Arena scheduling salvaged

Arley Ludwig

John Ettlinger
Lou Cotroneo

It was the final school year of the seventies and the second year of the "great merger." Mr. Arley Ludwig, principal, dealt with talk of fewer dollars and students, and teacher cut-backs were part of every-day conversation. A bit of "Is it me?" hit almost every staff member with less than twenty years of service in St. Paul.

There was a threat to do away with arena scheduling and turn everything over to the almighty computer, but a fall survey among students had 98 percent saying, "We like arena scheduling." (There was less than 98 percent support among teachers.)

Scheduling rested primarily with Mr. John Ettlinger, assistant principal, while both Mr. Ettlinger and Mr. Lou Cotroneo, administrative assistant, continued their own system of scheduling wayward students for 7 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. detention programs.

The school year started with fewer students than had been expected (about 1050) and meager budgets with which to finance the purchase of materials and supplies. The money situation eased as the school year progressed, but the enrollment decline caused numerous rumors to circulate regarding teacher cut-backs.

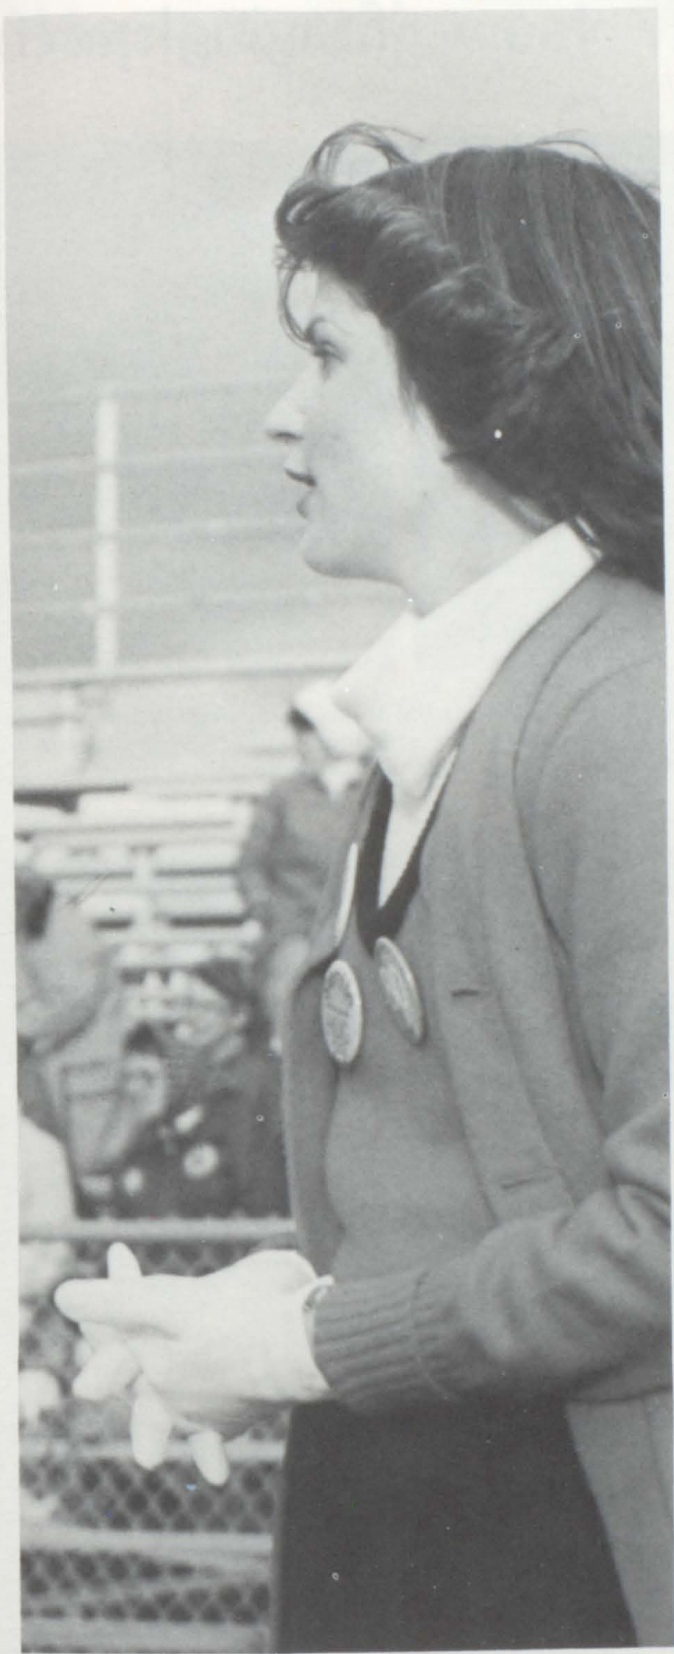

Officially, eight new teachers joined the staff in September, with four being substitutes for people who were away from teaching for the first trimester.

Mr. Ruben Soruco left to work on an inter-cultural program, and Mr. Fred Kober transferred to Highland Junior High.

