from last year and to purchase new uniforms.

Outfitting each cheerleader cost as much as $100, with the cost of a sweater being $30 plus $15 for lettering.

With an eight-member squad, JV co-captains Lori Schleichert and Stephanie Wilson were kept busy trying to meet all cheering obligations.

Initiation by varsity members gave the girls a tour of downtown Minneapolis. They wore pajamas and whipped cream.

JV Cheerleaders sold Christmas cookies and candy bars and participated with the varsity squad in bake sales during lunches. "Profits" were used to buy new skirts.

Squad members also helped with pep assemblies and support of the first annual basketball game between the girls' varsity team and the women's faculty team.

Ms. Eudene Jacobsen, adviser, said she admired the squad members for their devotion to the many obligations of the season.

Repetition helps dancers perform

With accompaniment from such masterpieces as "Jingle Bell Rock," "Boogie Oogie Oogie," and "California Girls," the Indianettes danced their way through several dozen performances at football and basketball games as well as at school assemblies.

In preparation for these activities, practices were held two mornings a week under the direction of Ms. Cecilia Crum and two days a week after school under the direction of Ms. Margaret LaVigne, squad adviser.

Repetition of songs became a common pattern of activity at rehearsals, as Indianettes worked to perfect each routine. When a problem became evident at practice, they would start over. Problems with record players and recorders, which no one had much control over, made performances even more of a challenge.

Helping to hold the squad together and to furnish student leadership were co-captains Brenda Bortz and Carol Feyen.

Humboldt students chose to "Glide into the 80's" for Sno Days and worked around the fact that there was barely a trace of snow on the ground.

Royalty was chosen on January 28, with King Dennis McNaughton and Queen Kathy Vanderbeek reigning over the week. Joining them were Prince Scott Scheuer and Princess Stacey Cardenas and Duke Tom Brennhofner and Duchess Frances Diaz.

A Sno-Day was not held because of the truancy of last year.

Student Council sponsored lunch-time activities which helped to get students into the spirit of the week. These events included bubble blowing with winners Tom Brennhofner, Sherry Dahlby, and Dave Lofgren; doughnut eating with winners Ed Bloch, Steve Lorr, and Tom Quintero; arm wrestling with winners Paul Abrass, Tom Quintero, and Larry Rogers.

Other activities included dress up day, jersey day, hat day, back to the fifties day, and slop and shade day.

Varsity beats faculty for first win

The girls' basketball team's spirits were lifted by their win over the women's faculty team, coached by Ms. Denise Hanzal.

The game was played January 18 and ended with a score of 35-16. Leading scorers were DeDe Adamez with twelve points for the varsity, and Ms. Mary Haug with ten points for the faculty.

Highlights of the game were a slam dunk contest, and the swimming team doing an Indianettes' routine. The fans were roused by the antics of the "Mean Machine," who cheered for the teams during the entire game.

Proceeds from this event enabled the team to sponsor a banquet and dinner on Parents' Night, January 24.

South Pacific, with a cast of thirty, was presented by the Choir March 13-14 on the Humboldt stage. Director Darwin Korum and cast members spent two months in preparation for the production, including the memorizing of lines and songs, planning movements and choreography, constructing sets, doing publicity, and selling tickets.

Money earned from ticket sales was to be used to rent buses to get Choir members to nursing homes to sing in the spring—a time when most choirs are not "on tour."

Choir members also performed at a winter concert December 20. During the months of September through December, singers turned salespeople, with Happenings discount books and jewelry included among their product lines.

As a traditional finish to their year's activities, the Choir was scheduled to be part of the program for Commencement exercises held June 5.

casts shadow over Band's activities

The death of Mr. Ray Schweizer, who taught at Humboldt for ten years, cast a shadow on the activities of the Band this year. Mr. Schweizer was both admired and respected by his students. He was hospitalized at the beginning of the school year, and a cancerous tumor was found.

Since Mr. Schweizer's illness, the Band had to adjust to three different directors. The 47 musicians played at Homecoming and at sporting events. They also combined with the Choir for a Christmas concert and an assembly in the auditorium.

The Band Board helped to decide what events the Band was to play at. They also helped the Band to be more enthusiastic about what they played and encouraged the atmosphere of working and practicing hard.

