The senior class officers this year were: Katie Dwyer, President; Fred Cooper, Vice-President; Jolene Peterson, Secretary; and Val Murray, Treasurer.

The class of '74 has worked hard since their sophomore year. They have sponsored dances, daisy sales, and pennant sales; all leading up to the prom in their junior year. In their senior year they made plans for fund raising activities and the class trip.

When a friend starts on a journey of a thousand miles,
As he is about to leave,
He delays again and again.
When men part,
They feel they may never meet again.
When a year is gone,
How will they ever find it again?
I wonder where it has gone . . .
This year that is ended?

THOUGH WE WERE SOMETIMES LILLIPUTIANS IN A GIANT’S WORLD, WE HAD DAYS OF STATURE TOO . . .
In art we sometimes got our hands dirty. But it was all worthwhile.
The trimester division of the curriculum was introduced this year. It meant that students were no longer assigned to one teacher for the entire year. It also meant that students had a hand in choosing the classes and the teachers that they felt could best serve them. In order to affect these choices, many students felt obliged to forsake their early morning beds and line up outside the cafeteria for “ARENA” scheduling. Since assignment to classes was on a first come basis, it was necessary (or best) to be one of the first in line. Early risers reached the building (in some cases) by 6 A.M.!!

Homecoming festivities started Monday, October first with "Powder-Puff" playoffs, football for girls, but not for softies. On Tuesday, after victories in both their sophomore and junior years, the seniors won the "Super Powder-Puff" game thus setting an unprecedented three-year victory record. On Thursday the big homecoming coronation was held in our new auditorium at 7:30 P.M. The dance followed in the gym. Friday, October fifth, saw the introduction of the first annual Football Spirit Day. An assembly highlighted the day. The week-long festivities ended at Harding stadium on Friday night as many alumni and present students gathered to watch the Indians win a "cliffhanger" from Central. The final score — 15 to 14.

Queen Jo and Alumna Cheerleader Lori Martin dance as the band played on.

The homecoming crowd watches tensely as rough, tough Indians "decentralize" the Minutemen.
Jeff and Tommy, two debonair city fellers from New York, find themselves lost in the highland regions of Scotland only to stumble upon the mystical presence of Brigadoon, a town that is nowhere except in the heart of the romantic. Brigadoon materializes only under special circumstances, and only when desperately needed. The town folk, oblivious to their transient nature, welcome the two lost hunters and proceed to make them feel at home. The hunters soon have misgivings about the queer going's on, but are at a loss to explain what has happened to them. In spite of his unwillingness, Tommy falls in love with Fiona (Lori Martin and Kathy Littfin), only to have to face an unwanted separation. Then, of course, after the fashion of good musical comedy, the lovers are reunited and abide happily ever after.
Angus MacGuffie (Ben Moreno) sells his drink to the towns people.

Jeff (Dan Schleichert) and Tommy (Rich Herrera) try to find their bearings.

Jean McLaren (Mary Schuweiler) and Charlie Dalrymple (Peter Verdeja) are married by Mr. Lundie (Fred Cooper).
The cast of "Home Sweet Homicide" as they appear for a curtain call are Jim Frame, Laurel Brownlee, Fred Cooper, Denise Kronholm, Doug Schleichert, Tony Elizondo, Joe Wenker, Cindy Jackson, Nick Lardani, Barb Hines, Andy Gross, Bob Frame, Joy Staples, Ann Langlois, Mary Vondresek — hiding behind Ann, Sue Kegler, Chris Schmidt, and Patty Bejblik.

The task of choosing a script, casting the parts, making up, costuming, rehearsing, and presenting the finished play is an arduous undertaking according to Mr. Robert McGregor, Humboldt little theater director. Time is always so pressing a factor, and the problem is complicated by other demands made upon the few who have the courage to act. Almost the entire cast of "Home Sweet Homicide" were committed in one way or another to several school functions and some to outside activities. It is surely to the credit of these fine young people that the play was so ably presented. The Humboldt thespians are to be congratulated for their fine work.