Ms. Sandy Smith resigned in August as chief clerk to become a real estate agent. Her place was filled by Ms. Adele Dewall until close to the end of the first trimester when Ms. Valerie Weiss came to Humboldt from the school district's main offices at 360 Colborne.

for Homecoming week victory

Queen Robin Deuth, escort Marty Simones.

The stage was set for Homecoming. A queen had been crowned. Powder Puff football had been played, and won by the juniors, of course. Paul McNeil's Rolling Disco had been hired for the 10 p.m. Friday dance. All that was left was for the football team to "Put Out the Pilot's Light."

Coach Bob Ryan's squad stayed with the script. With touchdowns by Gerald Booker, Mark Ritter, Dan Sanchez, and Doug Sovinski (twice), the Indians dropped Murray, 34-16, on a cold, wind-swept Central Stadium field.

Robin Deuth and her escort, Marty Simones, reigned over the week of activities (cut to four school days due to teachers' workshops). They were chosen by means of an all-school election and were crowned at a ceremony in the auditorium. As part of the program, former queens were invited as honored guests and were brought on stage.

shocks downtown St. Paul

If you saw someone walking the streets in the midnight hour clad in pajamas and pillowcase hats and smeared with whipped cream, would you consider this an unusual sight? Or would you consider this to be your average everyday cheerleader?

Humboldt's varsity cheerleading squad initiated its additional participants in a way that made people in downtown St. Paul question the sanity of today's youth. Chinese fire drills, numerous cans of whipped cream, and a friendly downtown passerby added to the excitement of fall tryouts.

Weekly meetings were held to organize, practice, and develop new cheers. Important roles played by this year's squad included holding fundraisers and dances, and participating in pep fests, along with cheering at over eighty sporting events. The cheerleaders were advised by Mrs. Eudene Jacobson.

'Crunch' keeps JV busy

Tryouts for the JV Cheerleading squad were not held until late October, following the completion of the football season, and this forced newly-selected team members to organize quickly before the crunch of the winter athletic season hit.

Initiation activities, organized by the varsity squad, included whipped cream, uniforms left over from wrestling and basketball teams of the past, and a tour around town in pajamas and pillow cases. A squad of six was selected out of the nine who tried out. With five winter sports to cheer for, cheerleaders often found themselves working alone or seeking help from members of the varsity team. Chief organizer was Joyce Heininger, captain. Adviser was Ms. Eudene Jacobsen.

Competition from jobs and other outside activities cut the size of the Indianettes dance line in half — from eighteen members to nine. But its size did not in any way diminish the effectiveness of the group's ability to liven up halftimes at three football games and five basketball games.

The Indianettes met three times per week to practice and develop routines to such songs as "That's Rock and Roll," "Saturday Night Fever," "Sweet 16," and "Jingle Bells".

Fund-raisers included the sale of three cases of candy and boxes of holiday note cards. The Indianettes' adviser was Ms. Margaret LaVigne.

finishes mountains of work

Some students were found to remark that the Student Council was a somewhat quiet organization this year. But when it came to organizing and carrying out the school's major student activities, members of the council were there to type ballots, crown queens and kings, collect food and money before the holidays, and assist with the mountain of work included in arena scheduling.

The council met daily during first hour and conducted homeroom delegate meetings at least once each month. Debbie Howard was elected president of the organization which set records in collecting items for the needy during the annual holiday giving drive. Junior homeroom 334, advised by Mr. Jerry Lundeen, was recognized for both the number of canned goods collected and for room decorations. The seniors won the hall-decorating contest and honors for gathering the most canned goods and money.

Night of January 16, a play which made use of audience participation, was performed by members of the Drama Department, November 16-17 in the Humboldt auditorium.

The comedy drama told the story of a wealthy man's ex-secretary and lover who was on trial for his murder. The part of Ms. Andre was portrayed by Mary Gentle. Defending her was Sue Firkus. Representing the state was Russ Speckman, District Attorney. The Superior Court judge was Theresa Larson.

People from the audience were selected to sit on the jury and determine Ms. Andre's guilt or innocence. A not-guilty verdict was rendered Thursday night, and the defendant was declared guilty Friday night.

Mr. John Ostby was the director, with help from Debbie Hawkins, student director.

reputation as city's busiest

With a reputation for being the most active high school band in St. Paul, a schedule which included twelve concerts, five city parades, twelve school athletic events, and a trip to St. Louis, Missouri wasn't at all surprising.

Performances at girls' athletic events were included for the first time in the Band's history.

Among the parades were the Grande Day and Torch Light Winter Carnival parades, which the Humboldt Band has participated in for over 25 years.

As for their concerts, the Winter Concert combined music with sports and had both the cheerleaders and Indianettes perform. The Pop Concert featured popular music, jazz, dixieland, and rock, and included a performance by the Stage Band. The Spring Band Festival featured soloists who entered the St. Paul District solo contest.

to prepare for 'Carousel'

The 62 members of Humboldt's A-Choir sang their way through a busy year, but singing wasn't the only thing keeping them occupied. Selling "Happenings" Coupon Books early in the year, followed by Christmas cookies and wreaths, helped pay for the musical and kept singers busy.

Along with preparation for the annual Christmas concert, there was practicing for the musical, Carousel, which was presented March 1-2.