Band Board officers were Gary Hirsch, president; Julie Helquist, vice-president; Cathy Roering, vice-president; Tammy Gryc, secretary; and David Germain, treasurer.

12 travel from Humboldt to France

Twelve French students traveled to France for fifteen days during the month of March to gain first-hand experiences with language, people, and culture.

With assistance from Ms. Dianne Hopen, tour guide, adviser, and teacher, the group did sight-seeing and monument visiting. Each student stayed with a French family.

The French Club sponsored a French dinner November 27, the night of PTSA Open House. Ms. Becky Christopherson and her Food Service classes organized the menu which included Boeuf Bourguignon, Quiche Lorraine, French bread, salad, and chocolate mousse.

Students listened to 25 speakers on a variety of careers, thanks to the efforts of the Career Explorers' Club, advised by Ms. Lilian Lee.

Group members participated in workshops, training programs, and the Explorer Olympics, and sponsored a Career Day.

Ski Club deals with big numbers

To help cut the costs of transportation to and from Afton Alps, Ski Club members dug in and sold M and Ms and peanut butter cups to lower the regular $2 bus fare to only $1.

Ten trips were scheduled to Afton this year. Taking advantage of school group rates, tow tickets and rental came to $7.

To top off the ski season, a trip to both Candy Mountain and Loch Lomond, popular resorts in Canada, involved approximately forty members traveling to the big white slopes in February.

Even though Minnesota's winter never really left the skiers with much snow to play in or with, the club attracted a record-breaking 110 members.

Leaders on and off the slopes were Paul Danmeier, president; Paul Dybiec, vice-president; Sue Dwyer, secretary; and David Bryant, treasurer.

Adaptive soccer team has trial season

In what was called a trial season, the Humboldt adaptive soccer team, coached by Mr. Terry Nelson, finished a six-game schedule with a 2-4 record.

Top scorer for the Indians was Dan Lindbeck with nine points, including eight goals and one assist. Other top scorers were Todd Ronngren and Bill Efron. Jeff Tyler was starting goalie, while Dan Lindbeck and Jeff Vanderveer were alternates.

This experimental season was successful, and many of this year's players plan to return again next year for the opening of the official season.

The Chiefs, Humboldt's floor hockey team, got off to a winning start this year with a victory over the St. Paul Independents by a score of 12-4.

South Pacific, the World War II story of men stationed on an island, was presented as Humboldt's musical March 13-14.

After mid-January tryouts and a seige of illness and other interruptions, the cast was selected, consisting mainly of juniors. Lines were memorized and long after-school rehearsals continued throughout the month of February.

Parents and grandparents in the audience enjoyed seeing and hearing performances of such old favorites as "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outta My Hair," "Bali-Hai," and "Some Enchanted Evening."

Double cast in the part of Nellie were Sue Dwyer and Laurel Tschida, with Julie Tiger and Stacey Cardenas as Bloody Mary and David Germain in the male lead role as Emile.

Other performers included Tom Alsides, Luke Salverda, John Eller, and Ed Martinez.

Mr. Darwin Korum presided as director over not only the musical itself but also over such chores as designing, constructing, and painting scenery, doing publicity, and selling tickets.

All-State football honor earned

Outscored in conference play 301-38, the Humboldt football team lost all eight of its City Conference games in a season which both coaches and players could best describe as "frustrating and difficult."

But the team was able to share in the notoriety of one of its players when punter-running back-linebacker John Scheuer was named to the Associated Press Sports Editors All-State High School Football Team. As a punter, he averaged more than forty yards a kick, and his longest was for 73 yards.

Of seven touchdowns scored by the Indians, halfback Gerald Booker had four and established himself as one of the fastest runners in the City. Scheuer had two TDs and Tony Casillas had one.

End-of-the-season team awards went to Tony Rea, best offensive lineman and defensive linebacker; Scheuer, best offensive back and most valuable player; Gary Adolph, best defensive lineman; Bernie Mike, best defensive back and the team's most dedicated player; and Irv Stapleton, best receiver. Team tri-captains were Casillas, Rea, and Scheuer.

