

LIFE 7

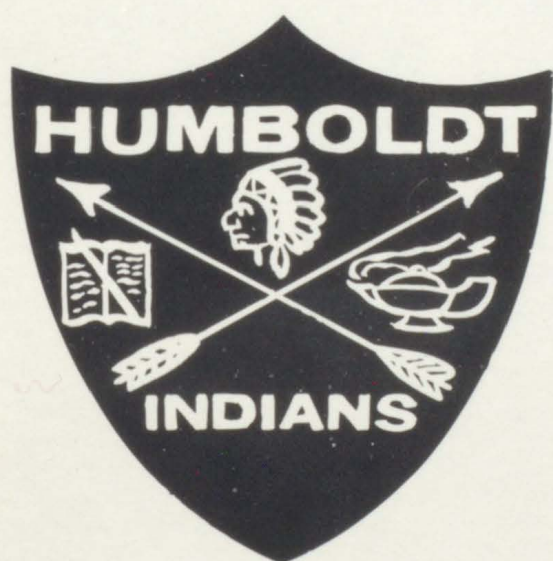

1964

HUMBOLDT LIFE

A never ending cycle, varying as much as the faces of the students. This is a picture of that Life. A picture of learning, excitement, fun, and growing encased in a golden frame of memories.

We choose to dedicate this LIFE of 1964 to a man who has faithfully served Humboldt High School for ten years. We do this in appreciation of his devoted and humanitarian administration to the needs of all who have entered here.

This man, Mr. Adolph Ingebretson, our principal, brought with him to Humboldt the experience of nearly twenty-five years in the classroom and five years in the office of Assistant Principal at Central High School, which well equipped him for his effective participation in student life. Through his varied personal interests; music, traveling, spectator sports, and active participation in professional organizations and service clubs, Mr. I. is vitally attuned to the students way of life.

Mr. Ingebretson, we look on you as a man worthy of our admiration, our esteem and our devotion. Thank you, Mr. I.

As Seniors we are looking toward the future, we, the post-war babies, and pioneers of the New Frontier, regard graduation as the key to the door of success, happiness, and further knowledge. We, the Class of 1964, wish to thank our parents, our teachers, and all the other helping hands who made our education possible.

IN MEMORIAM

VAN CHAPMAN

RICHARD KISCH

JACK RICCI

Now, as graduation approaches, we seniors wish to pause and remember three boys whom we knew and liked so well. Had they lived, they would have graduated with us. Richard's tragic accident in the spring of 1962 was shocking and sorrowful for us all. The auto accident in which the life of Jack and members of his family were taken in late May of 1962 was mourned by the community. In the spring of 1963 we were all saddened by the death of Van. We wish now to pay tribute to these boys, our companions and true friends.

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

When we, the seniors of 1964, look back upon our brief years of learning here at Humboldt, what thoughts and memories will stay with us throughout our lives?

We recall, for some of us, our first days as freshmen, as we brought into Humboldt a new Junior High. We held our own student council, published our own paper, and even put on our own dance. We were considered a school within a school, functioning on a trial basis. In our freshman year, we were made much aware of our challenging race into space. We recall sitting in homeroom on that May morning, some uttering silent prayers, as we listened and waited and then felt the success of Alan Shepard, Jr., our first astronaut.

How much more a part of Humboldt we felt when we became sophomores, joining in with the kids from Roosevelt. Now we really did belong to Humboldt, for we became part of her school spirit at pep assemblies, shared the thrill and suspense of selecting our Homecoming queen, worked with the student council in governing our school, receiving both the ARROW and LIFE which gave us news of the school of which we were now a part. Mr. Korum was given the task of being our class advisor, to guide us through the years to come. We began to organize our class, electing those to represent us as officers and committee members. We recall the thrill and feeling of success as the championship trophy was presented to our school and football team of 1961 after a long awaited thirty years. With tears in our eyes, but yet a moral victory in our hearts, we left Memorial Stadium, but it would not be for the last time. We recall reading and interpreting "Big Julie" in our English classes, and the qualms or curiosity we got from the dissections in biology. Our "Shamrock Twist" was our first big money-making project, and did prove successful. In the spring, we laughed along with the chorus in "Medics and Merriment." To end our year, we sophomores enjoyed a hayride and horseback riding party.

