FEATURED BOOKS

The Fort by Gordon Korman
When a tight-knit group of middle school friends discover a trap door in the woods that leads to a completely intact bomb shelter, they vow to keep the place a secret while sharing their individual secrets to build the safest space possible.

Lines of Courage by Jennifer A. Nielsen
What does it mean to have courage? Nielsen examines this question through the stories of five tweens in the midst of WWI, offering varied perspectives and showing children caught on each side of the war.

And We Rise: The Civil Rights Movement in Poems by Erica Martin
In stunning verse and vivid use of white space, Erica Martin's debut poetry collection walks readers through the Civil Rights Movement—from the well-documented events that shaped the nation's treatment of Black people, beginning with the "Separate but Equal" ruling—and introduces lesser-known figures and moments that were just as crucial to the Movement and our nation's centuries-long fight for justice and equality.
