Foreword

Every day of our lives there come to us the wishing moments—times when wherever we are, or whatever we are doing, we wish we could return to the happy times experienced in the past. Hence, within these pages we record our foremost high school activities with the thought that during our wishing moments we may recall more vividly the disappointments and joys experienced in the classroom and in extra-curricular activities.
"In sunshine or stormy weather,
you'll never die.
You'll always be dear to me.
My old Humboldt High."

LOUISE FRIEDA WEBER . . . "My own thoughts are my own companions."
MARSHALL WEBER . . . "Bold, witty, and likable."

PHYLLIS JEAN WULFING . . . "Merrily, merrily, shall I live now."
Two years! What a lifetime that seemed in the fall of '36. We were juniors. We smiled at the vagaries of sophs, we swaggered, and with Miss Hadlich as guide, we organized. For we had responsibilities. We had to give a Dance. Our officers would be prom leaders. We must choose carefully. And so we chose Joe Guertin, president, Ray Pelton, Harold Haas, and Rose Zucker. We danced, we roller-skated, we sold pennants and candy. At last with May came the Junior-Senior. Skirts fluttered and creamy trousers glided over the Midway Club floor. We were hosts to the mighty seniors.

Senior year! We are now the mighty! We must pose for pictures, order announcements, plan a yearbook. Joe pilots us again with Harold, Rose, and Donna Schlukebier as assistants. Ahead of us lies June and Commencement, a culmination and a beginning. Two years! How short they can be!
"A group outstanding for its initiative and the qualities of leadership it has displayed," says Mr. Wauchope of the class of 1938. "I shall remember it as a group in which many individuals proved their worth by their accomplishments."

Joseph A. Wauchope

"A principal outstanding for his insight into our problems and his desire to help us with them," answer this year's graduates. "He has been our friend and adviser. More than that, he has a knowledge of the principles of education and takes heed of the demands which a changing civilization is making upon our schools."
In her Perfect Study Hall Miss Bigue proves she can do two things at once. Miss Repik, in working garb, perfects her stage with her last touch. Card Day! At the close of each term, the teachers gather for one day to complete official records. Presenting Miss Hoffman, Mrs. Larsen, Mr. Jarvis, and Mr. Sanders.

Well, well, that IS a problem. But Mr. Bond's mathematics mind can solve it. Always helpful, always kind—our Miss Whaley, with Fred Silver hanging on every word. Sparkling and original, Mrs. Graves makes her English classes a delight.

Mr. McKenna paces by Mrs. Adams' desk to discuss some problem of the athletic department. Those hieroglyphs? Shorthand, my dear. After Mrs. Ryan's training, her shorthand pupils are a credit to Humboldt.

Mrs. Samson, Miss Iddings, and Miss Foerster chat for a brief moment in the teachers' rest room. Conscientious Miss Geraghty and Mr. Ranstad, famed for pricking an idle mind into activity, at work. Mr. McKenny wrestles with a problem.
Map study is an important part of American history. Our guess is that Miss Ostergren is discussing "Seward's Folly." ... When two accountants like Mr. Blankenbiller and Mr. Ryan get together do they talk of trial balances—or fishing?

Mr. Powles clears away the mystery of chemical reactions. Chemistry is the basis of modern industry industrialists say . . . Presenting Mr. Rock, always patient, always ready to hear both sides.

School's out. Miss Sherman and Mrs. Davidson are oh, so sorry . . . Mr. Peterson facing his class instructs them in the intricacies of machinery.

Lucille Dollinger, Alice Reed, and Virginia Peterson, our trio of songbirds. They’re radio bound . . . Girls invaded the woodshop this year. Bernice and Lucille will be mighty handy to have around the house.

Miss Kees is “regusted.” And Lorraine, Joe, and Tom enjoy the joke . . . “Always have everything in readiness before you start the bath.” Girls in hygiene classes learn just how to handle those delicate objects called “babies.”

“Round and round we go.” Humboldt News chooses the coldest night of the year to give a roller-skating party . . . Oh, Doctor. Be careful! Wholesale vaccinations. How did yours look?
"We pledge allegiance to our flag." Memorial Day services... A May day, and the bridal wreaths are glorious. We shall never forget that hedge around school.

"Won't you sign my book too?" Writer's cramp is close behind the appearance of the yearbook... Over the top! Athletic meet at Macalester.