SENTIMENTALLY MURDEROUS.

"We have mixed reactions . . ."

"Well, as long as you asked me . . ."

"I don't think that's in the script . . ."

"What's a picnic without ants . . ."
Surely the most richly nostalgic moments in your memories of Humboldt will be those dear recollections of the prom. You'll never forget your friends, the romantic atmosphere, the soft lights and music, the dancing, being dressed up, the grand march, the decorations, dining out and, most of all, your love. All through that night in your mind and in your dreams you thought of the future when you'll look back on the prom, the pages of the yearbook, and your corsage (which is crushed in an old dictionary). You'll try to remember the faces and the names, but tears will fill your eyes and only memories will remain. "Saturday in the Park" will be within your heart everyday and forever.

The tradition of sophomores serving at the prom was continued by Patti Bejblik, Sheila Cassidy, Joanne Theno, Debbie Barbato, and Patty Ferber who shared the memories of the prom.
SOME NIGHTS WE SKATED . . .
SOMETIMES WE WAITED . . .
These students were selected in their junior year for Boy’s State and Girl’s State. Jim Frame to the Boy’s State Convention held at St. John’s College and Katie Dwyer went to the Girl’s State Convention held at St. Catherines College. This experience gave them new insights into government and how it works.

The Indian gridders under the leadership of tri-captains Dave Schleichert, Joe Wenker, and Andy Gross finished the season with a record of four wins and four losses in conference action.

The team showed a strong defense throughout the year — they were second in the conference in that department. During the Highland game, for example, the Ryanmen held their opponents to an average of one foot per play!

Dave Schleichert was ranked third in the city in rushing. Don Day and Rick Firkus were other outstanding ball carriers.

The Indians won an exciting cliff-hanger over Central at homecoming time. The final score of that game was 15 to 14!
CINDERMen Short On EXPERIENCE

Heading home with the baton . . .

No Hurdle too High . . .
Although the 1973 Humboldt cindermen were short on experience, they were not short of heart. Though their record was a dismal 1 and 7 in conference action, both individuals and teams demonstrated the kind of courage that has come to be expected of Indian track and field men. Hopes for coming seasons runs high as many individual members of the squad gained experience that will stand them in good stead. As in any sport there is no substitute for actual competition. Our boys may have had some sad locker room moments, but they are determined to make better days. We know they will.

The Gymnastics team led by lettermen Gary Meade and state tournament goer George Deuth finished with a 3-3 record and fourth place. The Highlight of the season was the performance of senior George Deuth in the regional meet and the state tournament.

In the regional meet, George Deuth finished third on the horse, second on the parallel bars, second in free exercises, and second all-around. In the state tournament he finished 19th all-around.

Hard hours of practice, encouragement of his team mates and to the instruction of Coach Mike Amidon have led George to his success in high school gymnastics.

The varsity basketball team despaired a 4 and 17 record at the finish of season, but had some good moments too. Victories were against Monroe, Murray and two against Washington. Rick Firkus led all scorers with a 17-point per game average. He was named to all-conference honors. During three weeks of the season the team was without the assistance of head coach Rynard who was hospitalized for surgery.

Though winning only one of their twenty starts, the B-squad basketball team exploded offensively against Washington late in the season to down the Rice-Streeters 77 to 66. Demonstrating optimism the team feels that they gained much even in losing and looks forward to better things in the next season. Surely the experience will be useful to them.