A new school year began, finding ourselves another notch higher in Senior High. We began our junior year by carrying out a successful paper drive in the fall. Our big project for the year was to be the J.S. Prom. We again gained more funds from our Christmas dance, "Mistletoe and Holly." Through extended homerooms on those freezing mornings, we all somehow survived the winter. We recall the fun and excitement of Sno-Day, even coming to the dance with many bruises from the sophomore - junior broomball game. In February we boasted our long awaited class rings. Some of us spent many endless nights after school preparing for the spring play. We all decided it was well worth it as "Annie Get Your Gun" was a high success. Our baseball team had a good year and tied for the city championship. As we saw our junior year closing in on us, we recall "Enchanted" memories of our prom. As some of us sat at graduation, we began to realize that soon we were to become Humboldt's leaders, those building blocks for our school.

For the last time we were now experiencing the opening of a new school year. We felt the pride and joy of having still another championship football team. The excitement was heavy on that cold November afternoon, and our hearts were full of high hopes as we met Minneapolis' once scored on champions. Yet -- our four touchdowns were not enough as our hopes dwindled down. We recall the splendor of "Autumn Leaves" in October as we chose our Homecoming queen, and went on to "Send Mechanic Arts Back In Parts." We remember the unfair publicity which was blown up in the city papers, trying to drag down our school's reputation. For all of us, we shall never forget that dismal November afternoon, when a bulletin was brought over the P.A. into busy classrooms and the clattering cafeteria. The silence was soon felt all over the nation; the tears were hard to stop. The loss of President John F. Kennedy was to become a marked and tragic experience of our young lives. We recall the reverence felt in the auditorium at Christmas time while the songs of the season filled the air. Decorating Christmas trees meant fun, combined with hard work and early hours for those who contributed their efforts. The auditorium carried a new air as we sat in our long awaited theater seats and sang along to our very first "hootenanny". We all hissed and cheered in turn, with "Way, Way Down East," the Thespian melodrama. "Snow Your Beau In Sixty Fo" was to be our last fun-filled Sno-Day. Soon we found ourselves being measured for our caps and gowns. The class trip to Washington, D.C. and the World's Fair brought us many happy memories, along with an educational experience we shall never forget. Senior Day was to be one of the last times that we seniors would be together until the big day -- graduation, 1964. As we walked down the aisles at graduation, with lumps in our throats, we began to realize just how fast those years at Humboldt had flown by. The friends we've made, the wonderful experiences we've shared, and the maturity that we have gained, are just a few of the countless memories that we have to hold. A new life awaits us now; we must mold our futures as we choose.

In the background, Mr. Madsen helps a boy with his typing lesson.

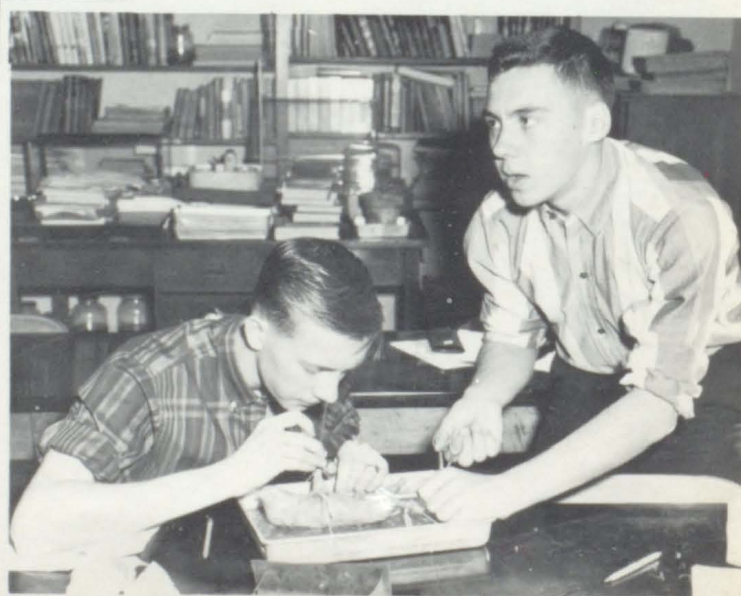

Charlene Plan and Carmen Quesada count pendulum vibrations in a physics experiment.

Tom Bitterman explains his problem to the 12-D mathematics class.

