IN MEMORIAM

MISS MARY GILMORE FANNING

A loyal friend to everyone. Loved and remembered for her motherly advice and courageous counsels. A definite personality which was very much a part of our school. Her love for flowers, her buoyancy of spirit, and her lively interests in the students' welfare, both in and out of the classroom, will always be remembered. Our only regret is that future classes will never have the opportunity of knowing her.

DEDICATION

MISS FRANCES L. ARMSTRONG

The class of 1936 expresses its appreciation to you, Miss Armstrong, for your unerring guidance during our entire high school career. Many times when our hopes had failed, your helpfulness and encouragement carried us through our difficulties. Your unhesitating friendship and bright smile have cast a ray of sunshine to all who came in contact with you. We feel greatly honored in dedicating this book to you.

FOREWORD

In future years, may the contents of this volume bring old and cherished memories of the days gone by, during which we were kept together by a strong bond of friendship and the deep enjoyment of our participation in clubs, sports, and all the other school activities; may this record serve to keep alive these thoughts that are now held uppermost in our minds.

Editor-in-Chief

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Joseph A. Wauchope, as principal of Humboldt High School, assisted by a faculty of thirty-four, Mr. Walter J. Rock, Miss Mary W. How, and Miss Phyllis Bastin, is this year guiding 938 students through the various stages of their high school careers.

Every new student on entering school is assigned to a home room under the supervision of a faculty member. Each home room adviser counsels with his students and helps each one to choose the subjects and course best suited to his present needs and his future plans.

College Preparatory, Commercial, and General are the three main courses offered at Humboldt, under one of which each student is classified. Every course is arranged for one particular purpose—to fit every student for life.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Wauchope:

Encouraged by your kind attitude, another class of students regrets leaving this school, acknowledging its indebtedness to you, its chief and leader. With an eye forever to the future and a regard for all educational improvements, you were ever thoughtful of us all. For your generosity, your consideration, and your good-fellowship, we thank you.

THE FACULTY

Students attending Humboldt have the advantage of many subjects from which to choose and a well-trained faculty to teach those subjects.

The art department offers classes in crafts, sketch, design, and commercial art. The choir, band, and orchestra are representative of the fine work being done in the music department. Students also have the unusual opportunity of a voice training class.

Students in journalism classes get first-hand experience by editing the "Humboldt News." In English, students study not only the development of literature, but also what good English is, and how to use it. Expression offers an opportunity to develop poise, to speak intelligently before a group, and to participate in dramatics.

Gregg shorthand, touch typewriting, bookkeeping, and commercial law are some of the subjects offered in the commercial department to prepare students for positions in offices.

Students interested in science have the advantage of well-equipped laboratories and diversified subjects from which to choose. Plane and solid geometry, algebra and higher algebra are offered to students of mathematics. Studying masterpieces of ancient literature in Latin, and learning to converse and read intelligently in French and German are among the fine opportunities offered in the languages.

The history of our own country, Europe, and England are studied in the several history classes, which in addition to the many social sciences form an important part of our curriculum. In civics, students are acquainted with the workings of local, state, and national governments, and their places in those units as citizens.

Physical training for health and recreation is given in gym work.

And for boys interested in working with their hands, complete courses in wood shop, machine shop, and stage craft are offered.

Sorting mail, running errands, typing tests, writing letters, answering telephones, keeping records of students' programs, filing excuses, typing report cards—these are some of the duties of an office boy or girl. Each period two or more students assist Mr. Wauchope, Mr. Rock, and Miss How, to successfully carry out these duties and the many others in connection with the daily official routine of the school.

Every morning the office helpers check and file the attendance cards sent in by each home room, and make out the absentee list, which is distributed to each teacher. They carry all notices to the class rooms and call students out of classes when necessary.

Each member of the office force forms an important part of the school administration by relieving the executives and teachers of the smaller jobs so necessary in a well organized institution.

LIBRARY STAFF

Under the direction of our librarian, Miss Phyllis Bastin, the library staff carries on its daily work. The library staff is made up of senior students interested in library work who rank highest in aptitude, scholarship, and ability.

Each assistant learns the regular desk routine, and then is given special duties according to his or her ability. The boys shelve the books and magazines, keep them in order, mend books, and also help the girls with lettering cards, printing on the backs of books, filing, issuing fine and overdue notices, and typing letters.

Permanent files are kept in the library of clippings from newspapers telling of school activities, of programs for school plays, of all senior annuals, and of all issues of "Humboldt News."

ORGANIZATION

The A capella Choir was organized, under the direction of Miss Celeste Burns, for those of the high school who are fond of and interested in music. It has progressed so rapidly that the present Choir consists of sixty-two members.

Sustaining one of the nicest traditions of the school, the Choir, gowned in green and red smocks, roamed through the corridors carrying lighted candles and singing carols on the last day of school before Christmas vacation. After this impressive procession, during which class work was suspended, the Choir sang outside the assembly hall to the accompaniment of Ruth Stillwell, organist, repeating the favorite carols, "Silent Night," "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" in honor of Christmas.

The Choir sang in the City High School Music Festival April 23, in the Vodvil Show April 30 and May 1, and also at Humboldt Night at the Commercial Club.

At the Thanksgiving Day program, the Choir entertained the students by singing the "Pilgrims' Chorus" from Tannhauser, in their first appearance this year before the school.

THE BAND

The present Band is composed of seventy completely uniformed members, under the direction of Mr. William Fuhrmann.

Attired in their white outfits, topped by orange and black capes, the Band presented its annual concert November 21 and 22 in the school auditorium. In addition to this main event, the group has also performed at assemblies and football games.

Robert Jones, solo trumpet player, is president of the Band and its assistant director. As secretary, Muriel Dunn writes letters to many schools and arranges band programs. Grace McMonigal is the treasurer, who collects money for music, pictures, tickets, and dues.