Always strong on the mats, the Humboldt wrestlers swept to their fourth straight conference championship this year. The unprecedented feat by the matmen left no room for doubt in the minds of fans and observers that Indian wrestling supremacy is for real. The team and head coach Bob Ryan are surely to be congratulated in their splendid showing. Though they lost a decision to Minneapolis Edison in the Twin-City championship match (29-8), the team placed seven wrestlers in the Region Four tournament. Those who wrestled for Humboldt in the Region were Tony Abbott, Terry Albrecht, Calvin Clark, Junior Mercado, Mike Munos, Ron Otto and Dave Schleichert. No matter how teams fare in the future, the last four years of greatness will remain an encouraging precedent. Our best to the perennial Humboldt grapplers and their coaches.
Humboldt's swimming team was 3 and 13 on the year and finished the season sixth in the conference. Durk Hanson and Harvey, both seniors, were the co-captains of the teams. Hanson was the second place point-getter in the conference. Jim Miller, who will captain next year's team, believes that experience gained this year will prove helpful to next year's efforts. The team is looking for more underclassmen and feels too that more girls should come out for the team.

What makes a close ball game? Scores often do not reflect the comparable skill of the losing team. This is especially true in baseball where a dropped fly ball may deliver three runs for the opponent. Humboldt's diamond men played well last spring but could only manage three wins on the season. Scores of last spring were:

HOCKEY B’S ARE 7-7-2 ON SEASON

This year's B-Squad Hockey team had a successful 7-7-2 season. The B-bombers were led by sophomore forwards Ken King, John Kegler and Marty Casalenda and received some strong support from defensemen Ron Theno and John Lardani. Goalie Jerry Kelzer had some outstanding performances in the net, including a satisfying victory over Highland Park and a 3-0 shutout against Murray in play-off competition.

CROSS COUNTRY . . .

The cross country team ran to a 3-win and 5-loss record in conference action last fall. The team had good performances from all runners, with Don Heppleman and Joe Vanderbeck leading the way. The team will lose only one senior, Chuck Mike. Coach McGregor expects a strong team to battle for city honors next fall. He hopes that more runners will try out. This sport is a top conditioner for other athletics.
GIRLS INTO INTERSCHOLASTIC ATHLETICS

With no intentions of or down-grading Girls athletics, the LIFE staff in advertently failed to get adequate coverage of this new program. It is promised that more care will be taken in the future.

The Humboldt volleyball team finished the '73 season with a record of two wins and six losses, but failed to win a game on only three outings. The girls had victories over Monroe and Mechanic Arts in the eight-team conference competition. Those winning letters were Kathy Reicher, Bev Scheafer, Becky Smith. Ruth Moreno, Joni Hanson, Fern Kieselhorst, and Barb Hines. Voted most valuable player was Bev Schaefer. Those who improved most over the season were Fern Kieselhorst, Kathy LeTourneau, and Ruth Moreno. The team was coached by girls' physical education instructor, Miss Marlene Ziemski.

The girls BASKETBALL TEAM won three games while losing five in conference action. Victories were gained over Johnson, Monroe, and Murray. Karen Romero led the team in scoring and was voted the most valuable player. Most improved player was Becky Smith. Always enthusiastic, coach Mrs. Mary Haug had this to say about the season, “In the beginning we all had a lot to organize. Since it was the first time I had coached, I had more to learn than anyone. I feel we have excellent talent on the team. Next year we will all be more experienced, and I feel our record will show that. I don’t know when I ever enjoyed working with a group more than I did the team. I am really looking forward to next year.”

Limping from deadline to deadline, the LIFE staff suffered as did some of the athletic teams from lack of bench strength. Those who helped to produce this book were, as usual, the same students who make most of the other things that happened here this year go. It is not easy to divide your time between plays, athletic teams, operettas, cheer leader meetings and doing something as "ho-hum" as yearbook making. It is hoped that we have spelled your name right and that your picture is not upside down. If you have some criticism to make of the book, won't you join us next year. It is good to pass the happiness around.
Almost any afternoon during the lengthy marching season you have to take your chances in the second floor hall, the first floor hall, the third floor hall, or almost anywhere else. If you're agile enough, you may escape being knocked on the head by flying flat staffs or trampled under the marching feet of the cadence-minded color guard. The earnestness of this fine group to achieve perfection is rarely matched. They are a credit (if a little dangerous to the incautious) to our school.
THE PEP SQUAD consists of Barb Abrass, Linda Burbach, Laurie Littfin, Cindy Hunter, and Lorraine Vail. ROW 2: Bonnie Berg (general manager), Lenore Warling, Denise Kronholm, Val Lengsfeld (captain), Kim Rowan, and Lori Wickard. ROW 3: Debbie Sticha, Pam Baughman, Joanie Zigan, Debbie Rutherford, Kathy Hunter, Linda Moser, Sandy Rolfer, and Val Kabus. Not present when the picture was taken were Michele Moodie, Nancy Garcia and Ann Langlois.