With the year far from over, there was still lots of hard work left in practicing for an All-City Concert Program which involved all Saint Paul Public School choirs. This took place May 3 at Johnson High School. Choir Director Darwin Korum felt his musical group benefited from this concert, especially because members had a chance to meet students from other schools. The Choir's last performance was June 7 at Commencement exercises.

No field trip to France

A field trip to the Minnesota Science Museum, followed by a banquet at Castle Royal, concluded activities for the Career Explorers Club, whose members listened to a variety of speakers who discussed the world of work, job opportunities, required training, and salary levels. Eighteen speakers visited Humboldt, ranging from chefs, to artists, to truck drivers. Adviser was Ms. Lilian Lee.

The annual trip to France, sponsored by the French Club, had to be canceled because only eight people had both the interest and the money needed to participate. Activities that did take place included a banquet at Hotel de France and fund-raising to help curb the cost of field trip buses. Adviser was Ms. Dianne Hopen.

Snowy weather a big help

With more snow than in any winter in at least ten years—more than 57 inches at last count and still falling—the Ski Club had plenty of raw material to meet the challenges of the slopes.

Sixty members took part in weekly jaunts to Snowcrest or Afton Alps, going on Wednesday or Thursday evenings. A weekend trip to Spirit Mountain was planned for the second week in March.

Costs for the bus trips were defrayed through the sale of discount tickets to Snowcrest and bags and boxes of M and M candy. Ms. Dianne Hopen was the Ski Club's adviser.

With fourteen candidates representing each grade, the decision wasn't an easy one. But royalty were chosen Thursday, January 25, in the school auditorium to start off Humboldt's Sno Week '79.

Tim Daly and Ann Renteria, senior king and queen, joined by Beanie Kolnberger and Kathy Vanderbeek, junior prince and princess, and Gerald Booker and Stacey Cardenas, sophomore duke and duchess, reigned over the week's activities.

Jersey Day, Dress-up Day, Hillbilly Day, and Clash Day were among the events that took place during the week.

Sno-Day was held at Green Acres in Lake Elmo with a grand total of 92 snow-tubing participants. To end the Sno-Week festivities, a Friday night disco dance was held in the school cafeteria.

atmosphere to Humboldt

Rodgers and Hammerstein's production of Carousel was chosen by members of the Vocal Music Department to be performed as this year's operetta.

The story of a carnival barker who fell in love, the show included many well known songs such as "If I Loved You," "You'll Never Walk Alone," and "June Is Bustin' Out All Over."

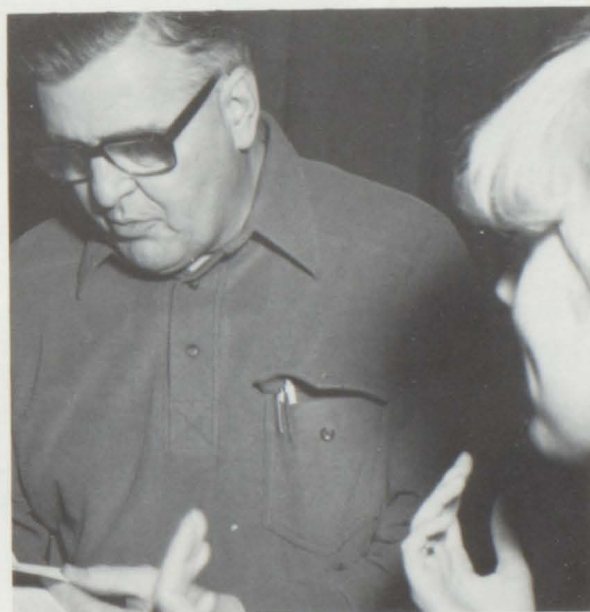

Tryouts were held in January, and a cast consisting largely of sophomores and juniors was chosen. Lead roles were played by Michele Stanley and Laurel Tschida as Julie and Gary Hirsch and David Germain as Billy.

The month of February was spent memorizing lines, building sets and props, and spending many hours after school rehearsing.

Directed by Mr. Darwin Korum, who was assisted by student director John Bisciglia, the show was performed the nights of March 1-2.

beaten by publications staff

Two journalists who moved into the Publications class as graduates of first-year Journalism were Lori Jo Sinn and Gail Darling. Below: Members of the Journalism class gather to count points and picas and plan for the next communications seminar.

Faced with the task of publishing six newspapers, three newsletters, and one yearbook, the publications staff — famous for its popcorn — set out to accomplish what seemed to be impossible.

From the beginning, staff members faced "yesterday" due dates and deadlines that would creep up overnight. Many wondered what they had gotten themselves into.