Every year Mr. Fuhrmann plans a dinner dance for the Band. This year it was held in the "Spanish Room" of the Hotel Lowry. Special entertainment was provided by the director.

The annual concert of the Orchestra was given November 21 and 22 in the school auditorium under the direction of Mr. William Fuhrmann. They were assisted by Miss Alice Lawson, noted harpist, who played two groups of numbers. The thirty members of the Orchestra, who presented the concert, wore pastel formals and dark suits.

The officers of the Orchestra are as follows: Gladys Hardwick, president; Earl Dario, vice-president; and Margery Karmen, secretary-treasurer.

Among the favorite selections being practiced are: "Der Freischutz" by C. M. Weber and "Rosamunde" by Franz Schubert. These are both fine examples of the German school of composers.

The Orchestra, which has also played for assemblies, is composed of:

ART CLUB

The Art Club, a new organization, was formed at Humboldt under the adviserships of Miss Mary Dodge and Mr. Richard McKenney this fall. Students with outstanding art ability interested in forming a group for the better understanding of arts and crafts met and planned the organization. Membership is limited at the present time to thirty students.

Meetings are held every other Wednesday in Room 302 for various purposes. Some are for entertainments, such as chalk talks, monologues, and speeches on related subjects by guest artists. Others are held for real work. This fall during these meetings, members were busy designing Christmas cards which the Club sold throughout the school. During the last semester, they have devoted their time to the making of life masks of members, which have been very successful.

One social function, under the direction of the members, is planned to take place each year.

The officers are Evelyn Mercer, president; Russell Koutz, vice-president; June Medved, secretary-treasurer; and Helen Morgan, business manager.

Aspiring "Crawfords" and "Powells" are called upon to perform at the Dramatic Club competitive tryouts at the beginning of each semester. This method of admission brings forth many unknown qualities of would-be geniuses.

This year, under the direction of Miss Frances Repke, new adviser of the club, meetings were held every other Wednesday, at which time, in addition to business, entertainment was supplied by the various members of the club.

The outstanding accomplishment of the Dramatic Club each year is the annual play. This year's play was "Growing Pains," given on March 26 and 27. The cast included Betty Broderson, Raymond Grossmann, LaJune Wendt, Russell Koutz, Donna Schlukebier, William Wehrle, Ellen Neagle, Irene Hubbard, Patricia Lynch, Walter Roessler, George Gryc, Richard Meyers, Jane Hurley, Marjorie Gydeson, Mildred Beissel, Miriam Skolnick, Jack Seiberlich, Kathleen McCoy, and Ted Goldberg, all of whom are included in the club's membership through participation in the play, whether previously admitted or not.

Another event that was sponsored by the club was a dance given in the gymnasium.

The officers are Alyce Hymers, president; Betty Broderson, secretary; and Muriel Dunn, treasurer.

NEWS STAFF

Organized under the guidance of Miss Dulcie Kees, the Humboldt News has won All-American honors in national contests each of the three years it has been in existence, due to the excellent work of the staffs and their adviser.

The staff last year at the Minnesota State High School Press Association conference also won two first prizes on the "News" for makeup.

The purposes of the paper are to promote school spirit, sportsmanship, and interest in clubs, and to inform the student body of all school events. It also provides opportunities for students who like to write to express themselves, and it lays a foundation for careers in the field of journalism.

Organized at Humboldt in 1925, The Girl Reserves' Club is the largest organization in the school. Each term this club grows, and its members endeavor to follow the motto, "To face life squarely and to find and give the best." The Girl Reserves are junior members of the Y. W. C. A. and attend free classes there every Thursday, such as dancing, swimming, sewing, and craftwork.

Invitations are extended to all girls upon entering Humboldt to visit the Girl Reserve meetings, which are held the first and third Tuesdays of every month. Girls are formally accepted into the club through a ceremonial held in the Y. W. C. A. chapel. The present membership is seventy.

The doughnut sale, held once a year, enables the club to send one member to The Girl Reserves' Camp at Lake Elmo for one week. The rest of the year, many other philanthropic activities are undertaken by the girls.

Officers are Valerie Lyons, president; Eileen Leger, vice-president; Florayne Bullis, secretary; and Esther Bremer, treasurer. Miss Doris Hadlich is the adviser.

THETA SIGMA GAMMA

The ancient order of Theta Sigma Gamma, the oldest sorority at Humboldt, is organized for social activities which extend into afternoon and evening parties.

Members are unanimously selected each semester to keep the number at thirteen, which is suggested in their name, the Greek letters for T, S, and G, meaning thirteen sorority girls. Teas of welcome are given for these girls upon joining the group, which meets regularly every other Thursday alternately at the various members' homes, where busy chattering plans are made for their evening parties.

A progressive dinner party, which travelled to six members' homes for a six-course dinner, was the most outstanding party this year, in addition to which skating parties, sleighrides, and toboggan parties, as well as picnics, pow-wows, and theater parties were given.

The five cents a week dues extracted as the girls munch their cookies at noon under the "Theta" sign in the lunch room are being saved for a gala summer house party this year.

Officers are June Medved, president; Joan Shields, vice-president; Geraldine Keck, secretary; Lorraine Stebbins, treasurer; and Lillian Ruhnau, publicity officer. Miss Frances Armstrong is the sorority's adviser.

"Happy birthday to you!" This song is sent ringing through the lunch room whenever a Nezod becomes one year older. The table is set, the birthday cake is lit, and the club sits down to another one of their enjoyable parties.

The word, "Nezod," is a transposition of the word "dozen." This club, therefore, has a membership of twelve girls. Because they are organized solely for social purposes, they have elected only one officer, Lucille Birch, treasurer, who acts also as the speaker of all the informal meetings. Miss Celeste Burns is the adviser.

Dues of ten cents a week are paid by each member, and during the summer this money is used to rent a cottage for ten days.

This year the Nezods have given sleighride parties, a sunlight and an evening dance, "dunking" parties, and initiation parties. Initiation day this year brought forth green bows, short dresses, and girls humbling themselves on bended knees before other members of the club.

A special table is reserved for them during the lunch period, where the informal meetings are held. When all the members are gathered around attentively, another party is in the air.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Mae Tierney, teaches its members how to become better athletes and how to acquire and maintain good health.

Through bowling, hiking, swimming, horseback riding, golfing, rowing, skating, dancing, bicycling, and basketball, girls work to amass enough points to win awards. A small "H" can be secured for 500 points, a large "H" for 750 points, and an All-City "H" for 1,250 points.

An Old English "H" is given to a girl who receives six chevrons in two consecutive semesters of gym work, working for these awards in groups or individually. Only girls belonging to the Girls' Athletic Association can receive letters from the school.

The main social event of the club was the Leap Year semi-formal dance, one of the most outstanding events of the school's social calendar this year.

Ethel Steuckert is president of the group; Eileen Schintz, secretary; and Marguerite Beissel, treasurer.

"Bowl for your health and figure!" The Bowling Club, newly organized at Humboldt under the guidance of Mrs. Mae Tierney, meets at 2:30 every Friday during the season at the St. Matthew's Alleys to "roll" three games. This league is divided into four teams, each consisting of six girls. The teams are sponsored by local merchants who furnish the uniforms. The captain of each team keeps the score while the club secretary is kept busy figuring the handicaps.

Besides this grand sport of bowling, the girls participate in many social events, such as roller skating parties held at the Oxford, and a masquerade party to wind up the season.

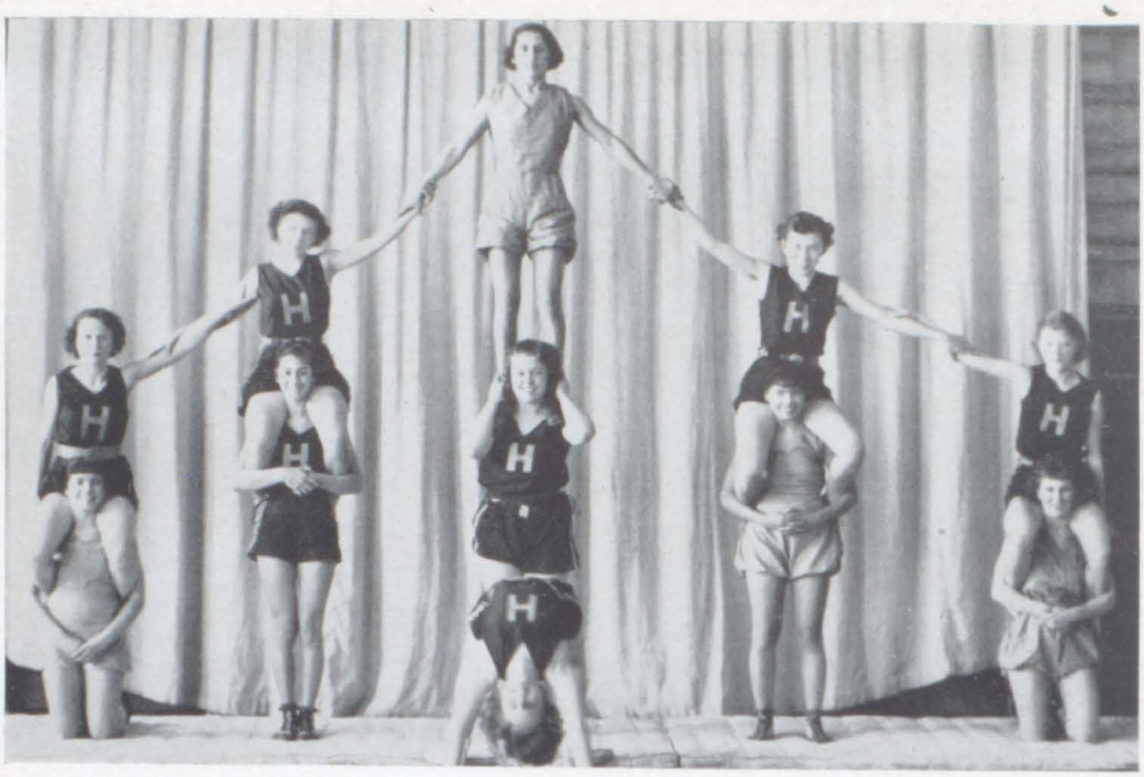

With many outstanding bowlers appearing in this first year, great hopes are held for the Bowling Club in the future.

The officers are June Medved, president; Dorothy Medved, secretary; Bernice Hutz, publicity. The captains of the various teams are Lillian Jenny, Marguerite Beissel, Lorraine Anhalt, and Eileen Desch.

GIRLS' TUMBLING TEAM

The Girls' Tumbling Team, cavorting over mats in fantastic formations and figures, is the school's main workshop for the acquiring and maintaining of a school-girl figure.

Any girl interested in gymnastics may join the team, which meets every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon during the seventh period and other days when it is preparing a routine for an exhibition.

The main performances this year have been for Humboldt Night at the Commercial Club and the Vodvil Show, when the girls, attired in their orange and black uniforms, clicked through their routine to musical accompaniment. Some of the things the girls have accomplished are: the leg throw, hand springs, head springs, triple rolls, triple jumps, and diving through headstands.

Mr. Clair G. McMann acts as supervisor and director of the group.

With only a handful of veterans back from the 1934 campaign, Coach Clair McMann was confronted with the difficult task of putting out a winning football machine in a few weeks of preparation. But with two sterling sophomore performers, a brilliant captain, and the help of the eligible lettermen, he built a hard-driving, hard-fighting team, one that never quit working until the final whistle, in which each player gave the best of which he was capable.

"Mac" worked the boys hard in practice, which resulted in fine spirit and good team work.

The team, clad in new orange silk pants and black jerseys, made their conference debut against Johnson in a dogged battle which resulted in a tie. Decisive victories had marked their non-conference games at the beginning of the season, but the new outfits seemed a jinx to the team for the next few games.

However, the boys finished the season in a "blaze of glory" by completely demolishing Central, as they romped to a great and final victory.

Following the glory of the 1934 championship team, Coach Clair McMann faced a difficult problem in presenting a team worthy of Humboldt, as only two reserves were returning, one injured. Pre-season predictions doped the team to drop every game, because of lack of experience and height. The team was small, but very fast. They dropped the first six games, but after adopting a new style of play, the fast break, won five of the remaining eight games. These games were packed with thrills, as Humboldt and its opponents alternately gained the lead in the last few minutes of play.

The spirit of the team was always to play hard whether behind or ahead. In spite of the fact that Humboldt won only four conference games, the team was acknowledged to be the greatest competitor in the league. No team won from them without a battle—a thrilling battle, winding up with a great finish, full credit to the school and to "Mac" who drew a good team out of completely new material.

THE SENIOR ATHLETIC HONOR ROLL

John "Jack" Bloyer

Football—Golf

A driving, speedy, aggressive, tricky runner, John climaxed three years of play by earning a place on the All-City football team. He was the spearhead of the entire team's attack.

A veteran golf star, as captain, shooting in the seventies consistently, he helped Humboldt win the City Championship the past three years.

James "Jimmie" Comford

Football—Track

"Jimmie," who was injured in the beginning of the season, came back strong to gain a starting position on the football team. He wound up the season by being chosen end for the All-City second team. For three years, his fight and sportsmanship were outstanding.

Robert "Bob" Easterling

Basketball—Football—Swimming

"Bob" began his athletic career in swimming. He broke the city record, swimming the 100-yard breast stroke in 1:18 in his sophomore year.

He gave this up for basketball, where he performed very creditably as center. Especially accurate were his corner set shots.

George Edmeyer

Basketball Manager

One of the important parts of any team is the manager, whose faithfulness and ingenuity in making a smooth-working machine are invaluable assets to the coach and the team. Edmeyer this year effectively did his part for the basketball team.

"Greg" Galvin

Football

Always a steady, dependable player, and a true sportsman, "Greg" was well liked by his fellow players. He was an outstanding kicker and could be relied upon at crucial moments. A regular in 1934, he lost his berth to a natural star in 1935. He was the jack-of-all-trades to the 1935 team, playing all backfield positions with skill.

Leonard "Len" Glewwe

Football—Basketball

For three years, "Len" attended every football practice, and at his first opportunity on the varsity, rose to the occasion. He was outstanding at diagnosing passes and end runs. He was noted for his defensive ability, and was a hard man to sweep off his feet.

This year he also played basketball.

"Ted" Goldberg

Football—Track—Basketball Manager

"Ted" was famed as a passer, the combination Goldberg to Coakley being the greatest threat of the 1934 football aggregation. What he would have achieved in 1935 is a matter of conjecture, as he was declared ineligible. He devoted his time to assisting with the management of the team instead.

Among his other accomplishments was his ability as a track man, discus and javelin thrower.

"Ray" Grossmann

Football

Spirit, will to win, determination—all these were characteristic of Ray. He injected the football team with pep seldom witnessed when others were playing his position. His marked ability showed up particularly in defensive play during his senior year.

George Gryc

Football—Swimming

George, though not a regular, has done his share towards developing the school football team. If the first team is to be good, the second team must be good also. George, by his faithfulness in coming to practice, the sacrifice of himself to advance others, deserves a place among the regular performers.

He also was a valuable asset on the swimming team.

John "Bud" Haas

Basketball—Track

Small in stature, but not in ability, John performed brilliantly on the basketball court for two years, including playing on the championship team of 1934-1935. He captained the 1935-1936 Indians and finished high in the city scoring race, as well as being chosen on the All-City star team.

Dean "Donkey" Higgs

Football—Golf

Playing fullback in 1934, Higgs was moved to end to strengthen the line this year. Developing a severe charley horse in the beginning of the season, he was out of service for several games, only to return at the end of the season with his old color and aggressiveness.

He also has been a consistent golfer for Humboldt.

ERNEST "USH" KAPLAN

Football

Besides playing football, he was the comic of the team. He could have been a star at fullback, but he was playing understudy to an All-City man. He was as good on the football field as he was on the stage.

FRANK "STUB" KNOX

Football—Basketball—Golf

"Stub" was an outstanding scholar as well as an athlete. Being a great signal caller and blocker in football, a stellar floor man and offensive star in basketball, and a steady golf player were a few of his many achievements in sports. He was known for his cool playing in the toughest competition, and for his ability to come through at the crucial moments.

ROBERT "BOB" KURTZ

Football

For years Humboldt has had star football centers, and "Bob" was no exception. Missing stardom in 1934 because of a broken finger, he reached his peak in 1935. He was a stonewall to the opponent's attack. His offensive and defensive ability made him one of the best pivotmen in the city.

"JOE" LAROCK

Football—Track—Swimming

Like a spinning top, "Joe's" running was the feature of his football ability. He was a fast, hard runner who never stopped until he was knocked from his feet. After starring in the North St. Paul game, his career was cut short by leg injuries in a scrimmage against Minneapolis Roosevelt, Twin-City champions.

As captain, he was also the star performer of the swimming team.

EDWIN "ED" MALLOY

Football and Manager

"Ed," Mac's right hand Irish manager, has served his team and school well in his capacity of keeper of equipment and custodian of bandages, tape, cotton, and towels. He not only was amiable and efficient, making good teams better, but was a real football player himself, making the All-City football team as guard in 1934.

ROBERT "BOB" MCKAY

Football

Playing at center in the beginning of the season handicapped "Bob." He began to develop when he was shifted to end position. He was a hard man to block and a vicious tackler. We will never know just how good he really was, for he developed late in the season and never had a chance to show all of his ability.

LAWRENCE "BUD" O'DONNELL

Football

An outstanding B-team football player in his first year, "Bud" had the misfortune to develop a trick knee which gave him considerable trouble. This injury cut down his stamina and hampered his ability, so he was relegated to the substitute list.

WILLIAM "BILL" OKEY

Football

"Bill" was not a flashy football player, but his dependability was outstanding. His interference paved the way to many long runs. His nearly perfect physical condition enabled him to stand up under terrific punishment. He was a quiet player, and few recognized his real ability.

WALTER "WALLY" ROESSLER

Football

Somewhat small as tackles go, "Wally" was steady and dependable. His unusual asset was his ability to get down the field under punts, and he very seldom missed his tackle. He was a hard working, effective tackle, hard to gain against.

HAROLD SHORT

Football—Basketball—Boxing

Following a rather intermittent career, Short proved himself a superb quarterback in the 1933 football battles, and again joined the squad in 1935, after a year's absence.

A basketball player of considerable skill, Harold was a good ball handler and a clever floor man.

He was also featherweight boxing champion in 1932.

STARS OF THE FUTURE

Prospects for next year's basketball team are bright for "Mac," because he will have a fighting, efficient nucleus, this year's sophomore and junior players, around which to build a strong team.

Among them is "Bob" Hessler, who climaxed his sophomore year with a place on the All-City team, besides being the leader in the individual scoring race. Max Mohr was one of the best ball handlers and offensive stars in the city conference. He was especially effective on rebounds, and will be valuable material when he plays his third year on the varsity team. Ray Hessler was also a regular in his sophomore year, being a spectacular floorman and an excellent long shot.

Stanley Rubin was a dependable, fast breaking forward, who gave his best when called into the game. "Al" Nickolychik, a good shot, developed as a floorman. John Williams' height proved a decided advantage in gaining possession of the ball, making him a handy man to have on the team. Sam Parness was a strong passer and a fair shot. All of these players will be invaluable to the team next year, and formed a very integral part of this year's basketeers.

NEXT YEAR'S WINNERS—?

Coach Clair McMann was blessed by several useful cogs, who with the returning seniors, were developed into a smoothly coordinated gridiron machine last fall.

Most notable of the veterans were Captain "Bill" Stute and "Al" Bisciglia, to whom high school and football are synonymous terms. Upon terminating their athletic careers, both quit school. In his grand finale against Central, "Bill" proved his greatness as a fullback by tearing the Minutemen's line to shreds. Blocking was his forte, backing up the line his pleasure. "Al," after being shifted from the fullback position this year, attained fame at the difficult position of guard.

Forrest Bruce, also ending his football career, gave Humboldt many opportunities upon which to capitalize by blocking kicks.

Four of the team's lettermen will return next year to bolster up the line. Among them will be Ray and Robert Hessler, Emile Fedeli, and Everett Grossmann. Ray Hessler, a hard-runner, was noted for his kicking, which changed the aspect of many disheartening situations. Robert Hessler's brilliancy lay in his ability to grab passes from under the noses of the opposition. Fedeli was a fighter from start to finish. Grossmann, a small fast guard, tackled ferociously.

Among the potential regulars for next year are Paul Kurtz, who showed considerable development; Lee Mondike, who has great possibilities as a tackle, and Wilfred Abbot, who with experience, should develop fast.

With most of these men returning and the sophomore team adding material, high hopes are held for a good year in 1936.

HOCKEY

Renewing competition with rivals of former Indian hockey teams, this year's pucksters once again flashed into action.

Boasting a fine aggregation of hockey talent, including "Ed" Malloy, goalie; Walter Roessler and Robert Kurtz, defensemen; Lowell Booton, James Fletcher, Lester Sampson, and Joseph Stevens, forwards, the team opened its season with a 4-3 victory in an overtime period against White Bear on the Polars' ice.

Losing only one game during the season, Humboldt expects to see another stellar and aggressive hockey team next year keep up the competition of this year, so that hockey will again come into prominence in Humboldt's sports calendar.

TENNIS TEAM

Tennis is not considered a major sport at Humboldt; therefore, no equipment or transportation is provided by the school. The tennis team is completely on its own.

This year's team completed a successful season, losing only to Central High School, the league champions in the initial match. Overcoming this setback, they defeated Harding decisively 5-0. Confidence in their prowess enabled the victories over Johnson and Mechanics, each by a 3-2 score, to materialize.

Members of the team were as follows: James Fletcher, captain, and first man; Kenneth Newcomb, second man; Robert Melius and "Bob" Klingel, alternating at third and fourth positions; Lowell Booton, fifth man; Jack Branch, sixth man; and "Don" King, seventh man.