Only 4 players left on JV bench

Most football teams use at least 22 players—11 on offense and 11 on defense. And most have players left on the sidelines as subs. This was not the case for Humboldt's JV squad, which went through the City Conference schedule with a roster of fifteen. That meant that most had to play both offense and defense and there were never more than four players, along with Coach Pat Funk and his assistant, Mr. Jason Anderson, cheering from the bench.

Humboldt's three best games of the season were losses—14-13 to Central, 12-6 in overtime to Harding, and 6-0 to Hill-Murray. The close scores to three of the conference's bigger schools were positive commentaries on the effectiveness of the team.

The Indian offense managed scoring only four TDs for the year, with Tom Brennhofer scoring twice. Other touchdowns were nailed on passes from quarterback Steve Schostek to Doug Mondry and Gene Masiello. Brennhofer was Schostek's favorite target as he led the team in pass receptions.

Joining Schostek, Brennhofer, and Mondry in the backfield was Curly Cinceros, who also saw action with the varsity.

Mr. Skip Jobe's first year as coach proved to be a tough one with wins coming twice over Central and once over Como and Johnson. Humboldt lost ten conference matches.

Even though it wasn't a winning season, the girls always tried their hardest to win. When the team's attitude got down, Darcy Miller was there with her humorous remarks to cheer things up.

In the city meet, Dawn Parker ranked first among second singles players and Rita Block placed third among third singles players.

Returning members of the team were Miller, a senior, Block and Parker, juniors, and Dawn Saros, Sharon Weber, and Chris Robinson, sophomores. New members included, Debbie Alverson, Donna McElmury, Carrie Knick, and Anna Reyes.

Although Humboldt's eight-member cross country team had runners finish in the top three for many meets, the Indians failed to win any conference events due to the lack of team depth. Their conference mark was 0-8.

The team's top runner, senior Paul Alsides had a season-best of 16:27 for the three-mile course. Brad Jenniges, also a senior, was not far behind with a 17:05 best. At the regional meet, Alsides and Jenniges came in nineteenth and forty-fifth respectively.

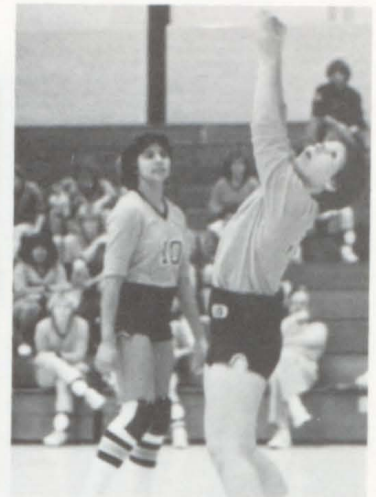

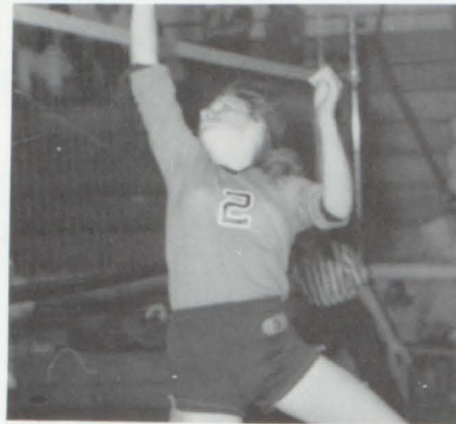

In most meets, Humboldt faced teams with twenty or more members.

difficult season after Woodbury win

In its first match of the season, the varsity girls' volleyball team defeated Woodbury 18-6, 18-5 in non-conference action, but this win proved to be the last taste of victory as Humboldt was unable to pull through with one win in conference play and ended the year with a frustrating 0-7 record.

Usual starters for the team were DeDe Adamez, Juanita Adamez, Jacquie Boucher or Brenda Johnson, Candy Gilbertson, Sandy Jotblad, and Kathy Vanderbeck.

For the JV girls, the story was unfortunately the same. The squad's only win was also over Woodbury, 2-1. The girls were defeated seven times in conference action.

Como, Central, and Harding twice

Therese Vanyo, a top scorer in each event, competes on beam prior to suffering a knee sprain that put her out of action until regionals.

Despite the loss of second-leading scorer Therese Vanyo with a sprained knee, the girls' gymnastics team ended a winning season with an 8-4 record.