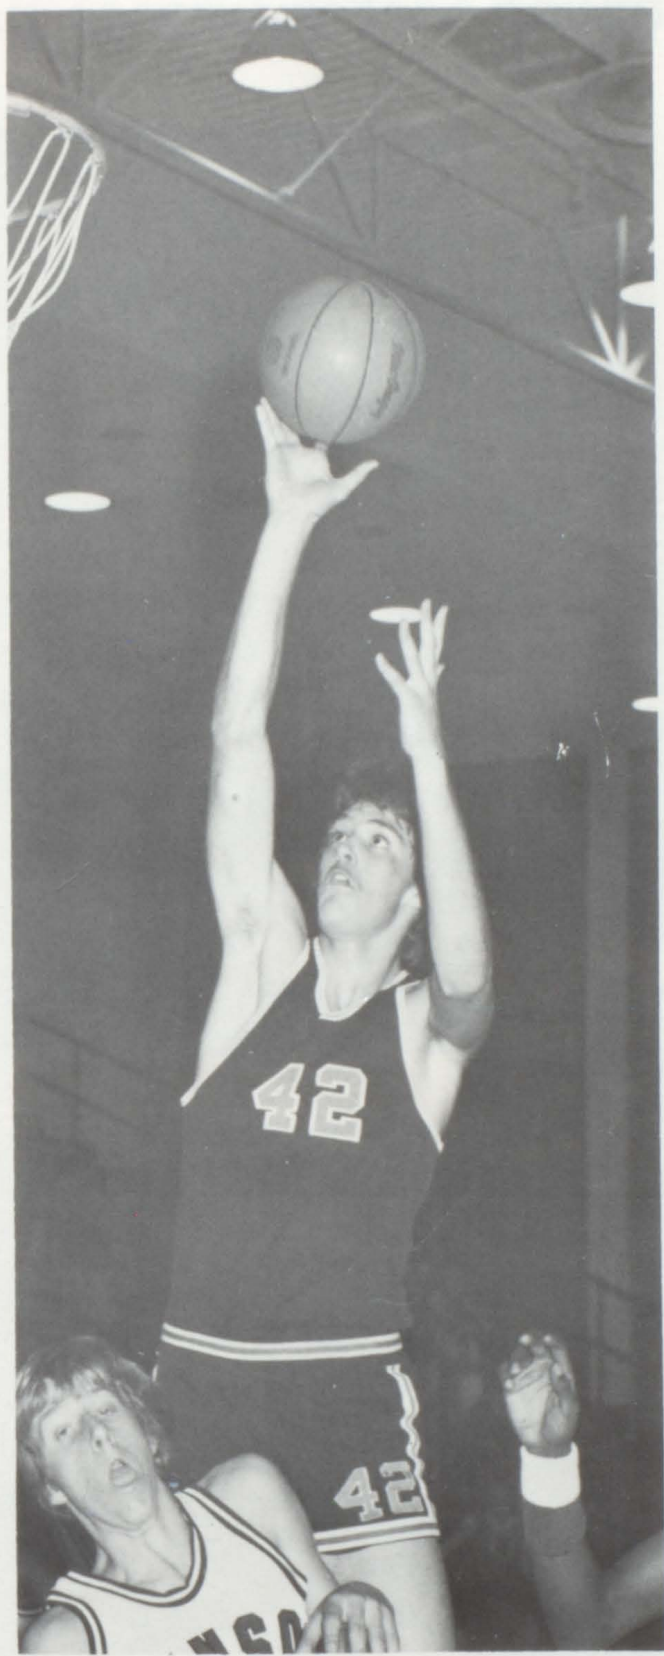

There was more fluctuation to the size of the group than to the size of the popcorn bowls, and, at times, more than a dozen students found there was more to journalism than eating popcorn and sipping hot chocolate.

There were stories to write, layouts to be drawn, and advertising to sell, not to mention the endless details to be taken care of. Work days often began before homeroom and lasted until well after school. During the long hours there much work, many laughs, and even a battle or two over how much salt to use.

Success experienced by the football team can be best summarized by looking at the Homecoming game against Murray.

Humboldt capped off the week with a 35-14 comeback victory. The Pilots had a 14-0 lead before Indian quarterback Dan Sanchez put together a scoring drive seconds before the end of the first half. Humboldt held off all other attempts by the Pilots and added touchdowns by Gerald Booker, Mark Ritter and two by Doug Sovinski.

For the season, Humboldt was 3-6, with other wins being scored over Central, 8-6; and Highland Park, 20-7. Most noteworthy among the losses was the St. Thomas game in which Humboldt built a 14-0 first-quarter lead against the conference co-champs, only to lose, 34-14.

Sanchez was named the team's most valuable. Other award winners were Kerry Sizemore, offensive back; Junior Adamez, offensive line; Rito Hernandez, defensive back; Terry Brennan, defensive line; and Brennan, Steve DuBois, and Steve VanZyl, captains of the year. Brennan and Adamez also gained All City honors.

JV drops Central, 20-0

Coach Vaughn Ekbom had one major concern as he led his charges through the City Conference schedule: that he might run out of players. Faced with the smallest turn-out of his coaching career—only eighteen by the end of the season—Humboldt finished with a 1-7 record.

But the end of the season was the best part as the Indians ground out a 20-0 shutout of Central in its second-to-last outing of the year. Touchdowns were scored by Rick Rodriguez, Randy Smith, and Ric Verdeja.

Humboldt came close several times but lost: to Johnson, 22-14; to Highland Park, 24-18; and to Washington, 14-6.