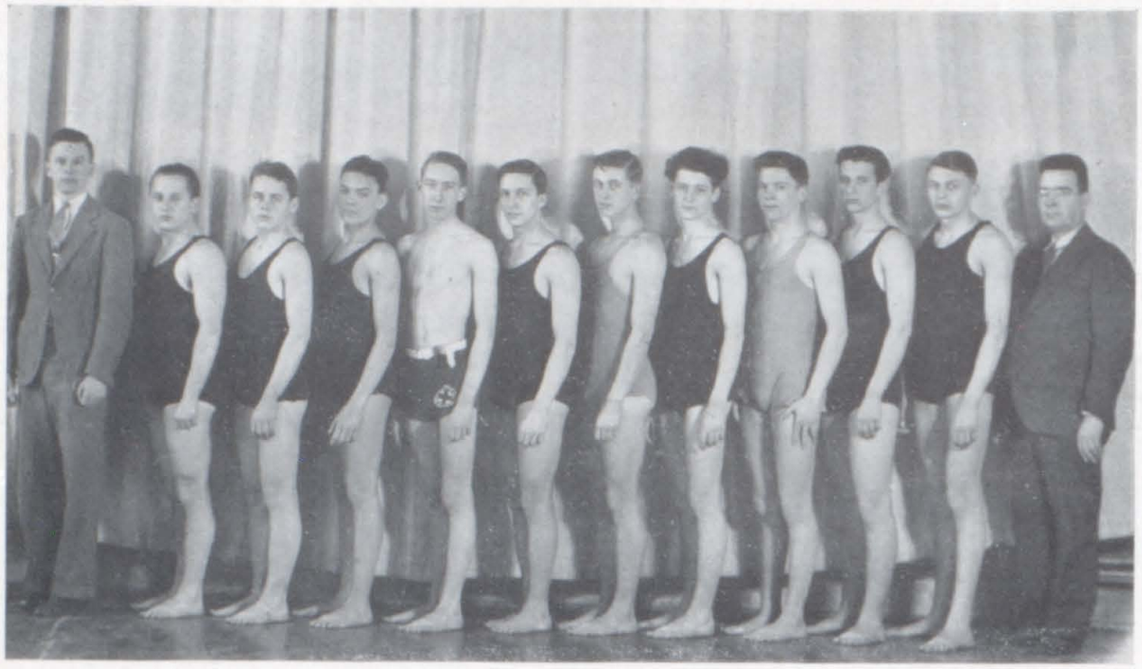

Humboldt has never been a pessimistic school, and with the return of five lettermen, the outlook for gaining the championship is quite bright.

GOLF

For four years the Humboldt High School Golf Team has won the City championship, a record of which to be proud. They completely dominated the scene, having such players as Lambert Fyhrie, John Bloyer, Lawrence Robertson, Robert Leger, and William Rea.

These fine players have succeeded in changing high school golf from a somewhat haphazardly played game to a scientific, carefully prepared plan of action. The preparation of a driving net in the gymnasium shows that "Mac" thinks this game is a great field for future conquests.

SWIMMING TEAM

Although it was composed of three All-City men and seven valuable point winners, their inexperience landed the Humboldt Swimming Team in fifth place in the All-City Meet this year.

Captain "Joe" La Rock with three seasons of competition and Jack Branch, Ray Grossmann, and "Bob" Okey had the only experience in a squad of ten.

Jack Branch, valuable dash man, who was high point scorer with "Joe" LaRock in 1934-35, was handicapped by ineligibility during half of the 1935-36 season.

"Bob" Hyslop, star newcomer, who placed third in the preliminaries of the City Meet, lost some prestige due to lack of experience, but swam well in the competition to give Humboldt much needed points.

The relay team—"Joe" LaRock, Jack Branch, George Gryc, and "Bob" Hyslop—finished third in the city relay race to close their respective careers.

The others responsible for the team's honors were the second and third place winners, including "Jim" Gryc, breast stroke; Ray Grossmann, "Bob" Jones, Harold Renfrew, crawl men; and "Don" Hirsch, freshman diver.

The Junior "H" Club was organized at Humboldt last September with the purpose of creating a stronger bond of friendship among the athletes of the school. The object of this organization is to cooperate with the students and faculty, and assist in maintaining and regulating athletics.

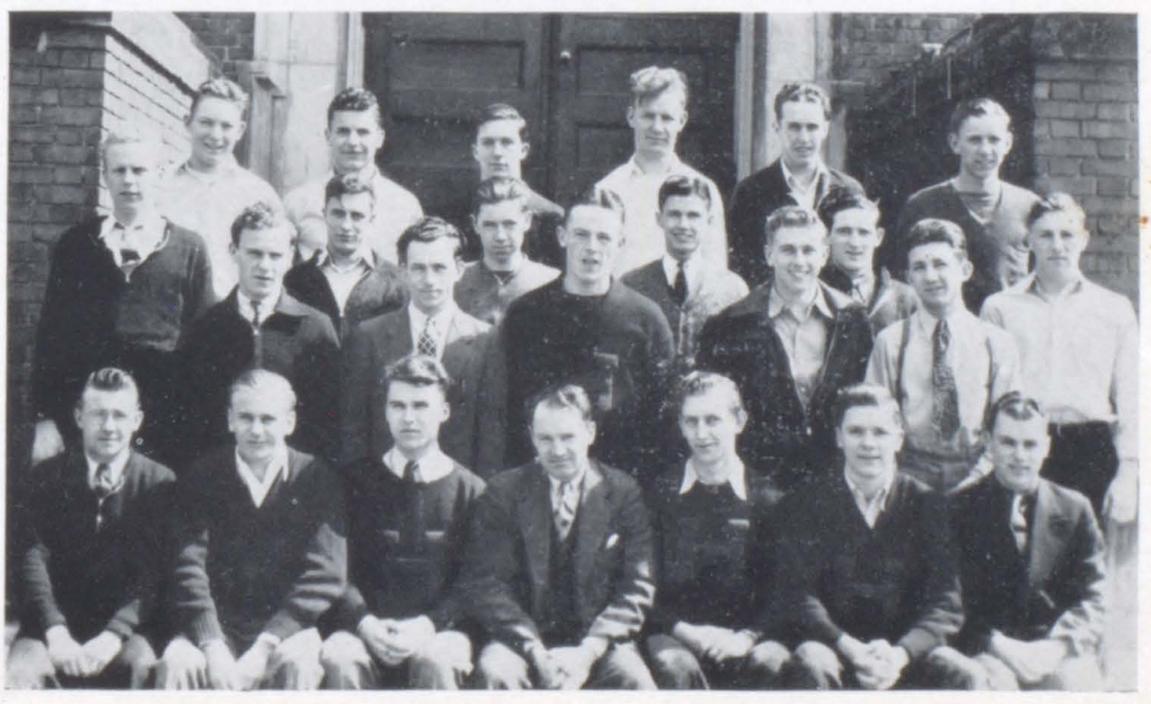

All students who have earned an "H" in any branch of official sports are eligible to become members in this organization. Any student who gains All-City recognition will be awarded a medal.