Although unable to defeat Highland or Derham in conference action, Humboldt beat Johnson, Como, Central, and Harding twice.

Top scorers were Candy Gilbertson, who competed as an all-around gymnast; Vanyo, all-around; Brenda Johnson, vault, floor exercise, and unevens; Shelly Vandenberg, beam and unevens; and Sue Jorgenson, beam and vault. This was also a year for Laurie Mailer, Laurie Michalec, Maria Ortega, and Stephanie Wilson to gain meet experience.

Vanyo's injury prevented her from competing after mid-season.

Typical of Humboldt's winning attitude was the second meet against Johnson, which the Indians won by less than a one-point margin, 83.8-83.45. Gilbertson brought in four first places, Johnson a second, and Michalec, Vandenberg, and Wilson had thirds.

conference victory since 1978

Gaining the title of most valuable swimmer was Pete Renteria, who earned 100 letter points while competing in meets for Humboldt.

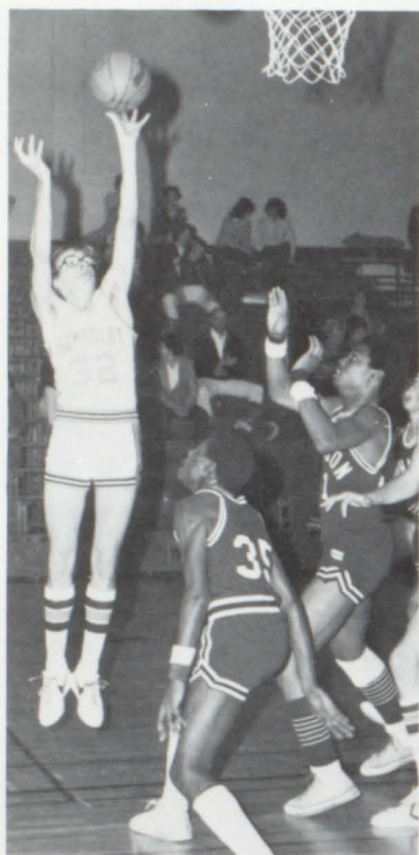

With feelings of revenge for last year's 60-60 tie with Central, Humboldt swimmers defeated the Minutemen, 90-56, for the team's first City Conference victory since 1978.

The Indians went on to beat River Falls, 83-63, in non-conference action.

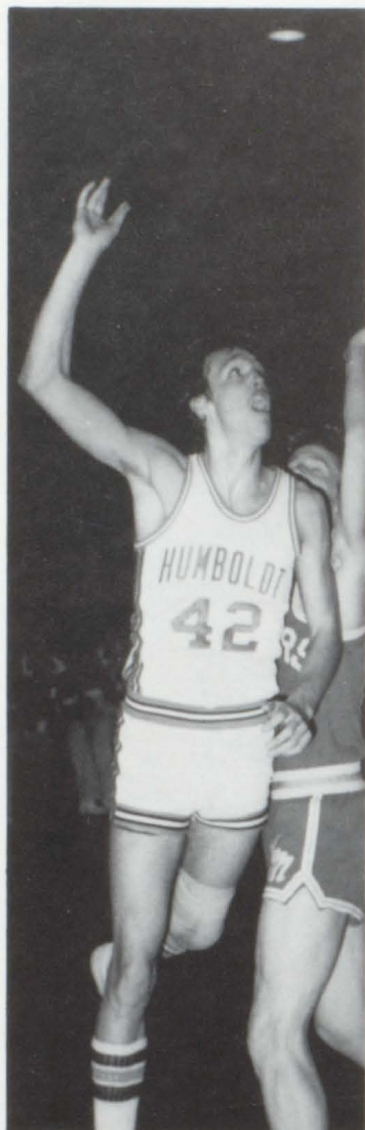

Coach Jay Wescott did not place an emphasis on team victories but on individual improvement. He scheduled daily two-hour practices which helped squad members improve their times.

At an awards dinner at Mancini's, Pete Renteria was named as the team's most valuable swimmer. He earned 100 letter points but only needed 28 to letter. Steve Wallner, team captain, Jim Kobinski, and Eric Marhoun received the coach's award; Tim Hosalla and Dan Nieman both received most versatile swimmer awards; Dean Cota and Eric Marhoun were named the most academic swimmers. All award winners, along with Louie Biagi, swam at the Section 7 meet held at St. Paul TVI.