Mr. Hoffman demonstrates the correct method of using a scale to his 10-D science students.

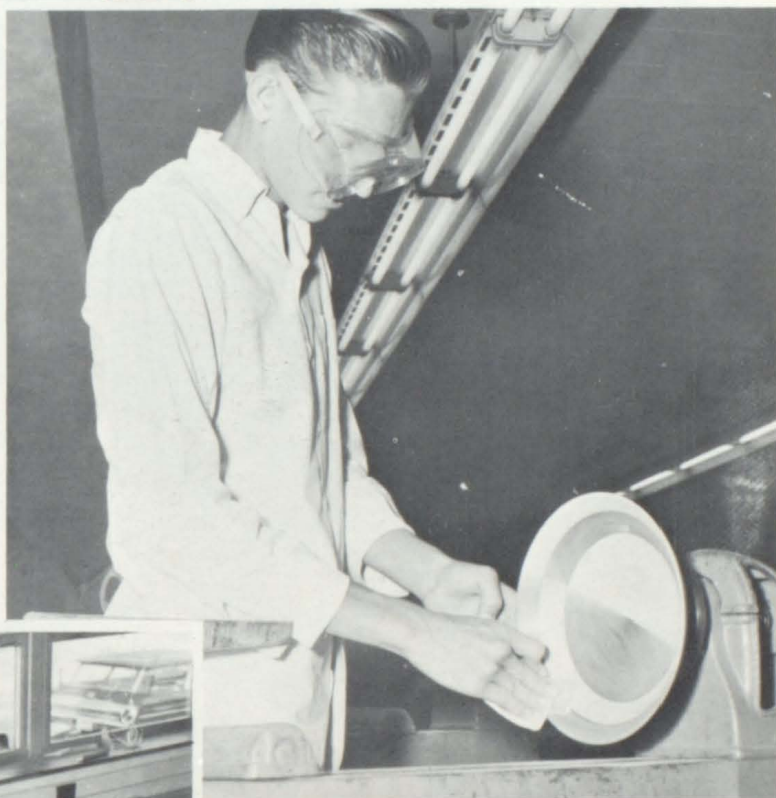

Richard Lieder and Jerry Stiff dissect a fetal pig.

Onlookers as Mr. Nelson shows some technique of mechanical drawing are Tom Blaha, David Wilmes, and Alfred Bauman.

Under the supervision of Miss Steger, students listen to Spanish spoken on tape recordings.

Larry Mader smooths a bowl on the lathe.

Tom Ketchum and Richard Neveau concentrate on their projects in woodshop.

The band members practice a pep-song to be played at a pep-assembly.

Trio is composed of Janice Fossum, Ruth Joseph, and Michael Van Guilder.

Music has always played an important role in Humboldt's academic life. The band played at most of the assemblies during the year and held a band concert in the spring. The band has practiced before and after school to produce the desired effect; a band of which Humboldt can really be proud.

The total number of students who participate in a Chorus class during the day represent 20 percent of the school's population, giving strong evidence of the students' appreciation of music.

ACTIVITIES

Glenn Greider was chosen as Humboldt's Boys State representative on the basis of his leadership qualities, scholarship, personality, and interest in the affairs of government. He will attend the Boys State Convention in which a democratic government is set up and run by the boys. Ron Gordon is the alternate.

HUMBOLDT HONORS

Humboldt's Homemaker of Tomorrow is Linda Grittner. By receiving the highest score on the Betty Crocker Homemaking Test, Linda has shown her ability as an outstanding homemaker. She will now enter state competition.

Worthy of a Girls State representative, Patricia Ishibashi has displayed qualities of an outstanding personality, scholastic interest and ability, leadership, and friendliness. The Girls State Convention also sets up a democratic government. Bette Stebbins and Margaret Douglas will attend the Girls County Conclave as representatives of Humboldt.

Richard Leider, Gerald Crane, and Leslie Lovett represented Humboldt at the Minnesota Mining sponsored "Engineer for a Day" program. The boys have shown high aptitude and interest in the engineering field.

The Thom McAn Leadership Award nominees were Thomas Hedlund and Ruth Matters. Both students have excellent scholastic and extra-curricular records. Tom and Ruth each wrote a theme on "Is a College Education Necessary for Leadership?" which was entered in the national scholarship program.

