For Middle School Students, High School Students, College Students, Families, and Educators

What is CaliforniaColleges.edu?

CaliforniaColleges.edu is a free web-based platform that helps students build an informed postsecondary plan. The platform features:

- Career assessments.
- College, Career, and Major Search tools.
- An Academic Planner for developing high school course plans.
- