

Ms. George's 4th Grade Class

Where We Are in Place and Time

The Great Migration by Samier Flippin

The Great Migration, sometimes known as the Great Northward Migration or the Black Migration, was the movement of 6 million African Americans out of the rural Southern United States to the urban Northeast, Midwest and West that occurred between 1916 and 1970.

Push Factors: segregation, couldn't get jobs, they were being mistreated, unsafe, felt unwelcomed

Pull Factors: more freedom, more respect, more job opportunities, better pay

The Rondo Neighborhood

By: Monsieur Johnson

The Rondo migration is something that happened when the state of MN decided to put Interstate 94 through the middle of the Rondo neighborhood, displacing an entire community!

What caused the migration? The neighborhood was destroyed in order to put Highway 94 in.

Push Factors: Losing their homes, loss of jobs, loss of family and friends.

Natural Disasters: Hurricanes

A storm with violent wind in particular a tropical Cyclone in the Caribbean.

Push Factors: violent winds and homes being destroyed.

Pull Factors: safe weather and less thinking about the weather.

Reflection: I would feel very sad that most of my stuff gets destroyed. and I have to move away and leave my friends. I would feel weird in a new place having to make new friends. and a new home would be weird because I have to learn where everything is too.

By: Anjel
Albrecht
Payton

The Lost Boys of Sudan by Yoma Uvwoh

In 1987, civil war drove an estimated 20,000 young boys from their families and villages in southern Sudan. Most just six or seven years old, they fled to Ethiopia to escape death or induction into the northern army. They walked more than a thousand miles, half of them dying before reaching Kakuma refugee camp in Kenya. The survivors of this tragic exodus became known as the Lost Boys of Sudan.

Push Factors: war, violence, tragedy

Pull Factors: safer home

The Great Migration by Abdirizak Ahmed

The Great Migration, sometimes known as the Great Northward Migration or the Black Migration, was the movement of 6 million African Americans out of the rural Southern United States to the urban Northeast, Midwest and West that occurred between 1916 and 1970.

Push Factors: segregation, couldn't get jobs, they were being mistreated, unsafe, felt unwelcomed

Pull Factors: more freedom, more respect, more job opportunities, better pay

The Lost Boys of Sudan by: sabontu lolo

In 1987, civil war drove an estimated 20,000 young boys from their families and villages in southern Sudan. Most just six or seven years old, they fled to Ethiopia to escape death or induction into the northern army. They walked more than a thousand miles, half of them dying before reaching Kakuma refugee camp in Kenya. The survivors of this tragic exodus became known as the Lost Boys of Sudan.

Push Factors: war, death violence

Pull Factors: safer home escaping

Natural Disasters: Tornadoes

A tornado is a violently rotating column of air that is in contact with both the surface of the Earth and a cumulonimbus cloud or, in rare cases, the base of a cumulus cloud.

Push Factors: houses get destroyed by the tornados.

Pull Factors: People leave their homes from the tornados that are happening.

The Rondo Neighborhood

By: Frank Carter

What caused the migration? The neighborhood was destroyed in order to put Highway 94 in.

Push Factors: Losing their homes, loss of jobs, loss of family and friends.

Natural Disasters: Tsunami

A tsunami is a series of waves caused by earthquakes or undersea volcanic eruptions. ... While tsunamis are often referred to as tidal waves, this name is discouraged by oceanographers because tides have little to do with these giant waves

Push Factors: houses that are getting destroyed by big waves

Pull Factors: safe whether

Reflection: I will feel sad because I will have to leave my house and my friends

Natural Disasters: Flood

an overflowing of a large amount of water beyond its normal confines, especially over what is normally dry land.

Push Factors: Thousands and thousands of people had to leave their homes because of floods

Pull Factors: People leave flood areas to be safe in or at a certain place

Reflection: I would feel sad about the fact I had to leave but I also feel worried on if I'll survive or not

By: Abby Moo

Natural Disasters: Earthquake

a sudden and violent shaking of the ground, sometimes causing great destruction, as a result of movements within the earth's crust or volcanic action.

By: Amenda Lee