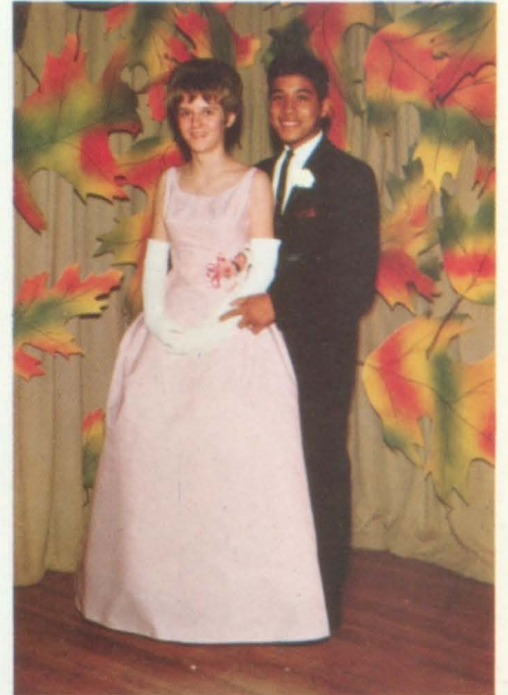

The coronation of the homecoming queen opened the festivities of Homecoming Week, October 15 - 18, 1963. Tension ran high through the auditorium adorned by "Autumn Leaves" as the candidates and their escort: Kris Armstrong and Walter Awada, Carol Brandt and Leslie Lovett, Sheila Cosgrove and Robby Romero, Diane Johnson and Leon Hushcha, Eileen Mademann and Tom Bitterman; and the entire student body anxiously awaited 1962 Queen Kathy Hottinger's selection of the new queen, Diane Johnson. Queen Diane reigned with beauty and graciousness.

The Indians "Sent Mechanic Arts Back in Parts" by a score of 34 to 12 during the football game Thursday night. The Homecoming parade, enlivened by an Indian mascot and the cheerleaders, provided half time entertainment. A spectacular performance by the marching band completed the half time activities.

In an aura of colorful "Autumn Leaves", Humboldt welcomed students, faculty and alumni to dance to the music of Sunny Ray Friday night to end the 1963 Homecoming on an exciting and successful note.

Homecoming Hi-Lites

"SNOW YOUR BEAU

Treasure finders Ned Rasmussen and Ross Johnson with richer smiles!

A blush from King Jim Boche!

Those sophomore girls can be rough!

Where did the ball go?

Pull harder, harder!

IN SIXTY-FO"

Cynthia Flynn and Douglas Munoz reigned as Princess Snowflake and Prince Frost.

The weather was so nice that some boys wanted to play baseball!!

Donna Zrust is a foot ahead in the foot races!

We want a goal, hey! We want a goal!

"ENCHANTED"

"Living is a dream, when you make it seem "Enchanted."
And "Enchanted" was the evening of May 29, 1963, the night of the Junior -Senior Prom. After Coketail parties, the thoughts of a starry evening, dancing to the music of Rod Aaberg, drew us to the North Star Ballroom. The Juniors provided an evening of misty memories for all.

Leading this year's band were Joel Matters as treasurer, Bonnie Allbee as secretary, Ruth Matters as president and Janice Fossum as vice-president.

A powerful pep-rouser at assemblies and sports events, our band again produced a yearful of enthusiasm and pride in Humboldt. Under Mr. Asenbrenner's direction, they accompanied us in cheers, performed on the field, marched in parades and entertained the student body at their annual Spring Concert and throughout the year.

Adding to the splendor of the band, were Humboldt's Indian maidens, the majorettes. Marching and twirling to the tunes of the pep and marching bands, the colorful majorettes worked together in perfect precision in many varied routines.

Boosting the school spirit with the band were the Humboldt majorettes: Rosie Meisel, Linda Anderson, Jackie Weber, Pat Pederson and Joyce Mademann.

Voices thrilling to the music of Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller", or the well-loved Christmas carols, or the traditionally bittersweet graduation songs were happily heard by an appreciative Humboldt audience. The chorus, under Mr. Korum's direction, works hard to create the tone and quality needed for their varied choral selections. The officers of the A-Chorus this year were: Leonard Sandstrom, president; Jennie Ringhand, vice-president; Cherry Worlie, secretary-treasurer.

