FACULTY ADVISERS
MRS. ALICE CAROLINE, Editorial
MISS ARLENE MENK, Business
MRS. GERALDINE RAYMOND, OH
Mr. E. E. Lenander, Principal

Mr. Lenander's calm dignity, kindly understanding, and quiet efficiency have won him the admiration and respect of both teachers and students of Humboldt High School.

The qualities of fair play and good sportsmanship, which he stressed as a coach, are still very much in evidence in Mr. Isacksen's administrative work.

FOOTBALL

Although they were victorious in only the first game of the season, members of the 1946 football squad displayed a gallant spirit. Even though the team was molded from only a handful of returning veterans, the boys faced heavier, more powerful, and more experienced teams with great courage and sportsmanship.