Besides Rodriguez, Smith, and Verdeja, Mark Aeilts, Mike Leach, Tim Robinette, and Pat Stark were singled out for their strong play.

Tennis anyone? That's a question asked many times by members of the girls' tennis team as they participated in more than eighteen matches in less than four weeks.

Under the direction of Mr. Volker Hennig, they finished their season with an impressive victory over Washington to complete a 5-9 conference record. The team earned double wins by defeating Central and Washington, with a single win coming over Murray.

The strong serve of Donna Gross and Val Parker's ability to move and volley well proved to be assets to the team as the co-captains led Humboldt through the season.

The squad consisted of four singles players: Gross, Parker, Darcy Miller, and Dawn Parker. Doubles players were: Rita Block and Chris Robinson; Mary delCastillo and Barb Sussner; Dawn Saros and Sharon Weber.

The cross country team ended the season with a seventh place tie in the conference standings and a fifth place finish in the City Meet. In the Region 3AA Meet, the Indians placed thirteenth.

Wins over Johnson, Murray, and Washington were high-points in a season that ended with a disappointing 3-6 record. The loss of three of last year's top runners, one to graduation and two who didn't rejoin the squad, definitely hurt the team.

Humboldt was led by several returning lettermen and a first year runner. Third-year senior Jim Peterson and second-year junior Brad Jenniges were consistent throughout the season. Third-year senior Tim Pieper and first-year junior Paul Alsides came on strong toward the end of the season to become two of the top runners on the squad.

She advanced to the state meet for the second year in a row, and was praised by Coach Ralph Nordstrom for her dedication and effort.

Another outstanding performer was senior co-captain Colleen McCann. The rest of the team consisted of junior high swimmers, with the exception of sophomores Sue Dwyer and Stacey Cardenas.

Although the team finished with an 0-12 record, many school and personal records were broken.

The closest meet was against Central. The entire team was up for the meet and put out it best effort, losing by a mere nine-point margin, 89-80.

For the first time in history, a Humboldt girls' volleyball team defeated Highland Park, and that victory, combined with wins over Washington and Minneapolis Central and Simley in non-conference play gave the squad a 4-8 record.

Coached by Ms. Marlene Ziemski, the team's usual starting line-up consisted of DeeDee Adamez, Juanita Adamez, Robin Deuth, Candy Gilbertson, Sandy Holmberg, and Brenda Johnson. Gilbertson was named to the All City team. Deuth and Holmberg were Humboldt's only seniors.

The team's season ended with a 2-1 loss to St. Paul Central in the first round of regional play.

The junior varsity, coached by Mr. Ray Schwabe, finished the season with a 1-11 record. The lone victory was over Washington, 2-1. Usual starters for this team were Meg Haider, Lydia Mesa, Mary Munkwitz, Gina Niva, Dori Pnewski, and Sue Reyes.

good enough for title

All-City performers Greg Munos and John Newbauer talk over the strategies of a coming match. Both have been varsity wrestlers since their junior high years.

Humboldt lost its hold on the City Conference wrestling title but ended regular season dual meet action with a 7-2 record. The actual championship was not decided until the final meet of the season when the Indians faced eventual league champ Johnson and came out losing, 31-21.