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday at the beginning of the semester and then on alternate Mondays. Some of the activities of this club are aiding minor sports at Humboldt and putting on an assembly once a year.

Officers are Frank Knox, president; Gregory Galvin, vice-president; and Robert Kurtz, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Clair McMann and Mr. Walter Rock are the advisers.

YOUR COACH

Undoubtedly the character of the young manhood of America is most vitally affected by the football coach. Many people think of this teacher as a professional, hired to turn out winning football combinations. Excellent teams are certainly a desirable asset to any school but the winning of games is only a small part of the service which the coach renders to his community and his country.

The young man is taught to "carry on" even in the face of adversity. He must fight for his position; often times against tremendous odds. He must be a gracious victor today; yet walk hand and hand with defeat a week hence. He must be a true sportsman; ready to play the game hard, but fair. He must be obedient to discipline; yet never robbed of his individual initiative. Graciousness, determination, sportsmanship, obedience, discipline, initiative, courage and cooperation—all developed in this one grand game—football. And who is the guiding genius in the development of these necessary character traits? None other than the football coach.

Little wonder that today most fathers cast their all into the hands of the coaches for guidance, firmly convinced that, as a group, they go farthest because they inculcate in the heart and mind of the young man those traits so necessary to a successful life.

The responsibilities placed on the shoulders of the football coach constitute a social challenge which has been and is being, admirably accepted by every mentor in the country. Young players of all colors, creeds and nationalities are being blended together on the various gridirons of the nation; forming a clean cut, wholesome and energetic group from which the majority of tomorrow's leaders will be chosen.

CLASS WILL

With eyes and hopes on the future, but fondly looking back on the past, we, the class of 1936, think of you juniors who will follow us. We have spent, among our friends and teachers, three pleasant years filled with happiness. We have acquired many good qualities and lasting memories. There have been many joys mingled with the few sorrows. Remembering our gay days and our lingering thoughts, we bequeath these gifts to you:

We are the brains of this fair place, and leave to you this honored space; we've 'ttempted, struggled, and attained, and now at last our goal is gained. Rose Applebaum, Gladys Bergerson, William Bergh, Mary Bowell, Donald Crisman, Evelyn Diehl, George Fernald, Ronald Gourley, Frank Knox, Harold Lamb, Isadore Manovitz, Carl Miller, Robert Okey, Helen Pettis, Fred Raak, Dorothy Sirott, Marvin Snow, Marjorie Tate, Virginia Tubbesing, Irene Wimmer.

We are quiet and very shy! We let a lot of things go by; in spite of this, we've all had fun. Carry on, Juniors, our day is done. Neal Anderson, Howard Batush, William Bick, Lorraine Carlson, LaVerne Clark, Mildred Cunningham, George Deusterman, Clayton Fortney, Albert Helbig, Leonard Hermann, Marshall Kisch, Carl Krumm, Ruth Lick, Frank Mercure, Helen Mollenkamp, Joseph Monsour, Edward Neff, Naomi Olson, Stanley Olson, Lucille Streit, Mae Adell Stroud, Mae Unise, Frank Willems,

Strong and stalwart men are we; we're noted for our bravery. Humboldt's heroes you Juniors will be, so carry on to victory. Max Bix, John Bloyer, James Comford, James Fletcher, Greg Galvin, Leonard Glewwe, Ted Goldberg, John Haas, Dean Higgs, Ernest Kaplan, Robert Kurtz, Joe LaRock, Edwin Malloy, Robert McKay, Lawrence O'Donnell, William Okey, Harold Renfrew, Walter Roessler, Milton Rutman, Harold Short, Charles Stiles.

Why should we worry? We don't care if things go wrong; we've learned to bear the brunt of life. We leave to you our carefree ways which are not few. Eleanor Bohrer, Lois Johnson, Kathleen McCoy, Lucille Rowley, Emily Schmidt, Mildred Sorenson, Gordon Thorne, Lucy Wilson.

We've spent our leisure writing news, and we've expressed our mighty views. Do your duty—never shirk. Carry on the worthwhile work. Jerome Binder, Paul Brandt, James Carlton, Emily Edgett, Jack Franklin, Thomas Grosscup, Earl Jorgenson, George Miller, Helen Morgan, Frances Nielsen, Robert Seabrook, Miriam Skolnick.

No frowns, no sighs, no gruff replies, only smiles and laughing eyes. Though sometimes we felt sad and blue, we never showed our thoughts to you. Irvin Ackland, Jack Branch, Ray Brandt, Olivia Donnerbauer, Mary Drews, Florine Frischkorn, Frank Gardner, James Gryc, Loretta Kirchner, Lloyd Picard, Ann Rosenblum, Arnold Siegel, Winslow Stiefel, Herbert Wenker, Harold Wiegner.

With brush in hand we sketch a scene, of all the art that's in our dreams. We leave it all upon this frame, and may it bring you joy and fame. Lloyd Bewell, Maxine Geror, Stanley Gryc, Dorothy Heitzinger, Earl Lind, Evelyn Mercer, June Penas, Lillian Ruhnau, Geraldine Staples, Gwyneth Young.