Girls in pastel frocks, boys in white trousers and dark coats. Commencement night. Smiles and congratulations... Soft lights and music—the 1937 Junior-Senior dance.
Humboldt High School has always been a leader in sportsmanship, school spirit, and achievements in both the classroom and extracurricular activities. This year has been especially noteworthy for its forward-looking and energetic spirit. Accomplishments which deserve front-page publicity abound. Here are some of them:

A guidance program is established to aid students in their school work and in their choice of vocation.

The necessity for cutting down the accident death toll is recognized in the course, "Safety Education," taught in conjunction with civics.

The dramatic department presents two plays instead of the usual one.

Dora Dunn wins third prize in the St. Paul Division of the "Insurance Essay Contest."

Humboldt News is given an "Excellent" rating by both the National Scholastic Association and Quill and Scroll.

Boys for the first time exercise in gym suits and use Baker playground for their classes.

Humboldt's band wins the Junior Chamber of Commerce trophy for the best marching and playing in the city.

The dramatic department purchases a public address system.

Ping pong and golf are innovations in the boys' gym classes.

Humboldt's choir, rated one of the best in the city, is invited to augment the Hamline choir in an evening concert.

A Quill and Scroll chapter for students outstanding in scholarship and journalism is established with seven charter members.

Humboldt changes to six hour-periods a day, the only high school in the city to do so.

Winifred Tucker represents St. Paul, South St. Paul, and Rural Ramsey County at the National Red Cross Convention in San Francisco.

An all-girl drum corps is organized for the first time.

The hockey team wins the Twin City championship.
Christmas carols—
One of the best-loved traditions of Humboldt

Organization of the Year
Juniors

Over three hundred strong, the junior class has shown itself a group of energetic students, capable of facing problems and solving them. Their major function of the year is the giving of the Junior-Senior dance.

Dances to provide social activity and to raise money were their chief activity. At sunlight dances boys and girls were encouraged to learn to dance. For the Hayseed Dance May 13, guests put aside conventional attire and donned their oldest clothes. Square and circle dances were interposed between more modern tunes.

The Junior Prom was given at the Midway Club May 27. On the committee selecting the place were Nathalie Mohrlant, Charles Bergh, Bruce Fisher, Elsie Steenberg, James McKenna, Norma Penschuck, and Betty Lenk. Those selecting the orchestra were Stella Birch, John Knox, Dale Van De Walker, Shirley Dordell, Catherine Grosberg, Rodney Stassen, Marjorie Hickey. Philip Cowley had charge of the program, assisted by Gladys Chase, Betty Casey, Louis Le May, Mike Galgan, Mary Wood, and Lorraine Arth. Janet Altstatt, with Lorraine Mademann, Cleo Sorenson, Helen Wolf, Beryl Cary, and Marcie Spector had charge of invitations.

Honor roll leaders were Beryl Cary, Bruce Fisher, Shirley Mae Hage, Lorraine Laatsch, Virginia Povey, Roberta Ressler, Marjorie Slater, Robert Ihrig, and Maxine Wolf.

Stella Birch, Beverly Ellsworth, Lorraine De Nardo, Lucille Embretson, and Catherine Grosberg had charge of the candy sales at the plays.

SECOND ROW: Elaine McKenney, Bernice Rauschm, Evelyn Dahm, Harriet Bahner.

Little Theatre Group

THE CLASS OF 1940 . . . Members of the sophomore class feel that education is capital and that by investing it wisely they may become factors in the school's progress. They seek to be good citizens, to join the ranks of real workers on the field of action. They desire to be students upright in character, healthy of body, and trained of mind. Officers are James Mickelson, Eugene Hauck, and Margaret Wood. The presence of so many sophomores on the honor roll shows that they really think of school as a place to learn. Consistent honor roll leaders are Dorothy Van Zinderen, Edith Cooperman, Arline Diehl, Virginia Grittner, Lorraine Hausser, Howard Olson, Lena Ricke, Adeline Limor, and Phyllis Frame. DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN . . . To learn to speak and understand the German language better, Der Deutsche Verein conducts its semi-monthly meetings entirely in German. A member is penalized one penny if he lapses into English. Officers are Dorothy Vallant, Norma Penschuck, and Mary Wood. Bernice Rauschnatt, Harriet Bahner, Mildred Remackel, and Dean Stoven are in charge of the entertainment for each meeting, part of which consists of singing German folk songs. Elaine McKenny is critic. THE LITTLE THEATER GROUP . . . The sole purpose of the Little Theater Group is to encourage students with theatrical ability to perform in plays or skits. At its initial meeting in February, Norma Penschuck, Donna Schluckebier, Fern Frame, Irene Fisher, and Howard Mende were chosen officers. Profits from a sunlight dance in April were given to assist paying for the public address system. On April 19 a pantomime was given for Open House entitled "The Duchess Bounces In." Those participating were Harriet Weideman, Laura May Kesting, Gordon Smith, Jerome Kluck, Roger Bentfield, Howard Mende, Tom Bowen, Harold Fox, James Kuhns, and James Nielsen. The club's final production was "Life Begins at Sixteen," a three-act comedy presented May 20.
Office Force

SECOND ROW: Bernice Kulenkamp, Loretta Kennedy, Myrtle Wilcox, Elaine Sockness, Nathalie Mohrman, Phyllis Linnell, Mary Kopp.

FIFTH ROW: Mr. Wouchope, Sarah Thomas, Marcella Biel, Adella Klayman, Evelyn Whaley, Celestine Kessler, Mr. Rock.

Girl Reserves

FIRST ROW: N. Penschuck, L. Licha, M. Hughes, E. Whaley, Miss Blanche Bigus, A. Kuhn, E. Phuman, L. McAndrews.

Girls' Athletic Association

THE OFFICE FORCE . . . Can an office exist without an office force? Office girls receive messages correctly and then deliver them. They must see that all notices are signed. Besides answering the telephones, delivering messages, and taking around notices, the girls must deliver all mail, run errands, cut stencils, and run the mimeograph machine. Purchase orders are written and requisitions are typed. To serve in the office a girl must be able to type and take shorthand, have a C average, a pleasing personality, and the habit of promptness.

GIRL RESERVES . . . "Gracious in manner, impartial in judgment, ready for service and loyal to friends, reaching toward the best, eager for knowledge, seeing the beautiful, earnest in purpose, reverent to God, victorious over self, sincere at all times." This is the goal of Girl Reserves. Outstanding activities were a Y. W. C. A. ceremonial, the Twin City conference, ushering at school plays, The Fairy Book Ball, hobo hike, graduates' party, caroling at the West Side General Hospital, a party for Neighborhood House children, Thanksgiving favors for Ancker Hospital patients, and May day favors for teachers. Two outstanding projects were a doughnut sale and card party to raise funds to be used for camp equipment and girls' camp fees.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION . . . The G. A. A. is a national organization for the promotion of girls' athletics in high schools and colleges. Each city has its own point system through which girls may earn athletic letters. Humboldt, using the all-city point system, awards a girl a school letter for earning 750 points and an all-city letter for 500 additional points. In addition to working after school G. A. A. girls may exercise each Thursday in the gym during the regular gym periods. Besides such seasonal sports as soccer, volleyball, basketball, and baseball, the G. A. A. also includes archery, badminton, ping pong, and shuffleboard. A girl may earn points in such outside activities as hiking, skating, skiing, dancing, horseback riding, tennis, and golf.
Pep Club

Bowling Club

Rifle Club

THIRD ROW: R. Brack, W. Everling, M. Boarher, E. Whaley, Miss Tierney, D. O'Keefe.
PEP CLUB . . . Rah! Rah! Rah! Sis, boom, bah! Twenty-three girls brimming over with those three v’s, vim, vigor, and vitality, went to all the football games and yelled themselves hoarse. The club was formed to aid cheer leaders at games, to sell tickets for athletic meets, and to have a good time. Their pennant was won by selling the most tickets to the faculty-varsity basketball game. Officers are Bernice Ziton, president; Phyllis Linnell, secretary; Florence Strauss, treasurer; Mr. McMann, adviser.

BOWLING CLUB . . . "Put ‘em up!" "Down on two!" Girls’ shrieks and a thunder such as Rip Van Winkle heard enliven St. Mathew’s bowling alleys on Friday afternoons. The girls’ bowling league is divided into four teams each having its own backers and captain. Mildred Mickelsen is president and publicity agent; Eileen Hurley, treasurer; and Blanche Scherbel secretary. Mrs. Larsen is adviser. Virginia Fyhrie was undoubtedly the best girl bowler in the league. Fern Sheppard, a newcomer, showed the most improvement. This year’s league champs were the Hurley and Hindman (Phillip’s 66) team, which was under the captainship of Eileen Hurley. The three other captains were Eileen Leger, Peggy Hurley, and Blanche Scherbel.

RIFLE CLUB . . . The Rifle Club exists for those interested in shooting. It is led by Margaret Booher, president; William Everly, vice-president; and Evelyn Whaley, treasurer. The St. Paul Rifle Club gives students of public high schools the privilege of using their guns and the Como Rifle Range without charge. The only cost is the ammunition and transportation to the range. About thirty students at Humboldt availed themselves of this privilege during the year.

When Friends Meet

THETA SIGMA GAMMA . . . Chattering voices stop as President Gladys Peterson calls the weekly meeting of the Theta Sigma Gammas to order. Members are unanimously selected each year as the old members graduate from school. Dues of five cents a week are later used to rent a lake cottage for a week. The main event of the year was an informal dance held for all members and alumnae of the organization at the Daytons Bluff Commercial Club. Additional activities were scavenger hunts, pow-wows, hikes, roller skating, theater, holiday and initiation parties. Other officers are Mary Ellen Hughes, vice-president; Frances Kennedy, secretary; and Phyllis Linnell, treasurer.

GOTTA TAPPA CLUB . . . The Gotta Tappa Club was organized last year by a group of boys to promote good feeling among themselves and their associates. They held a roller skating party this spring.

NEZODS . . . The Nezods, a purely social club, derives its name from “dozen” spelled backward. Activities include steak fries, sleigh rides, pow-wows, progressive parties, and scavenger hunts. Their most looked-for event is a week’s stay at White Bear during the summer.

LIBRARY . . . The library, under the direction of Miss Phyllis Bastin, is the center or heart of the school. Its chief aim is to be of service to all school departments and to cooperate with them to its fullest extent. Library work includes not only all the details of circulation, but book mending, filing of pamphlets and papers and the making of circulation and achievement charts. The last is a record of students’ work in the library and shows its variety. Another service is that of cataloging and mending book collections, which have been bought by various classes and are kept in their respective rooms.
HUMBOLDT LIFE . . . Determined to make the 1938 yearbook a true record of the activities of the school, the yearbook staff spent many hours working at the engravers, identifying pictures, mounting snapshots, writing material, securing ads and planning circulation drives. They learned through trial and error that a yearbook does not just grow but that every detail must be carefully planned.

HUMBOLDT NEWS . . . The aim of any school paper is not only to supply the school with news, but to encourage by publicity worthwhile achievements. So it is with Humboldt News. It has been rated either All-American or First Class during the five years of its existence. Besides publishing a bi-weekly newspaper, the staff sent representatives to the Minnesota Press Convention, edited a surprise April Fool edition, supplied news to city papers, promoted an interest in school problems, and started a chapter of Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists. The staff has not only full charge of the editorial department of the newspaper but handles all the problems of advertising, circulation, and collections. The paper is now under the leadership of Mildred Mickelsen, assisted by an efficient staff.

"Our colors in triumph flashing." The band parades at Rochester...Gladys Peterson and Caryl Handschin add a feminine touch to a stage setting...Gipsy Philip Shields attains fame and fortune.

Mary Jane McMonigal struts and twirls for old Humboldt...Charles Peluso, alias Benito, gives a toast to Gabrielle..."Life is made for jollity, frivolity"...From his band-master's platform in the cottage Mr. Fuhrmann explains the phrasing of a difficult passage.

Reunion in Naples for Guido and Gabrielle, Laura Wolters...Still at Rochester. Town folk applauded, and school officials later sent a letter of praise for both school and band.
"You don't have to go to Naples," say Gordon Kogl and Charles Sersen, mounting the background. Ed Van Zinderen and Ed Mohrlant work as "grunts"... "Where are those jewels, Miss?" snarls Bob Anderson of Norma Penschuck in "Tiger House"... "Lights," and Hugh Salmon and George Erickson come through.

Part of the banner for the Humboldt News show... Oh! Pardon us. Norma Penschuck and Bill Lancette in a tender scene... Bill Berger follows the script... Laura Wolters, prima donna in "The Singer of Naples."