While captain Ben Aeilts, at 6-6, was leading the City Conference in scoring, averaging 22 points and 12 rebounds per game, and establishing himself as Humboldt's all-time leading scorer, his outstanding accomplishments were frequently over-shadowed by the Indians' 2-14 win-loss record.

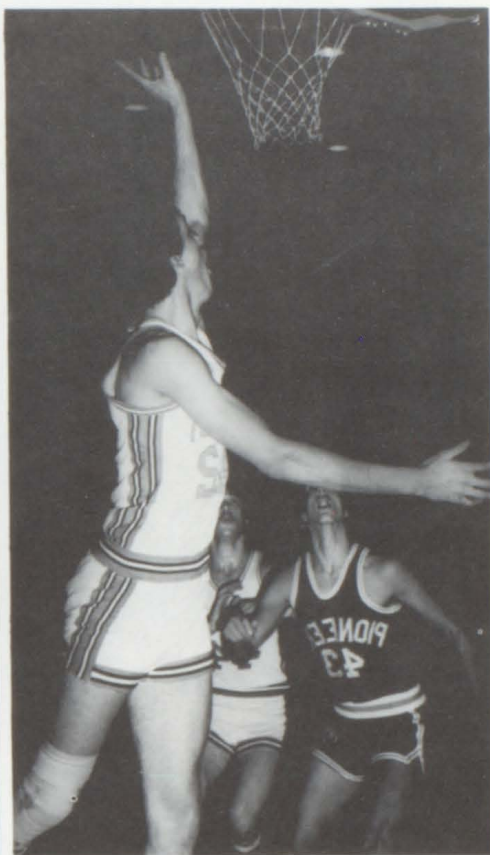

Mr. Dick Furey was looking forward to the 1979-80 season after a rebuilding year in his first year as coach, but during the summer three players with experience and height transferred to the other schools. Then Mark Aeilts broke his wrist and did not see any action until late in the season.

The only two returning varsity players were Aeilts and Lee Bates, who saw very limited action as a junior but started every game this year and used his 6-5 height to average ten points a game and entertain fans with his slamdunk abilities. Other usual starters were Bob Murphy, Luis Rosario, and Jim Zwinger.

Aeilts' accomplishments were not totally ignored, as he was named to the All-City team and recognized by WCCO radio and by the St. Paul Dispatch for his scoring heroics.

Coach gets winning Christmas present

JV basketball Coach Jim Fritsche maintained throughout the entire season that the main purpose of his work was to prepare players for work on the varsity team, and that the JV's win-loss record was not all that important.

Humboldt's JV players did receive plenty of coaching from Mr. Fritsche, the former Humboldt All-City performer, and plenty of game experience in preparation for varsity play, but wins were difficult to find. In fact, there was only one victory in sixteen attempts, and that happened December 21, in time to be a Christmas present for the veteran coach. The Indians dropped Johnson, 43-39.

Players to watch on future varsity teams include Eddie Gipson, who averaged eighteen points per game, and Jesse Curry, who had a ten-point-per-game average. Other starters included Tom Deutsch, Dave Johanson and Steve Schostek.

Swimmers get first taste of victory

For the first time in the history of Humboldt girls' swimming, the team pulled together for a victory.

Led by co-captains Sue Dwyer and Deann Grochowski, the team finished with a 2-8 record, defeating Central twice, 87-79 and 100-66.

With a good attitude and a willingness to work, the team broke many personal and school records.

Among the records set were the 50 and 100-yard freestyle and 100-yard butterfly by Grochowski, the 100-yard backstroke by Brenda Bortz, and the 200-yard medley relay by Dwyer, Grochowski, Barb Quinn, and Sue Weir.

Coach Ralph Nordstrom had some depth to work with, even though half the team members were junior high students. He is looking forward to next year when five senior high members will return.

He stated that with a schedule of two meets per week, it was difficult to get in the workouts that were so badly needed to improve times.