THE MAJORETTES pretty up any parade. Here are Patti Bejblik, Patty Wallner, Darlene Labelle, Gloria Deeb, and Robin Sobania who do the pretting-up pretty well for us.
A squad of 14 girls cheered for football in the fall and separated into three squads for the Winter sports of basketball, wrestling, and hockey. The girls formed smaller squads to cheer for other conference sports.

GIRLS ENSEMBLE

AS USUAL THE BAND WAS EVERYWHERE . . .

Band director, Mr. Ray Schweizer, once again took his Humboldt charges to many triumphant performances. The band traveled the city over, participating in both civil and religious concerts. In addition there were the several concerts given at Humboldt in which the band proved excellent audience reaction follows excellence of execution. The whole school is justly proud of the band. They are supported not only by the participation of the students, but by the fine band-parents who give so many hours of their time to see that band activities flourish.

This year instrumental music at Humboldt was broadened to include an introductory course in guitar. The future will, no doubt, see additional instrumental programs implemented here.
A service minded organization, the Varsity club is open to varsity letter winners who are dedicated to the improvement of athletics and the support of school activities in general. Membership in the club is not terminated when the athlete graduates. Instead, these young athletes anticipate keeping in touch with sports programs at Humboldt and subsequently with one another in maintaining the winning tradition. Though "letter clubs" are a common thing in colleges and high schools throughout the country, we are particularly proud of the support and encouragement members of the Humboldt Varsity Club have always given the school.

Looking across Baker Street upon the shambles of broken buildings — the rubble of what was — we cannot help being thrilled by the materialization of our dreams of a new school. At the same time we are saddened a little by what changes have been made in the lives of the many families who once came home to what is now a chaos of mud and debris. We extend our sympathy and thanks to those we've dispossessed. But as the poet says, "the old order changes, making way for new . . ."

Surely all this gloom of clearing away foreshadows the advance of good as well as progress. We do indeed look forward with enthusiasm and hope for the new school which will soon rise — a school in which both students and area residents will take great pride. It is for those of us in the present building to make sure that the new school will be more than sound and beautiful in structure. It must also be administered wisely and taught with excellence. The administration and faculty of the present Humboldt pledge themselves with dedication to the fulfillment of the trust placed in them. The new school will be good in all respects.
Each of us faces opportunity every day. Humboldt has always tried to make use of all its resources to work for the good of the individual student. When we fall upon hard times, the assistant principal seeks to bring about improvement. Too often overlooked are the positive aspects of corrective measures. It is well to measure discipline by its ultimate objective.

Humboldt is a friendly school from its top administrator to its lowest underclassmen. If there is ever conflict in our midst, it is accidental and temporary. We are always more happy to help one another than to reprimand.

DYER J. BROGMUS
PRESIDENT

TO ALL STUDENTS OF HIGHER EDUCATION:

TO INTRODUCE YOU to our bank facilities, we are happy to announce that we will offer free checking to highschool graduates who are currently enrolled in any field of advanced education. Bring in your student identification card when you open your account.

By maintaining a satisfactory checking account, you are helping to build a good credit rating in your community, and you will find a helping hand waiting when you need other financial services. You can feel perfectly free to come to any of our bank officers at any time for counsel on financial matters, and you can be sure, of course, that all discussions will be held in strictest confidence. We have many services which you can use to good advantage, and we want you to be familiar with all of them. Our interest in your progress is sincere, and we look forward to pleasant business relationships with you.

Cordially yours,

Dyer J. Brogmus