"May we serve you, sir?" chant the butlers, Jim, Doug, Pete, and Bob... Yami, alias Howard Mende, enters suddenly and surprises Dick Lewis... "Well, what do you think?" A candid shot of Miss Burns at rehearsal.
Music

Music including instrumentation and singing is one of the best developed subjects at Humboldt. The choir gave six radio broadcasts, sang at numerous meetings and conventions and gave an operetta. All of their singing is praised for its beauty. The fine orchestra is always popular and generous with its music.

The fifty piece band under the supervision of Mr. Fuhrman on many occasions has added to the enjoyment of huge crowds at such places as the Shrine Circus, Winter Sports Carnival, Police Picnic, Open Air Concert, games, assemblies, and broadcasts.

Indian gridiron men this year admit they had an exciting season and acquired needed experience even though they did not win many games. The past season tried the courage and grit of every inch of the players and they responded! They lugged the pigskin through the toughest of defenses to win three games out of seven. The Humboldt men did surprisingly well against even the more superior opponents. Bad luck took its toll, especially in the Washington game. Humboldt fans well recall that struggle as the game in which one of the most efficient Indian players, Harry Gaston, was seriously injured. To Coach McMann goes the credit for building a team whose courage and morale were unquestioned.
The famous "Never Say Die" spirit of Humboldt was exhibited in the performances of the basketball team this season. Only two lettermen presented themselves to Coach Isacksen when practice opened. The newspapers pulled long faces. A series of games was lost; yet the boys played each game with the vigor and courage of a championship team. The Indians were led by Captain Marvin Cooper, who was also selected on the All-City team by the Daily News. During Christmas vacation the team went on the road and played Appleton, Dawson, and Madison.

Champions! With that title the '37-'38 hockey team is decorated. Under the able coaching of Len Tracy, the boys won not only the St. Paul title, but went on to add the Twin City title to their string of victories. This game was decided in an over-time period. The Marshall-Humboldt game was the closest fought prep contest in many years. Captain Bob Meyers was chosen unanimously for the mythical all-city team. Joe Guertin was given a berth on the second team. Elmer Monge will pilot the '38-'39 pucksters. The H club recognized the team with gold medals at the hockey banquet in the school cafeteria April 21.

Although the Indian tank men ended in fifth place, they had one of the most aggressive teams in the league. Bob Mason was high man, leading with 45 points; closely following was LeRoy Smith who had 41 points. These two boys also placed for the Indians in individual competition, Mason taking fourth in the 50-yard free style, and Smith fifth place in the city meet.

In water polo, Frank Mondike, Le Roy Smith and Bob Hanrahan made the goals and Frank Evans defended the home goal. Humboldt can indeed be proud of its eight lettermen: Mason, Smith, Hanrahan, Evans, Day, Fisher, Broderson, and Mondike.

Tumbling Team

Tumbling barrels . . . Sheppard and Mac a la flip . . . High voltage.

TUMBLING TEAM . . . Boasting one of the best teams in the city, the tumblers were called upon for many public exhibitions this year. Bob Sheppard captained the team. New routines were added to the schedule, and difficult stunts mastered.

BASEBALL . . . Spring and baseball are synonymous. The Humboldt baseball team got off to a good start by defeating Johnson in the first game of the season. The pitching staff, Anderson and Zimmel, showed a power which forecast victories. Players are Anderson, Kiley, Knox, Steibling, Haas, Guertin, Reich, Thomas, Nicolychik, Zimmel, Feit, Kurtz, Kaschcke, Runge, Smith, Hanrahan, Stensrud, Thorson, Sperr, Davis, and Rongitsch.
Track Team
SECOND ROW: F. Evans, B. Mason, R. Grieder, Coach McMann, C. Bergh, G. Smith, J. Portnoy.

Speed

TRACK . . . With flashes of speed and color, the ’38 cinder team inaugurated the season when they met at the Metropolitan meet. Jerry Portnoy, half-miler, and Dick Cordes, who placed in every meet in the high and low hurdles last season, were captains. Other point-getters were Vickers, high and low hurdles; Grieder and Evans, 100 and 220 dash; Gordon Smith, high and broad jump; Johnson, Morrill, Smith, and Sheppard, pole vaulters.

TENNIS . . . In tennis, as in every sport, Humboldt played hard and fought well. Tom Conrady captained last season’s team and Merle Bloomdahl and Bob Berg played second and third man. Howard Mason and George Heuer were the first doubles team. Clarence Lang, Robert Lyons, and Roger Bentfield were additional members. Mr. Sanders was coach.
