

I NEED ACADEMIC HELP! WHAT ARE MY OPTIONS?

*Please speak with your School Counselor for any questions or concerns. Book a time HERE

STEP 1

MEET WITH YOUR TEACHER FOR INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

STEP 2

OFFICE HOURS

We always encourage students to meet with their teachers during free periods or Study Flex/Office Hours for extra help. If a student is using Study Flex time to meet with a teacher, they need to report to their assigned Study Flex for attendance purposes first and then leave to meet with their teacher.

Study flex and office hours run every week on Monday and Thursday 2:20:3:00pm

HELP HUB

The Help Hub is a new addition to our supports at HHS. Housed in the "Computer Lab" the Help Hub is a place you can go to get your questions answered and get academic support. Problems with your computer? Stuck on how to write a thesis statement? Confused about how to do your math homework? Go to the Help Hub! There are peer tutors and teachers available throughout the day - including lunch, activity period, and Study Flex/Office Hours.

TUTOR.COM

Tutor.com is a free resource available to HHS students in partnership with The Princeton Review. This 24/7 online tutoring service is accessible via Schoology for all subjects and offers real-time drop in tutoring as well as scheduled tutoring. Again, this service is FREE and a great option for support anytime, even outside of school.
