To THINK of Humboldt is to think of a fabric composed of rich and varied strands. Scholarship, friendship, loyalty, and sportsmanship are among the threads woven into a conception of our school. The warp, however, which holds the design together is leadership, especially that offered by our teachers.

A genuine teacher is one who at once challenges and guides. She leads us with patience to new fields. She incites us to independent thinking and to a consciousness of the world in which we move. The influence of such a leader grows richer through the years.

To one who contains all these qualities in her own person, we students dedicate this book. Miss Ethel Graves is a living glowing symbol of such inspiring leadership.

MISS ETHEL GRAVES
We all admired Miss Margaret Heinemann. We liked her because she took such an interest in her pupils. She was ambitious for them. She wanted them to get something more than a credit from her classes. She wanted them to be honest, to understand the things she taught them. She wanted them to have a sense of fairness and of responsibility. That's why she insisted that everyone do his daily work.

Another thing—Miss Heinemann was true to the persons she called friends. She could not do too much for them. She wanted always to do more. A job put in her hands was a job well done—efficiently, thoroughly. Her standards were high and she wanted her students to adhere to those standards.

Miss Heinemann's room was among the most cheerful in the school. She had potted plants on the window sills and her floor was never cluttered with papers. Seated in her room, the pupil had a sense of pleasantness about him. The desks were a little cleaner; the books on the shelves a little neater; the plants a bit more prosperous than others in the school.

Now that she is gone, we miss her. We miss her high ideals, her honesty, her straightforwardness. Being her pupil was worth while. She has left behind her a record that is clear, definite, and admirable.

(Center of the Senior Universe)
Captained by Bill Anderson, Irene Fisher, Tom Kenney and Margaret Wood and inspired by Miss Doris Hadlich, the Junior Class climbed the heights this past year.

A series of roller-skating parties, dances, and ice-skating parties culminated in a most successful Sadie Hawkin’s Day, April 14. Short-skirted Daisy Maes pursued Humboldt’s brawny Li’l Abners in a merry chase as the girls took full advantage of the occasion. The full day celebration was followed in the evening by a dance in the gym.

As usual the high point of the junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom held June 2nd at the Lowry Hotel.
After School Activities...

Social poise . . . new interests . . . new friendships . . . these are only a few of the gains stimulated by Humboldt clubs.

OFFICE FORCE

BOWLING CLUB

G.A.A.

Hi-Y
OFFICE

"Humboldt High School . . . Mr. Rock? Yes, he is."
"Tom Brown? He is in English, 103, this period."
"Type that letter for you? Why, yes, certainly, Miss Hoffmann, right away!"

It goes on and on . . . all during the day. These girls in the office help keep the school running smoothly, run errands, type letters, write excuses and try in all ways to aid both teachers and students. To be eligible for office practice a student must be efficient, have a pleasing personality, and be able to take shorthand and to type.

BOWLING CLUB

"Strike!" yell the teams.

The ten points may have been made by Fern Sheppard, Audrey Hurley, Blanche Scherbel, or Delores O'Keefe . . . the club's four leading bowlers. The Bowling Club has four teams, each team having five regulars and five substitutes. After school every Friday the teams challenge each other to a game at St. Matthew's bowling alleys. Teams are rated according to the average of the games they win.

Club officers are Fern Sheppard, president; Blanche Scherbel, secretary; and Audrey Hurley, treasurer.

G.A.A.

One of the largest and most active groups at Humboldt is the Girls' Athletic Association. In this organization the girls may earn points toward their school letter, an old English "H". In addition there are many special activities planned by the girls such as hikes, horseback riding parties, and skating parties.

Two dances were sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association during the past year: the Sweater Dance in the fall and the Pre-Prom Hop in the spring.

For each sport in which a girl participates, she is allowed fifty points towards her letter. She is entitled to an "H" when she has 650 points to her credit. Plans are now being formulated for a girls' "H" club which will be organized by the girls receiving their "H" in June. Approximately twenty-five girls will receive their "H", and five, the "All City Letter" which requires 500 points after they have received their "H".

Hi-Y

After a year's absence from school activities the Hi-Y club was re-organized last winter. The Hi-Y, a junior branch of the Y.M.C.A., endeavors to better the school by arousing school spirit. With this in mind the club has supported double assemblies, extra school sports, and the "Foo to Foo" edition of the late Humboldt News.