The B Chorus is comprised of students beginning in chorus work. They learn fundamental choral arrangements and work toward more difficult pieces of music.

Girls Ensemble works on special arrangements to be presented with the A Chorus in the Christmas Pageant and other special programs. Meeting mornings before school, the girls learn from the new and varied choral selections.

Supporting the ARROW staff are the ARROW representatives, whose responsibility it is to sell subscriptions and distribute the paper to their homerooms.

Filling room 308 with copy, deadlines, dummies, proof, and galleys, the journalism staff puts out monthly editions of the ARROW. Although the main job of Journalism II and III is publishing the paper under the guidance of their advisor, Miss Steger, they still found time to sponsor two "hootenannies" and a large candy sale.

ARROW STAFF ROW 1: C. O'Donnell, R. Meisel, Miss Steger, advisor, D. Berthiaume, editor. ROW 2: S. Sulzer, B. Corby, E. Grinsteinner, G. Poech-

Representing the entire student body, Humboldt's Student Council sponsors many worthwhile services and school activities. Working together under Mr. Funk's diligent direction, they sponsored Homecoming, Sno-Day, the Thanksgiving drive and the clothing drive. The student council cooperates with the P.T.A. and the Lions Club to promote money-making projects for the benefit of the student body. This year the student council supported a drive for better facilities at Humboldt and began a program for a foreign exchange student.

Mr. Funk, advisor, sorts clothes collected from the January clothing drive.

Taking steps toward democracy are the following officers: Bette Stebbins, treasurer; Walter Awada, president; George Augst, vice-president; Kris Armstrong, secretary.

CO-OP WORKERS Row 1: J. Colburn, F. Engel, B. Abrahamson, E. Lynch, M. Orris, L. Schurhammer, M. McDonough, D. Varela, Mr. Aga. Row 2: D. Gonzalez, B. Eccles, W. Gerga, E. Wenner, R. Thompson, J. Contreras, B. Allbee, J. Salava, R. Contreras. Row 3: D. Cunningham, J. Krey, O.

Mortensen, J. Gieser, R. Pfluger, R. Gabbert, J. Francis, G. Burke. Row 4: M. Shearen, M. Moe, A. Moy, J. Sullivan, V. Rossen, A. Wenzel, J. Semo, C. Alich, J. Elmquist.

Proving the value of "experience" as a teaching instrument, the Co-op workers busily search out the business world assessing its values and restrictions. Each student is dismissed from classes at noon to go to his job. Members benefit from this opportunity, under Mr. Aga's direction, to gain first-hand knowledge of prospective careers.

Keeping the records of past and present graduates up to date is the job of the Historical Society. The club members, under the direction of Miss Kees, are responsible for keeping the bulletin boards supplied with current news of former Indians as well as completing a history of the Class of 1963. Officers: Becky Sauser, president; Bonnie Corby, vice-president; Kathy Malloy, secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY Row 1: J. Ringhand, Miss Kees, B. Corby, B. Sauser, K. Malloy, J. Moyer, D. Crawford. Row 2: P. Squire, K. Haugen, L. Deeb, B. Anderson, C. Burbach, K. Auge, P. Bruers. Row 3: J. Carlson, DEBATE TEAM: K. Mudek, G. Mandelbaum, G. Fox, J. Silvis.

Another team to bring victory to Humboldt, this time in the academic field, is the newly organized debate team. The four member team, under the direction of Mr. Robert Zeller of Augsburg College, entered state competition this year.

Working the lights and setting up the microphones, our experienced stage crew prepares the stage for many school functions. Directed by Mr. Anderson and Mr. Korum, they also work behind the scenes building and painting the sets and props for the thespian and music department productions.

Artists are usually thought of as long-haired, wild-eyed creatures who dream fantastic dreams and are unconcerned with the material world. Not so is Humboldt's Art Club under the direction of Mr. Rentz. Using their talents, the artists depicted typical school life scenes in dramatic murals. Ray Lucio was president and Wade Thompson, secretary.

ART CLUB ROW 1: W. Thompson, Mr. Rentz, R. Lucio. ROW 2: O. Cortez, K. Mudek, J. Lutz, E. Huovinen, M. Cortez, D. Beacom, V. Able. ROW 3: P. Peterson, M. Schweickert, L. Ritchie, R. Brandt, R. Lieders, M. Hrdlicka, R. Thompson.