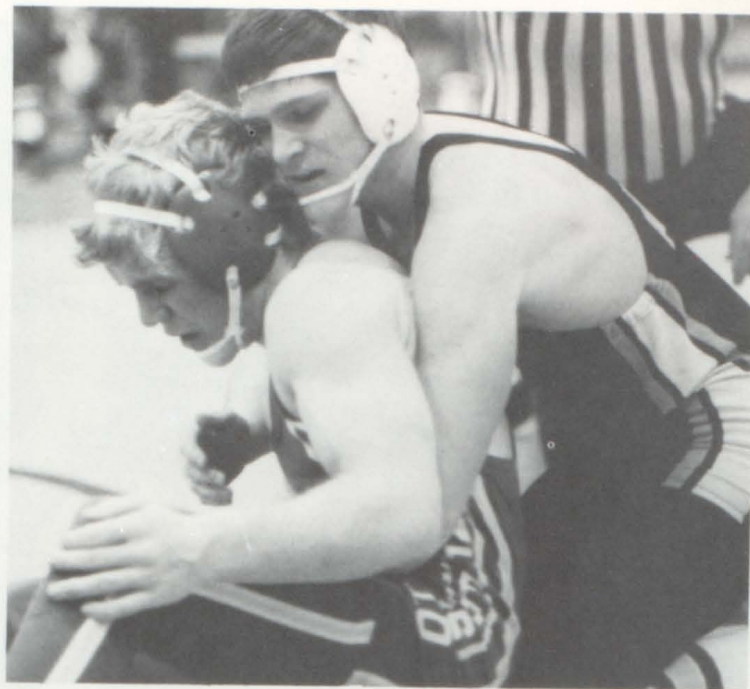

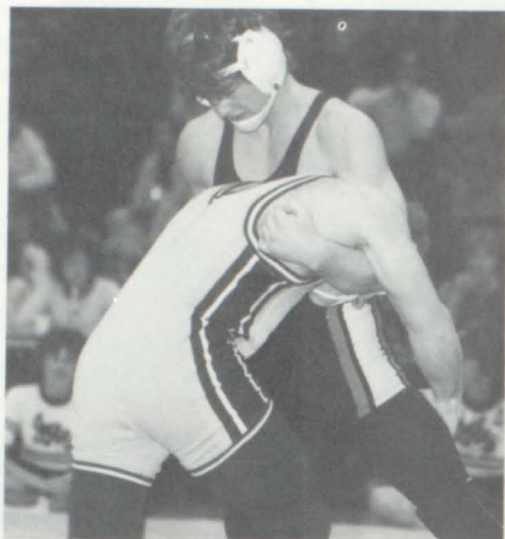

Leading the way for Humboldt were All-City performers Greg Munos, John Newbauer, and Frank Perez. Munos was on the injury list for part of the season, including the Johnson match. Coach Bob Ryan was also able to rely on such performers as Al Mercado, Jeff Miller, Scott Scheuer, and Scott Wilson in bringing the grapplers a winning record.

In team regional competition, Humboldt won in the first round over Central but lost again to Johnson to bring the team portion of the season to an end. Munos and Newbauer both advanced to individual State Tournament action, where Munos won twice and Newbauer lost his only match.

Coming off a championship season last year, the JV wrestling team found winning to be more difficult this season. Humboldt lost in its first two outings and did not recover in time to regain the recognition received last year.

In dual meet competition the Indians were 2-7, but Coach Wayne Brekke was quick to praise the outstanding efforts of individual team members. Leading the way were junior Kevin Sager and sophomore Mark Tonn.

Victories were recorded over Highland, 42-12. The other win was over Murray, 60-6, with pins coming from Shawn Faughn, Al Mercado, Jeff Miller, and Tonn. Humboldt finished third in the city JV meet.

A new basketball coaching staff helped guide Humboldt to a 7-11 conference season and a 49-46 upset victory over fifth-seeded Cretin in the opening round of regional play. Mr. Dick Furey took over the coaching position following Mr. Norm Rynard's retirement from basketball after last year's championship season. Mr. Jim Fritsche was the new assistant coach.

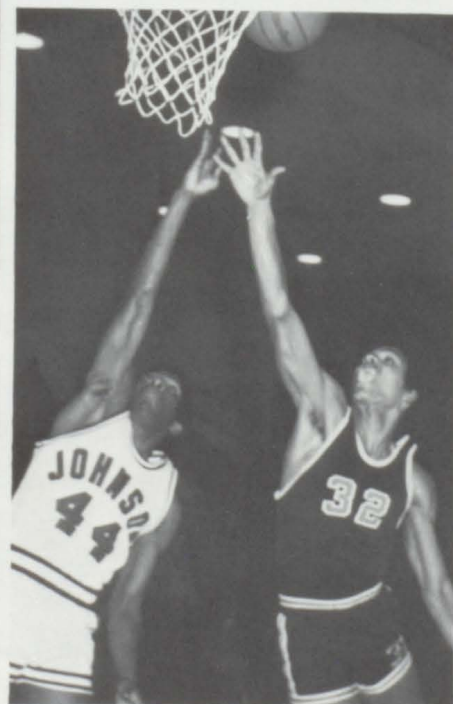

Tim Pieper, a three-time member of the All-City team, closed out a spectacular varsity career which started when he was in eighth grade by leading the team with a 15.8 points per game average. Following him in scoring were Ben Aeilts with a 14.1 average and Rito Hernandez with an 11.5 average. Aeilts, Chuck Bates, Pieper, Jeff Reis, and Dan Sanchez pulled down most of the team's rebounds.

While posting a win-loss record identical to the varsity at 7-11, the JV basketball team could look to a 75-74 overtime win over St. Thomas as a highlight of its season. Other teams conquered by Coach Jim Fritsche's forces included Harding, Johnson, Murray, and Washington. In play-off action, the Indians drubbed Murray, 75-34, before being edged out by Central, 65-63.

Randy Smith's 15.4 scoring average was Humboldt's best. Other top scorers were Ben Oakes, Luis Rosario, Mark Aeilts, and Tony Casillas. Aeilts and Oakes led in rebounds.

For Coach Fritsche, it marked a return to the school where he captained the 1949 team to a city co-championship and a state tournament title.

scoring power, games

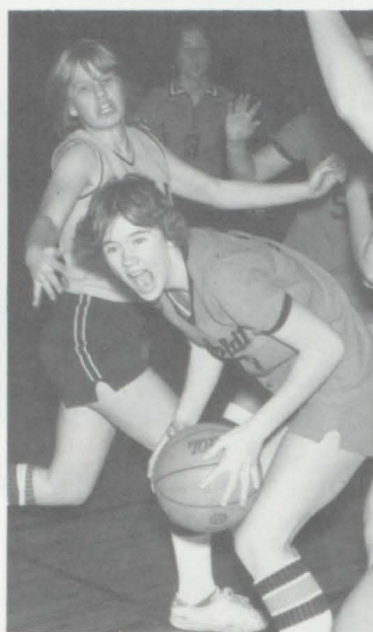

A loss of the height from the previous season and a lack of scoring power contributed to a winless year for the girls' varsity basketball team.

