CAMP Summit

JULY 1 - 26, 2024 (closed July 4th)

8:25 am - 3:00 PM | Monday - Friday

Camp Summit is for bright children entering grades 1-8 who struggle with reading, writing and math.

Students are grouped into small classes based on skill level to accommodate learning styles. Trained teachers use research-based methods and multi-sensory strategies to reinforce learning. Campers avoid learning loss while having fun, building self-confidence, and making new friends.

Morning Academics follow a structured curriculum including one hour each of:

- Reading – small group instruction using a systematic, multi-sensory approach for skill development
- Math – small groups, standards-based multi-sensory instruction
- Oral/written expression – Activities and structured approach to sentence formulation, story writing, and expository writing using computer technology

Afternoon Recreation

Afternoon fun including sports, games, music, cooking, arts, crafts, STEAM activities, and more!

For each camp there is a minimum of five students per session.

EXECUTIVE FUNCTIONS CAMP

Does your child lack organizational or study skills? Is their backpack, desk, or locker overflowing with unneeded or disorganized papers? Does your child procrastinate on school work?

Executive Function skills help us plan, organize, strategize, manage time, pay attention to and remember details.

This week-long course will help your student develop strategies to:

- Prioritize assignments
- Organize materials
- Sustain attention to tasks
- Manage time inside and outside the classroom
- Start assignments efficiently
- Study for subject area tests efficiently and effectively

An overview of all of the subsets of executive functions, this course allows students the opportunity to learn more about their own learning profile. Students will take home resources that can be used in every classroom, including monthly and weekly calendars, graphic organizer outlines, and study guide shells.

This is an introduction to the skills necessary for school success and is intended for the student with no prior class experience in executive functioning.

Two Sessions Offered:

Session 1: Monday-Friday July 15 - 19, 9 AM - 12 PM

Session 2: Monday-Friday July 22 - 26, 9 AM - 12 PM

EMPOWER WRITING CAMP

Does your child struggle with putting ideas onto paper? Does your child need help creating a cohesive and organized research paper?

This camp will teach students how to use the EmPOWER™ writing process to launch them on the road to writing success. Students will learn how to:

- Evaluate the writing task
- Make a plan for the writing task
- Organize thoughts using one of six specific graphic organizers
- Write fact or opinion theme statements
- Organize information in a logical sequence
- Summarize paragraphs with a powerful closing sentence
- Develop a voice in written pieces that engages the reader
- Self-evaluate the quality of the writing
- Edit to make necessary changes

The EmPOWER™ writing process is based on solid research and developed to help students connect oral language, organization of thoughts, and writing. EmPOWER™ strategies enable students to develop the internal dialogue that guides the writing process and supports thinking for effective writing.

Session 1: Monday-Friday July 15 - 19, 12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Provides an overview of the EmPOWER writing process and introduces students to the steps of the program. This is an introduction to the skills necessary for school success and is intended for the student with no or limited prior class experience in the EmPOWER writing process.

Session 2: Monday-Friday July 22-26, 12:30 PM - 3:30 PM

This session is intended for students with knowledge and experience of the EmPOWER writing process or who are solid writers seeking to enhance their paragraph and essay writing skills.