THESPIANS ROW1: S. Stanek, S. Otto, P. Squire, C. Barbeck, P. Bruers, C. Quesada, K. Haugen, Mr. Thell. ROW 2: K. Auge, J. Leach, R. Kanavati, D. Schelberg, C. Brysky, K. Mudek, B. Corby, J. Augst. ROW 3: D.

On stage! -- Curtain up! -- Man the lights! -- As before you the Humboldt Thespians weave a world of magic, imagination and make-believe.

With much hard work, time, and valuable direction of their new advisor, Mr. Thell, the Thespians produced two plays this year: "Way, Way Down East", a one-act melodrama, and a three-act comedy, "January Thaw". Officers: Linda Lamb, president; Doreen Schelberg, vice-president; Kathy Auge, secretary; Joan Leach, treasurer.

Century-old customs, cultural arts, and the great literature of the Spanish-speaking peoples of the world, form a bridge of understanding for the Spanish Club members. Christmas time was celebrated with a fiesta in the traditional style featuring tacos and the inevitable "piniata". Club activities were limited this year because of the lack of membership. Officers: Linda Anderson, president; Jeanine Carlson, vice-president; Barbara Lunn, secretary; Shirley Odden, treasurer.

SPANISH CLUB ROW 1: J. Carlson, B. Lunn, Miss Steger, S. Odden, L. Anderson. ROW 2: S. Johnston, L. Howe, M. Geib, L. Grittner, A. Mays, J. Besaw, K. Mudek, L. Diaz.

Hedlund, D. Bronk, D. Anderson, B. McNary, D. Chapin, J. Boche, R. Campbell, W. Awada.

Toga clad, the members of the Latin Club under the direction of Mr. R. McDonough, highlighted their year's activities with a kick-off pow-wow and a Roman banquet.

The Latin Club, 70 members strong, is composed of students who are taking Latin and those who have completed two years.

Officers: James Boche, president; Gerald Crane, vice-president; Eileen Mademann, secretary; Carol Brandt, treasurer.

Y-Teens again sponsored a host of fun-packed activities for senior high school girls ranging from a fashion show to a hayride, from doughnut sales to Y-nights. With typical enthusiasm, the girls and their friends assembled at the "Horrible Hop" to romp amid the eerie atmosphere of a spooky movie. Officers: Kris Armstrong, president; Diane Johnson, vice-president; Mary Stevens, secretary; Jackie Weber, treasurer; Bette Stebbins, chaplain.

Personal satisfaction in serving their community has spurred Junior Red Cross members through a year of worthwhile projects and activities. In mid-January, their advisor, Mrs. Flower, left St. Paul, and Miss Philips, her successor, assumed this position. Their most successful and significant accomplishment of the year was completing the assemblage of a wooden chest filled with emergency materials, which will be sent to a disaster area. As in the past they have generously contributed time and energy in hospital programs, fund raising and city-wide projects. Officers: Barb Johnson, president; Jeanette Augst, vice-president; Carol Hozza, secretary; Pauline Squire, treasurer; Karn Haugen, program chairman.

Youngest of the organizations, FHA (Future Homemakers of America) members strive to prepare themselves for the domestic responsibilities they will soon have. Their first activity, a bazaar, proved to be even more successful than they had hoped. Next, the girls undertook the mending of the auditorium curtains with materials provided by the student council. Miss Wright and Miss Philips are their advisors. Officers: Linda Grittner, president; Kathy Auge, vice-president; Linda Kittleson, secretary; Margaret Schweickert, treasurer; Carol Barbeck, historian; Bette Stebbins, song leader.

Humboldt's prospective teachers get a taste of their future as members of the Future Teachers of America. They gain valuable experience by substituting in nearby elementary schools.

Under the direction of their new advisor, Mrs. Barron, the club highlighted the year's activities with field trips to St. Cloud State and the University of Minnesota. Officers: Bonnie Corby, president; Jan Besaw, vice-president; Kathy Malloy, secretary.

Filled with the spirit of '64, the Pep Club is one of the main driving forces behind our teams. Lending their voices in songs and cheers, waving their black and orange shakeroos wildly in the air, the Pep Club is a leader in school spirit and sportsmanship.