Playing every team twice, the team posted a season record of 0-16. Senior Barb Winge was the team's top scorer, averaging eleven points per game. Second in individual scoring was Kelly O'Connor. Leading rebounder was Robin Deuth, who at 5-9 was the team's tallest member. Junior Kathy Vanderbeek showed strong rebounding skills and is an excellent prospect for next year's team. Other usual starters were Sandy Holmberg and Dee Dee Adamez. The team was coached by Mr. Bob Jackson, who had previously been the JV coach.

JV stops Murray twice

Two victories over Murray proved to members of the girls' JV basketball team that they could win and that they could develop their skills to the point where they could help the varsity in years to come.

Dee Dee Adamez led the team with a ten-point-per-game scoring average. Dori Pnewski, another top point-getter, was lost to the squad mid-way through the season with an ankle injury. Leading rebounder was Kim Jennings. Other starters for Ms. Jean Newman, the new JV coach, included Annie Delgado, Theresa Newbauer, and Meg Haider.

7 gymnasts win 6 meets

Although slowed by injuries to at least five gymnasts, Humboldt finished a hard fought season with a 6-8 record and earned wins over Johnson, Harding, Washington twice, and Central twice.

Leading scorers were Candy Gilbertson with 267 points, Brenda Johnson with 218, and Theresa Vanyo with 213. These three juniors competed in all four events in each meet.

With only seven girls on the team, the coaches were able to give a lot of individual help and this really showed in how much everyone improved during the season. A strong team is expected next year, with Lori Johnson being the only graduating senior.

While swimmers could not brag about any team victories, they could at least talk about the next best thing—a tie with Central, 60-60. But Coach Jay Wescott was really more anxious to talk about a winning team attitude and improvements in the times of individual team members.

Seniors Bob Komorowski and Jeff Wenker were co-captains and the team's leading scorers. Other consistent point-getters included Tim Hossalla, Dean Cota, Pat Quintero, John Egginger, and Dan Nieman. Wenker and Nieman qualified for the district meet. Also, Jim Kobinski set several personal records in the 100-yard freestyle. Coach Wescott praised Komorowski for his efforts in recruiting new team members—including nine new swimmers within a two-week period.

Humboldt rallied from a 3-0 deficit to defeat Highland, 4-3, in the final outing of the conference season to bring its league record to five wins against eight losses and move into a sixth place finish in final city standings. Mardy Meza scored the winner, after his Humboldt teammates had come up with three goals in the final seven minutes of regulation play.

For the season, Humboldt was led on offense by junior Beanie Kolnberger and seniors Terry Brennan, Meza, Mark Ritter, Paul Schoonover, and Marty Simones. Defensively, the "mean machine" counted on Brennan and senior goalie Manfred Krug, who has guarded the Indians' net for the past three years.

JV ties Harding, Johnson

After going winless in its first three league games of the season, the JV hockey team came up with three wins and a tie in the final part of the schedule to bring its record to 3-4-2. The team's overall record was 6-9-2.

Highlights of the season included wins over Murray, Central, and Washington and ties against usual powers Harding and Johnson. In play-off action, the Indians lost to St. Thomas in the first round, 6-3.

Leading scorers were Steve Lorr, Jim Nielsen, and Mike Sura, along with Dan King, Tim Lorr, and Tim Osborne. Humboldt was led by goalies Ted DeGraw and Irving Stapleton.

HUMBOLDT HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS

LIFE 1979

Sunny outlook forecast

While thermometers in the school floated in the ninety degree range, members of the class of 1979 came back from the beaches in early September to be rushed through arena scheduling in the library. While the weather cooled in late November, schedules of most seniors ran at a feverish pitch.

There was the usual party circuit for some, an occasional movie—Grease, Animal House, Midnight Express—or concert—Dylan, Neil Young, Foreigner, and time for a book report or term paper. Anything to stay warm.

Some thought about the senior trip to Hawaii. While weather people were predicting a winter storm, hallway posters said the first $100 deposit was due. But an April departure date coincided with predictions of warmer weather and a return to Minnesota beaches.

 The class of 1979—
 305 graduates.
 We looked to them as leaders. And now they leave their work to others.

Good news ...
good things do happen at Humboldt Senior High.
'Life 1979'
has shown what they are.

Good news ...
our work
is finished.
Now our work has become your yearbook,

While being short on experienced players, the baseball team had to settle for only two wins in conference play.

Brightest spot on the team was the hitting of Rito Hernandez, who ended the year with a .395 mark.

Victories were posted over Central, 6-4, and Murray, 5-0. David Davis was the winning pitcher in both contests.

The Indians had a team batting average of .228 and a fielding average which included more than four errors per game.

Gaining the best record of any Humboldt spring athletic team was the JV baseball squad, which was 6-3 and finished second in city standings.

Tim Osborne led the team with a .444 batting average, while Jim Nielsen posted a 5-1 pitching record and hit .393.