The system adopted for next year will be single round competition with some home meets and more practice days.

basketball players remain optimistic

It seemed like an almost impossible task for varsity girls' basketball Coach Bob Jackson: how to keep a team which had not won in the conference since the last game of 1978 motivated and optimistic.

He put the team through rigorous practices, with an emphasis on running and shooting drills, and gave plenty of pep talks. While no one ran out of motivation and optimism, Humboldt had to settle for an 0-16 record.

Usual starters were DeDe Adamez, Juani Adamez, Jacquie Boucher, Sherry Dahlby, Theresa Newbauer, and Dori Pnewski. Leading scorer Kathy Vanderbeek was lost mid-way through the season with a sprained ankle.

The junior varsity had a respectable 7-7 record to present to first-year Coach Joel Arnevik. Leading the team in scoring were Mary Booker, Terri Byrne, and Joan Sommerfeld, with Monica Hauwiller being the best rebounder.

Undefeated record earns Newbauer

The most impressive part of Humboldt wrestling centered on the heroics of John Newbauer who was undefeated through his first 25 matches, was Region 3AA Tournament champion, and represented the Indians in the State Tournament.

Working at 105 pounds, Newbauer's impressive credentials included first places in the Ellsworth Invitational, the South St. Paul Tourney, and the Burnsville Invitational. Coach Bob Ryan was always quick to compliment Newbauer for his sense of cooperation in contributing to team efforts and for the example he provided for other wrestlers.

As a team, Humboldt split in City Conference action, with the most impressive victory probably being the 59-6 route of Cretin. "A record of 4-4 might not seem too impressive," Coach Ryan said. "But we're young this year." The Indians finished fourth in the City Conference.

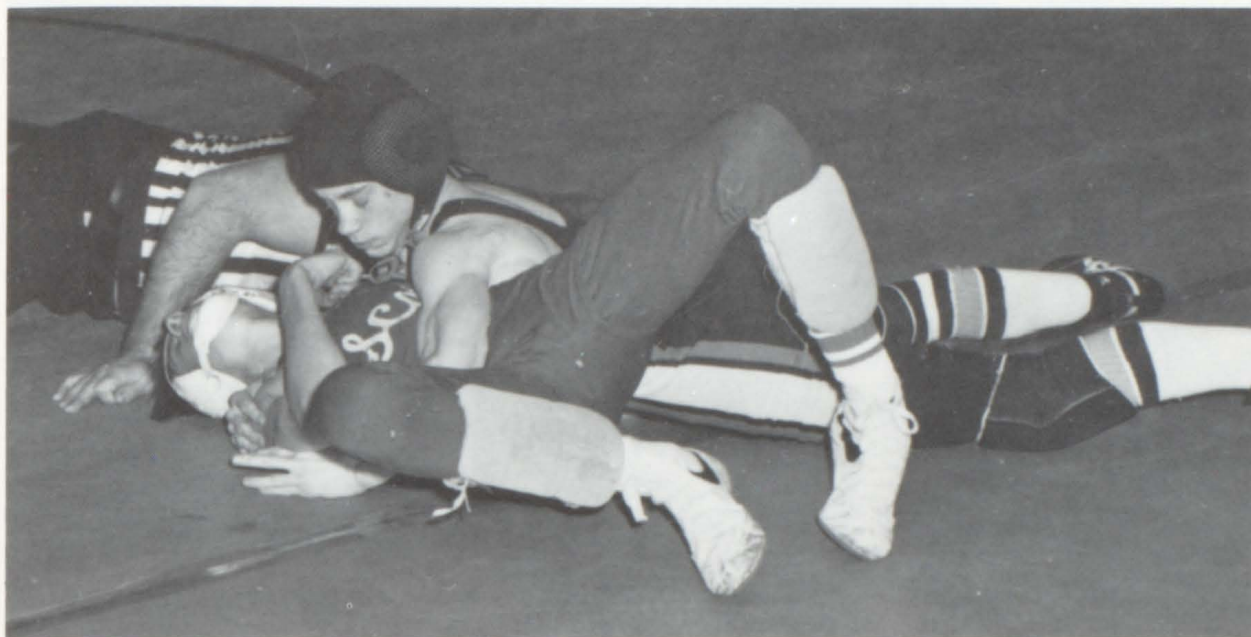

Sporting winning records were Kevin Sager (112 pounds), Mark Tonn (119), Tom Brennhofer (126), Scott Scheuer (138), Tom Quintero (185), and Steve Munos (heavyweight).