This year the Pep Club created a card section which added to both our Homecoming and Twin City football games. Officers: Linda Johnson, president; Ray Lucio, vice-president; Kris Armstrong, secretary.

The junior varsity teams had a larger cheering section this year, led by the newly reorganized "B" squad cheerleaders. The freshman and sophomore girls, under the direction of Miss Wright, made their own uniforms and worked together learning many new cheers. The girls elected Cherry Worlie and Sandy Staples as their co-captains. Cheering at every "B" squad football, basketball and hockey games, the girls helped to create a new interest in the junior varsity sports. The girls also assisted the Pep Club by ushering at football games.

22 - 46 - Hike!! No, it's not the football team. It's the girls from G.A.A. out at Mickelson field playing touch football. The Girls' Athletic Association, under the guidance of Mrs. Siegfried, also enjoys volleyball, softball, tennis, swimming and bowling. Awards are given at the end of each year to the girls who earn points by participating in the varied G.A.A. activities. Officers: Karn Haugen, president; Mary Jane Ferber, vice-president; Pat Bruers, secretary; Pauline Squire, treasurer.

The H-Club membership consists of boys who have earned a letter for their participation in one or more sports. To the H-Club goes the responsibility of setting the school's athletic code, encouraging good sportsmanship and sponsoring such activities as Parent's Night and the purchasing of letter sweaters, jackets and blazers. The annual banquet climaxes the year of activities for the H-Club. This year's officers were: Tom Bitterman, president; Jim Boche, vice-president; Robby Romero, secretary; Tom Eccles, treasurer.