With a mighty arm we throw the ball, and hope that all the pins will fall. Fill our places when we depart. We wish you well with all our hearts. Josephine Bastian, Dolores Benfield, Lucille Eret, Bernice Hutz, Lillian Jenny, June Medved.

Although we jest and act like clowns, and cause our teachers groans and frowns, the school without us would be lost, so pester on at any cost. Wayne Bovee, Robert Brinton, George Bultman, Melvin Chargo, Jack Chase, Robert Easterling, George Edmeyer, Dorrie Engleson, Gerald Exley, Russell Fleischauer, Ben Gantman, Walter Grittner, Arthur Johnson, Donald Johnson, Michael Lyons, Richard Meyers, Allen Samuelson, Robert Thera, LeRoy Weir.

Our Girl Reserves and G. A. A., in sports and tumbling take part, in doughnut sales they always win. Juniors, follow, with happy heart. Margaret Boyle, Charlotte Ellis, Ruth Falkenberg, Shirley Herman, Valerie Lyons, Jane Martin, Marjorie Neihart, Winifred Reetz, Ethel Steuckert, Ruth Stillwell, Amelia Thomas, Georgia Tipler.

They save two people many steps, these typing, filing, busy bees. That you, too, may scurry for Mr. Rock, is the humble wish of this fair flock. Louise Fountain, Edna Hendrickson, Katherine Johnson, Geraldine Keck, Lee Leizerowitz, Dorothy Petersen, Verna Radmer, Adeline Rosenbaum, Shirley Schmidt, Shirley Siegrist, Helen Sperl, Lorraine Stegner, Josephine Stevens, Elvira Strebel, Helen Uschmann.

Shaw—Pollock—Rouverol! In their works we did excel. We will to you our dramatic zeal, that made these plays seem almost real. Marguerite and Mildred Beissel, George Goldstein, Ray Grossmann, George Gryc, Irene Hubbard, Jane Hurley, Alyce Hymers, Russell Koutz, Patricia Lynch, Ellen Neagle, Austine Vikla, LaJune Wendt.

A sunny smile, a glad hello, a personality all aglow, is what we dedicate to you. "Shine" in our place—we bid adieu. Marie Bauer, Patricia Berry, Lucyle Birch, Lowell Booton, Esther Bremer, Rebecca Chase, Margaret Conradi, Eileen Fenlon, Einar Johnson, Joan Shields, Lena Ward, Philip Wizer.

Sweet notes, gay voices, drums and fife! We bequeath to you our music life. To entertain and pacify; Juniors, this gift exemplify. Betty Broderson, Marless Burnside, Earl Dario, Marion Derdoski, Muriel Dunn, Gladys Hardwick, Robert Jones, Robert Klingel, Carl Link, Robert Olson, Philip Reberk, Florence Schmidt, Lloyd Schmotter, Sylvan Smith, Lorraine Stebbins, Eleanor Warkentien.

Your fortune's counted by true friends, who with a smile and helping hand stay by your side through loss and fame. This trait we will and sign our names. Jack Bandholz, Ray Bauer, Judd Berthiaume, Leona Brinckman, Thomas Gordon, Arne Kolstad, Wayne Kogl, Wayne McLagan, Rodney Samuelson, Marjorie Zibell.

THE SENIOR CLASS.

. . . you chose Lucyle and Joe the friendliest girl and boy . . . these Junior executives deserve the credit for the grand prom last week . . . everybody's choice—Frank: our most popular, most representative boy, salutatorian, and athletic medal winner . . . handsome John and popular, "prettiest" Kathleen . . . most representative senior girl, Esther . . . smiling co-eds . . . more girls out looking for spring . . . our valedictorian, Irene . . . "bid honor to your partners" . . . new, bright spots in the faculty . . . senior class adviser . . . perpetual pals . . . four little sophomore girl reserves . . . spring came—see them smile . . . tree-climbers . . . strike up the band . . . below zero . . . stuck in the snow . . . giggling girls . . . cute couple . . . when "Rock" is up against stone . . . office gang . . . what is to come . . . "Miss St. Paul" . . . more cute couples . . . Mr. McKenney's sm-art-ies . . . hockey team . . . Greg, Bob, Ted . . . Isacksen's imps . . . Jenny's jolly gang . . . tennis team . . . golf team . . . shades of 1860 . . . bums . . . "Growing-Pains" . . . still more cute couples.

EMPLOYMENT

High school graduates who are interested in securing employment as soon as possible, in positions where there are opportunities for future advancement, are invited to investigate the GLOBE.

Technical business training will give "market value" to your high school education. It will greatly increase your chances of securing a good business position.

MINIMUM TIME REQUIRED

New classes begin each Monday. A definite amount of work is required in each subject. Therefore, students of exceptional ability or industry complete their courses more rapidly.

EFFECTIVE PLACEMENT SERVICE

Graduates of the GLOBE are entitled to the services of our Placement Department without cost.

ASK FOR FREE LITERATURE

Those interested in the opportunities available to the business-trained are invited to write or call for a free bulletin describing present-day opportunities, placement service, details of courses and tuition rates.

Believe that you can—and you will not fail,
Though great be the task begun
Believe that you can—though hard
the trail
And rugged the road you run.

Have faith in yourself, just know you can,
And you're simply bound to do;
And never a barrier, bar or ban
Can keep you from carrying through.

So go to it, boy, and hit your stride
At the crack of the starting gun,
And never falter or turn aside
'Til the whole long course is run.

You may not be brilliant or clever or smart,
You may not be fast of pace,
But if you have grit and a confident heart,
You'll be there at the end of the race. —The Optimist.
