MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR DAY ASSEMBLY

An African American leader once stated.

"I have a dream."

"I have a dream that one day my four little children will live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character."

"By Martin Luther King jr.

August 28th, 1963

OFC

Right

To not be judged by the color of their skin"

Are we colored? Or is our minds under attack

You see

When you, mix all 7 colors together in the rainbow you get

Black

The same color you wear to a funeral when a spirit has passed

But history hides away the reality and the fact
That the real meaning of black means dead
And

I am far from that

How can someone be dead or.... wait quote on quote black if

They're still walking around

The government and the system

Are still tryna to strip you from your crown

I know every time I speak

I make the sun SHINE brighter on the ground

The chosen one speaks within her mind and out loud

I am speaking the hidden truth the white man hides

"you're colored", "you're black" but really open up your eyes

I said

If they didn't like me then, they must hate me now

I said

I am a queen of all nations not black

But always crime

-By Eula Manuel (11th grade)
presented at Tyee's MLK, Jr Day Assembly

Yearbook staffers Kaiden Perry and Tunoa Mulitauaopele photographed the Martin Luther King Assembly on January 18th. The guest speaker was Pastor Terrence Proctor, Rheda Fisher performed a song, Eula Manuel read a poem and ASL students interpreted the Black National Anthem.