To become a member, a boy must attend three consecutive meetings after having his name brought up by a present member. He must then be elected by a majority vote of the club.

Activities include such sports as roller-skating and horseback riding. Club officers are Bill Anderson, president; Bruce Fisher, vice-president; Charles Bergh, secretary; and Tom Bowen, treasurer.

Is Fun...

RED CROSS
Organized to render service, the Junior Red Cross has distributed Thanksgiving baskets, trimmed a children's Christmas tree at Ancker Hospital, delivered Christmas gifts at Fort Snelling, and filled bags of candy. A group of members performed in a radio program. In spring the Red Cross sponsored a membership drive, making $13.19. This money went to the American Red Cross.
Officers are president, Winifred Tucker; vice-president, Bruce Fisher; secretary, Mary Wood; and treasurer, Helen Kirmser. Each home room has a Red Cross representative.

LIFE STAFF
"Hurry with that story!"... "Why doesn't that copy get here!"... "Why doesn't that copy get here!"... And the Life Staff buckles down to work... writing stories, checking proof, planning the dummy, they rush back and forth. Ad solicitors check results. The circulation department keeps its records up to date. Yearbook sent to press... Miss Kees, we're going home!

FORUM
A club "by the students, for the students, and with the students". That is how the Forum has been described. This group, headed by Bob Ihrig, organized early this fall, with the aid of Mr. Roy Isacksen, Miss Esther Ostergren, Miss Minnie Hoffmann, and Mr. Walter Rock.
At the meetings held every two weeks, such subjects as state elections, school athletics, Philippine independence, or the legalization of slot machines are discussed.
Officers for the club are Bruce Fisher, president; Bill Anderson, vice-president; and Beryl Cary, secretary. Other members who have been active in leading the discussions are Bob Ihrig, Loren Furlong, John Gerberding, Mary Wood, Betty Jennings, and Shirley May Hage.

THETA SIGMA GAMMA
Thirteen friendly fun-loving girls brimming with school spirit compose the Theta Sigma Gamma.
The Theta Sigma Gamma conducts bi-weekly meetings at which they plan future social gatherings. They have had pow-wows, hikes, scavenger hunts, and horseback riding parties, also an initiation party, progressive dinner and a Corrigan hop.
Officers are Marion Hannegraf, president; Ruth Wagner, vice-president; Lorraine Suppon, secretary; and Norma Penschuck, treasurer.
NEZODS

GIRL RESERVES

TUSA TILLA
Let's Get Together...

NEZOD

Because Nezod is dozen spelled backward the membership of this club is limited to twelve girls. Unity and equality form their foremost creed. Their only officer is Treasurer Mary Jane McMonigal.

Each member is honored with a cake on her birthday. Other activities are pow-wows, sleigh-rides, costume parties and an annual spring progressive dinner. The season ends with a two-week stay at a summer lake resort.

ART CLUB

The Art Club was organized to give art students with at least a year's training opportunity to practice the type of work they cannot do during class. Membership is limited to ten, but if a student shows considerable interest and talent in art, there may be an exception. Meetings are held every Tuesday after school. The year closes with a sketch hike. Mr. Richard McKenney is adviser.

GIRL RESERVES

"Doughnuts! Doughnuts!"

Heard from near and far is this once-a-year cry of the Girl Reserves. Proceeds are used to send girls to Square Lake Camp and also to buy new camp equipment. At Thanksgiving and Christmas, another worthy project of the club is to help a needy family.

Besides taking part in these most important events of the year, the lively Junior Y. W. C. A. members find time for pow-wows, Halloween parties, skating parties, to go carolling, roller-skating and dancing. The girls hold their meetings every second and fourth Tuesday in the school building. Officers are Roberta Ressler, president; Mabel Sioff, vice-president; Edna Ruhnau, secretary; Laura McAndrews, treasurer; and Beryl Cary, Inter-club Council Member.

TUSA TILLA

They're just a cluster of roaming hearts or, in plain Indian, Tusa Tillas, who are ever ready for fun and frolic. This newest of all clubs at Humboldt was organized to encourage social activities and to promote school friendships.

Sleigh-rides, taffy-pulls, costume parties are but a few of the varied forms of entertainment which are sponsored by the club. The outstanding event of the year was a mother-daughter banquet given by the girls in honor of their mothers during the month of May.