Coach Funk

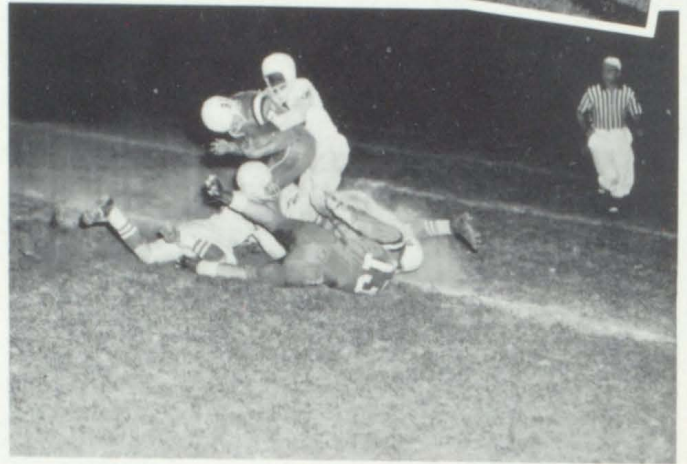

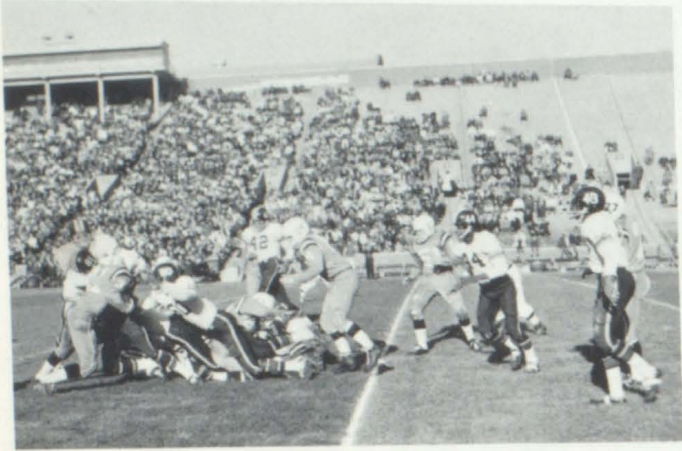

Mr. McDonough

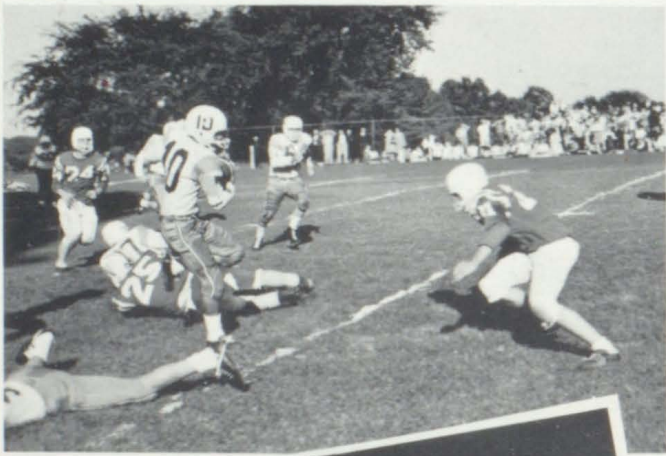

Coach Maurer

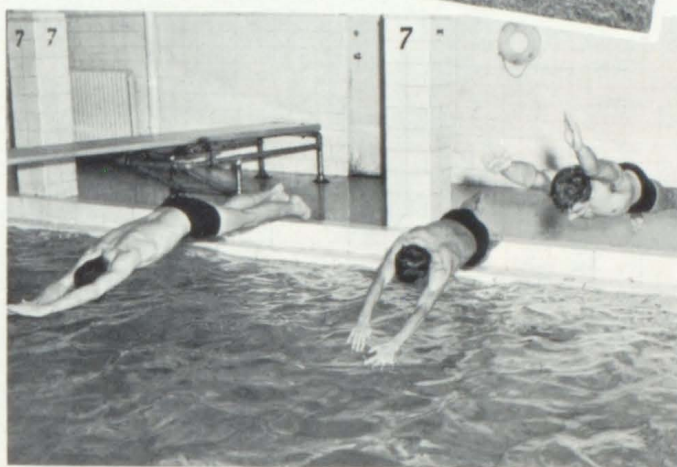

Undefeated and untied, our football team brought the City Conference Championship title back to Humboldt. Three co-captains Dennis McCarron, Leon Hushcha and Tom Bitterman under Coach Maurer's and Coach Funk's directives, led our "West Side Wonders" through such thrillers as the Central "five-seconds" victory, defeating Mechanic Arts in the double homecoming game and the title tussle against Monroe. Among their exciting games, was their nearly-won 26-28 game at Memorial Stadium against Minneapolis Central.

For the past twenty years, Mr. "Mac" McDonough has been Humboldt's Athletic Director. A Humboldt graduate himself, he was awarded a lettermen's blazer by the "H" Club three years ago. As a popular figure at pep assemblies, he has long endorsed sports attendance and encouraged ticket sales. With his brisk, Irish manner and warm, generous heart, he has become a living legend at Humboldt. Gratefully, we extend our thanks.

At the start of the season, the Dispatch writers recognized Humboldt as "one of the most dangerous teams looming on the horizon".

Basketball followers were treated to many exciting contests during the 1963-64 season. In total conference competition, the team achieved a record of thirteen wins and three losses, therefore placing them in a strong second in the City Conference.

Praise was given to forward Pat Kunz, who placed second in individual city conference scoring and gained a position on the All-City team. Named to the All-City second team were co-captains Tom Bitterman and Jim Boche, while Leon Hushcha and Dave Chapin received honorable mention.

"Finest and most co-operative group of boys I have ever worked with in all my seventeen years of coaching hockey," was Coach Funk's appraisal of the 1963-1964 Humboldt hockey squad.

The Indians placed sixth in the city conference standings and finished the season with an over-all record of 9 wins, 9 losses, and 3 ties.

Co-captains of this year's team were Walt Awada and Ron Gordon. All but eight graduating seniors will return to the twenty-two man squad next year. Ross Johnson, Jerry Crane, Walt Awada, Steve Troje, and Jim Kuitu received Honorable Mention awards on the All-City hockey team.

Chester Koury tallies up for a run for Humboldt.

Tying for city championship, Humboldt's 1963 baseball team completed a near perfect season. Under Mr. Maurer's coaching, they suffered only one conference loss.

Richard Mendez and Jim Boche led the batting attack with .360 and .340 averages. They were backed by a strong pitching and fielding staff. According to Mr. Maurer, their best game was the 4-0 victory over Central. This opponent later returned to steal a play-off game, 3-2.

Three Indians were chosen to fill All-City team positions, Jim Boche - third baseman, Richard Mendez - catcher, and Martin Mendez - pitcher.

Dick Mendez guards home plate.