Junior varsity matmen win 5, tie 3

Don Burbach and Ken Sanft, at 126 and 112 pounds respectively, won individual city championships and led the way for the JV wrestlers who had a 5-2-1 record in conference action.

Besides the two individual champs, Coach Wayne Brekke relied heavily on Dan Becker, Dan Brunzel, Leonard Dickey, Randy Settevig, Dave Theno, and Chuck Wilson.

Humboldt beat Cretin, Harding, Highland, and St. Thomas. Losses were to Como and Johnson, with the tie being against Central.

In non-conference action, Humboldt lost to Sibley and Washburn and had ties with Ramsey and Roosevelt, bringing its overall record to five wins, four losses, and three ties.

fast start, but pace slowed by injuries

Finishing the season with twelve conference losses in thirteen games was almost a complete turn-around from the start of the season for the Humboldt hockey team. The Indians had a solid group of returning players, built enthusiasm for the season with a highly successful jog-a-thon to raise money for ice time, and jumped to a 5-2 record before tragedy struck. The team went the next six games without a win before downing Central, 5-2.

One focal point of the season may have been a non-conference clash against Brooklyn Center, a game which took a total team effort and Beanie Kolnberger's overtime goal to pull out a 6-5 victory. But in that contest goalie Irv Stapleton and leading defenseman Tony Rea were injured and were not back to full form for nearly a month.

Kolnberger led Humboldt on offense with 38 points, and his linemate Steve St. Martin chipped in with thirteen points. A junior line of Dan King, Jim Nielsen, and Mike Sura added to the scoring punch.

Defensively, the Indians relied most heavily on Dennis McNaughton, Tim Osborne, Rea, and Stapleton.

JV beats St. Bernard's with 6 skaters

A 9-2 win over Johnson helped salvage the JV hockey season which had Humboldt winning three straight to start the season and then going down to defeat nine times before drubbing the Governors.

Dave Lofgren and Carlos Rodriguez each pumped in four goals while Robert Lucio added one to hand Johnson the loss. Humboldt also downed St. Bernards in non-conference play by a score of 4-3. This game stood out among others because the win was accomplished by only six skaters.

While juniors were switched from varsity to JV, a state rule that limits participating to no more than eighty periods of hockey left most juniors playing primarily on the varsity.

Included in the Indians' 5-15 record were wins over Central, Cretin, and Como.

Dan King, Dave Lofgren, Steve Lorr, Jim Nielsen, and Mike Sura led all scorers.

Mr. Ludwig announces retirement

ARLEY LUDWIG/Principal

In an announcement made in October, Mr. Arley W. Ludwig, principal of Humboldt since 1968, said that the 1979-80 school year would be his last as an employee of the St. Paul Public School System.

The veteran of more than thirty years as an educator timed his announcement so he could be certain that two of the school system's most ambitious projects had been fully carried out: the completion of Humboldt's $8 education complex and the merger of Humboldt and Monroe Senior High Schools. Besides his duties as principal, Mr. Ludwig assumed responsibility for the planning, construction, completion, and staffing of the new Humboldt building and for all of the activities needed to bring the student populations of two communities together.

Although these were major tasks, Mr. Ludwig was always quick to praise the communities, faculty, and staff for their help and cooperation in making his job easier.

Aiding Mr. Ludwig during this school year were Mr. John Ettlinger, assistant principal, and Mr. Lou Cotroneo, administrative assistant. Both worked primarily in the areas of student discipline, with Mr. Ettlinger also taking charge of programming and student scheduling.

LIFE 1980

From the editors

At one point this year, we thought there might not be a yearbook, but we couldn't let that happen.

Special thanks to:
Homeroom representatives for their help with the drives and distribution
Mr. Steve Dahl and Ms. Delores Petter of the Dellarson Studios
Mr. Burt Hedstrom of Josten's/American
Yearbook Company
Tammy Barott for the vast amount of typing
she did for us
Mr. Dick Frank of the custodial staff
And most of all to our leader. Without his guidance, this book wouldn't be what it is. Thanks, Mr. Klepperich.