Officers of the club are Fern Duncanson, president; Laura McAndrews, vice-president; Frances Bateman, secretary; and Audrey Hurley, treasurer.
Extra!!

When spring breezes tantalize, Dorothy Herzog takes to sketching. Craftsmen are artists. Miss Dodge, with benign eyes, observes her proteges. Of course, everyone knows them, but just in case... Gene Hauck, Dorothy Mickelsen, Dolores Wagner, Elaine Smith, and Evelyn Brown.

Remember Hick Day? Dick Brack always generous, is just about to give Maxine Wolf a great big treat... Writing is fun! While Bob Marsh reads his manuscript, the creative writing class munches and considers. Augusta Greenberg, Bill Everling, Betty Jennings, Dora Dunn, and Dorothy Larsen are the audience...

When two artists confer! William Sadowsky works on his mural while Viola Jacques takes time off from hers.
Extra!!

Award Day, with Mr. McMann recognizing Joe Stevens. Ray Pelton, Bill Miller watch that all goes well...Gaily stepping at the Junior-Senior...Bernice Cohen, Oliver Tankenoff, Jeanette Topel, George Bultman.

The light casts odd shadows at a Quill and Scroll initiation...Graduation, and Mr. Amidon holds forth...At the orientation assembly. She of the bold arms is Miss Robert Lyons. Blocked is Tom Bowen, Bill Anderson, as usual, is master of ceremonies, while "Sport" LeRoy Smith looks on with amusement.

GERMAN

LIBRARY

S.O.S.
Their Aims Are High...

TORCH AND CYCLE
A flaming torch and a brilliant cycle... the standards of the Torch and Cycle. This club, newly organized this year, was started for the two-fold purpose of increasing both the member's pleasure and his all-round development at school. All prospective members are selected on the basis of achievement in scholastics, athletics, leadership in class or extra-curricular activities, and personality. Officers are John Knox, president; Gene Hauck, vice-president; and Jerry Sweeney, secretary-treasurer.

GERMAN CLUB
The German Club is made up of the students who take German III to VI. Officers are John Gerberding, president; Bernice Rauschnot, secretary; and Robert Ihrig, treasurer. The purpose of the club is to give practice in the use of the German language. Meetings are held every two weeks on Friday. The dues collected are used for social activities and for the purchase of books or other necessities of the class. A committee selected for every meeting arranges a program of entertainment. These committees have given German plays and arranged for the playing of games and the singing of German songs. Every member is urged to take part in the programs.

LIBRARY STAFF
Rebinding, filing, checking... the Library Staff keeps as busy as the proverbial bees. Under the watchful eye of Miss Phyllis Bastin these girls and boys lend out books, bind torn covers or file new magazines. Co-operating with the students they give valuable aid by directing pupils to the correct references, explaining how to use catalogs, encyclopedias, or finding special magazine articles for them. In an effort to obtain extra money for new books the Library sponsored a Tag Day during the year. A special fund donated by the P.T.A. also added several new volumes to the Humboldt Library.

S.O.S.
Sharks of Shorthand... they are the members of the new S.O.S. club. Their main endeavor is to become more skilled in the commercial field and to develop in their members desirable personal qualities such as initiative, poise, confidence, and dependability. The S.O.S. club affords advantages both educational and social. Two of the social functions of the year were a Christmas party and a tea which was given for the senior girls by the Saint Paul College Club and at which a committee of S.O.S. girls acted as hostesses. Their meetings are held every third Tuesday of the month. Officers for the year were Mary Held, president; Genevieve Mencke, vice-president; Eileen Lutgens, secretary; and Mary Wood, treasurer.

QUILL AND SCROLL
"I do pledge myself, to do all in my power, to work for the advancement of my community, to be loyal to my superiors, to live up to the ideals of true journalism, and to be impartial in my interpretation of the truth." Such is the pledge which all members of the Quill and Scroll, honorary journalistic society, must take. This organization consists only of students who have done outstanding work in some phase of journalistic endeavor. They must also be in the upper third of their class. Active members are Robert Ihrig, Lorraine DeNardo, Bruce Fisher, Beverly Ellsworth, Robert Marsh, William Everling, Dorothea Van Zinderen, Dora Dunn, Lorraine Suppon, Marion Hannegraph, Viola Jacques, Lois LaFavor, Murel Faris.