Gary Hirsch records the score of a team member; Gail Darling, Laurel Tschida, and Darcy Miller wait to tee-off.

Golfers gain 2 wins, 1 tie

Two wins and a tie gave the girls' golf team a 2-4-1 record in conference action, while the boys' team went down to defeat in all nine of its matches.

Victories were posted over Central, 11½-3½, and Washington, 15-0, and there was a 9-9 tie with Highland.

Humboldt's best golfers included Angel Faser, Donna Gross, Gail Darling, Darcy Miller, and Laurel Tschida.

The closest match for the boys' team was a 9½-8½ loss to Central. Turning in the best scores for the Indians were Mark Goldberg, Gary Hirsch, and Tom Thoenke, all returnees from the previous year's team.

Humboldt's coaches, Mr. John Ernst and Mr. Mike Sullivan, placed most of their emphasis on developing individual golfer talent, rather than on team victories.

Tennis players beat Central

A 4-3 victory over Central was a major highlight for the boys' tennis team which also defeated two opponents in non-conference action.

Winning their singles matches against Central were Junior Adamez and Dave Sanft. Second doubles were won by Darwin Callahan and Jim Hosley, while David Reyes and Irv Stapleton were victorious in third doubles.

Finishing ninth in the City Conference, Humboldt ended the season with a 1-8 record and was 3-10 overall. The non-conference wins were over St. Agnes, 3-2, and Brady, 4-1.

Returning from the previous year's team were Adamez, Callahan, Larry Hermann, Hosley, and Eric Marhoun. The Indians were coached by Mr. Art Johnson.

The girls' softball team lost all but one of its games, and finished its second season with a 1-11 record.

The honor of being most valuable player went to Tammy Todora, Humboldt's leading pitcher. Other players included Susie Reyes, who was recognized as the most improved player, and Kathy Vanderbeek, best all-around player.

In its highlight game of the season, the Indians were victorious, winning 11-9 over Derham Hall.

The JV softball team finished its season with a 2-9 record, with victories being over Central, 12-9, and Highland Park, 25-14.

Special awards were not given, although efforts made by center fielder Lydia Mesa and pitcher Jackie Terlinde helped contribute to the team's victories.

The seven-member girls' badminton team finished its season with a 6-6 record, placing sixth in the City Conference.

The Indians had two matches per week, competing against each team in the conference twice. Humboldt defeated Central and Murray each twice, and Washington and Harding once.

Juniors Jacquie Boucher and Jane Karas switched off playing first and second singles. Sophomore Gina Niva played third singles. The first doubles team consisted of Peggy Clark and Mary Mueller, while second doubles was played by Penny Schuldt and Sue Weir. Boucher, Niva, Clark, and Mueller had the most wins.

With a small team, first-year coach Ms. Chris Andrews was able to give the girls more individual attention. This showed as they defeated teams many times their size.

Jeff Reis hurdled his way to the State High School Track Meet while leading the Humboldt track team through a cold and rainy spring which produced several outstanding individual performances.

For Reis, this was his second visit to the state event, and his other accomplishments included a record in the intermediate hurdles in the City Meet. He ran the high hurdles and was part of the 440-yard relay team which also included Kerry Sizemore, Randy Smith, and Bill Sobania.

The only team victory for the Indians was over Murray, 71-51.

The girls' team beat Central in city action and St. Croix Lutheran in a non-conference meet. Leading point-getters were Lori Johnson and Sandy Holmberg. A 440-yard relay team of Sandy Flores, Holmberg, Brenda Johnson and Theresa Newbauer finished fourth in the City Meet.

The best of the varsity and faculty athletes took the floor March 23 for their annual basketball classic.

No one connected with the game would furnish an accurate accounting of who won, how many baskets were scored, and how much cheating was done by referees hired by the faculty team.

Humboldt's program for the physically impaired had its own floor hockey team which represented the school in competition with four other Twin City squads.

May has 2 major events

Sandy Holmberg and Tim Pieper participate in the National Honor Society candle-lighting ceremony prior to being officially installed as members.

Two major events, one academic and one social, took place during the month of May as Humboldt reinstituted the tradition of selecting students for the National Honor Society and the junior class sponsored the annual Prom.

A total of 31 students—22 seniors and 9 juniors—were brought into the NHS, based on grade-point average, contributions made to the school, and citizenship. Prospective members had had to apply to the society and have their application approved by a screening committee.

Organization for the Prom got off to a slow start, but the event was held without any difficulties May 5 on the St. Paul campus of the University of Minnesota. Nearly fifty couples attended the event.

310 graduates say farewell

Members of the Humboldt class of 1979 participated in their final class activity June 7—commencement ceremonies in the theatre section of the St. Paul Civic Center.

As the Concert Band played, the 310 graduates walked down the aisle and onto the stage. An invocation was given by Tim Pieper, a member of the class, and the evening was presided over by Desiree Waltz, class president.

Desiree Waltz and Manfred Krug announced names of graduates as they received their diplomas.

Musical selections for the evening included "The Way We Were" and "You'll Never Walk Alone" by the Concert Choir and "Meleguena" and Beethoven's "Prometheus Overture" by graduating members of the Concert Band.