The Humboldt Band composed of forty student musicians did much to arouse the school spirit at assemblies and football games during the fall. They also participated in the homecoming parade for the Saints, in the dedication of the Field House at Baker playground and in the School Police Picnic.

The Commodore Hotel was the setting for the band's annual formal dinner dance, given for band members and their friends.

The band is under the direction of Miss Celestine Burns, with Mr. Donald Ellery as business manager. Mr. McKay, assistant music director at the University Farm, was obtained to drill the band. Mr. William Fuhrmann was band director during the fall semester.

CHOIR
The Choir, consisting of sixty robed students and directed by Miss Celestine Burns, boasts of singing "out." During this past year, they performed twice over station WMIN; sang sacred music at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, St. John's Evangelical Church, and Augustana Lutheran Church; and harmonized at the Hamline Music Festival. At home the choir was envied for its beautiful interpretation of the Harvest Cantata, for singing carols in the halls and sacred songs at assemblies, as well as contributing to the Commencement program.

ORCHESTRA
The Orchestra, under the baton of Miss Celestine Burns, played entertaining selections during the annual play, the student-faculty play, and the Parent-Teacher meetings. The orchestra also played at assemblies, winning the applause of the students.

LITTLE THEATER GROUP
Here's a cue to the dramatic "goings-on" of the Little Theater Group. This organization, which holds meetings twice monthly, produces plays and radio skits. Among the productions of the year were "Charm School" and "It Takes Four Years." Club officers are Norma Penschuck, president; Helene Wolfe, secretary; and Irene Fisher, treasurer.
Curtain Please!

Life appears to end—not begin—as Charles Peluso turns the tables on Donna Schlakeber, Jerome Kluck, Howard Mende, and Roger Bentfield. Ted Mosio struts his stuff at an assembly.

Principal Jerry Sweeney makes sweet Beryl Cary cry... Jim Kuhns tries to talk himself out of a tough spot while Roger Bentfield, Virginia Povey, Gladys Peterson, and Irene Fisher look on.

Jerry Sweeney demonstrates his technique with Maxine Wolf... nice? Betty Lens, Irene Fisher, and Lorraine Mademann paint scenery for "Charm School"—nice job girls! How good it was!

Mr. Fuhrmann leading us all... tra la... Beverly Ellsworth, Lorraine DeNardo giving Charles Peluso the once-over on Hick Day... The choir carols its sweetest on Christmas.
A healthy, well-trained body is the aim of the Humboldt athletic department. To that end, gymnasium and intra-mural and inter-school sports all contribute.

Athlete of the Year

JOHN KNOX
A tough one to lose; Portnoy in the City Meet ... Elaine and Bev do a bit of shuffling ... Up, up—up—and over; Morrill clears the bar at ten feet.

Four tumblers in an original act. We like that form. Zounds! ... Roy shows the boys how to leap twenty feet and rings up another five points for the track team ... The boys do a bit of splashing—and scratching—in a water polo game at the Y.

Somebody fumbled. Who's got it now? ... Humboldt cagers hit a snag, South St. Paul's tight defense ... Runge scores again.
Boys! Boys! This is basketball... The faculty trims the varsity again, but with men like Mr. John Ryan, it is no wonder... Humboldt's hockey team in action in the Auditorium.

A fight for the rebound beneath the Johnson basket... Ballet dancer Galgan at work. My, such grace!

Kessel cuts back to pick up an extra five yards against the Faribault Falcons... Cordes shows how the city hurdling crown is won. He should know!... Les pauses for the camera a moment before going back to the bone-crushing business.
Encountering one bad break after another, the 1938 Indian football team dropped five out of their seven games, tying the other two, to end their season at the foot of the conference. They opened the season with what was acclaimed as one of the best backfield combinations in the city, but a knee injury to the triple-threat man, Dick Cordes, soon necessitated costly shifts.

Injury-riddled as they were, Humboldt was at no time trailing by more than seven points in conference competition and lost no game by more than that margin. It was the inspiring play of Captain Johnny Knox, All-City halfback, and the entire Indian squad that kept them in the running at all times. Gene Hauck and Henry Weber were elected to captain the 1939 team.
Basketball Team

Bucket Brigade...

The '38-'39 Indian cage squad gave the crowds some of their most tense and thrilling games, although they were victors in few. With flashes of exceptional shooting, floor play, and defensive work, they at times looked like championship material, but in conference play they were able to salvage but four of their ten games.

Captained by Jadwin Asfeld, the Humboldt five lost a couple of tough games in overtime, but displayed indomitable spirit in fighting back against great odds. To Coach Isacksen, credit for the team’s comeback is due. The ball-handling and all-around play of Galgan, Hauck, Booher, Kessel, and Cooper was the nucleus around which the squad functioned. Early in the season the squad took the road, dropping a game at Cloquet, winning at Aitkin.

Champions Again—Almost...

Faced with the task of presenting a hockey team comparable to the Twin City Champions of 1937–38, Coach Len Tracy set out to build a team around his two returning lettermen. In spite of adverse weather conditions throughout the season, his team turned in an account of eleven wins, three losses, and one tie. Captained by Elmer Monge, who was honored by a left wing position on the mythical All-City team, the Indian sextet dropped decisions to but two teams, Washington and Johnson.

In their list of wins was included 3-1 overtime victory over West High of Minneapolis in the playoff game for second place in inter-city competition. This game was featured by desperate skating and terrific body checking throughout the entire regular game and overtime period, in a style typical of the Humboldt skaters. The entire squad gave everything they had in a futile attempt to push the Humboldt six into their second consecutive championship, but their efforts fell a bit short and they had to be content with second place.

Mudders...

"Meet Cancelled! Rain!" "Meet Postponed! Rain!" Four letters give a graphic account of the '38 track season. R-A-I-N! The cinder men practiced in it. The North Branch meet was called off because of rain. The Mechanics meet was run on a muddy track; the Central meet, in a driving rain; and the Cretin meet on a track submerged at both turns. In dual and triangular meets, they were victors in three of the six.

Consistent point-winners throughout the season proved their worth in the City meet, Dick Cordes taking first in both low and high hurdles. Others to ring up points in this annual classic were Morrill, Smith, Grieder, Portnoy, and Sheppard.

Sluggers All...

Playing a determined game of baseball, the Humboldt nine experienced a season of intermingled disappointments and thrills. Sore arms bogged the pitching staff's mainstays, and eligibility rules cut the efficiency of what promised to be an exceptionally fine team. Practicing and playing on rain-sodden fields, the boys came along slowly and reached their peak late in the season.

They climaxed the campaign with a 3-2 victory over the championship contending Washington team, a game featured by air-tight pitching on the part of Johnny Anderson and Johnny Zimmel. Boasting a slim one-run lead, the Humboldt team, to win, had to beat back an inspired ninth-inning rally on the part of the Rice Street Gang. The Indians won but two conference games, the first and the last, but await a more promising season in '39.

Track Team

Presenting a routine displaying exceptional agility and well-timed coordination, the tumbling team, composed of both boys and girls, was in great demand for exhibitions in public. With determined efforts they mastered such difficult maneuvers as the front flip, the lifts, Arabians, and extensions on the mats, and on the bars, the swinging double cut-off, the kip, and others, equally intricate and perplexing. It took countless hours of practice on the part of the tumblers, and the ever-patient tutoring of Mr. Clair McMann, to perfect such a commendable routine. Throughout the city, the team was praised for its skill.

Rifle Club...

Shooting at fifty feet with heavy twenty-two caliber rifles furnished by the Como range or the National Rifle Association, the rifle team has had meets with various high schools throughout the city. Ten members of the club are on the team. "H's" are given to the five highest shooters.
Mermen...

With six lettermen returning, the Humboldt swimming team opened the season with a fairly optimistic outlook. With LeRoy Smith captaining the team, they fought for the meets and water polo games they won, and they never quit fighting in those they lost. It was this irrepressible spirit that racked up the points that meant meets. The school gave little or no attention or credit to these boys, yet they faithfully trained, and tenaciously swam in competitions. It was a battle throughout the season for top point honors, between Mason and Smith, who placed third in both 50 and 100-yard free style events in the city meet. But important as these men were, they weren't the only ones to ring up points. It was the firsts, seconds, and thirds captured by Fisher, Whitbeck, Lyons, Lofquist, Day, Broderson, and Bowen that proved to be indispensable for the success of the team.
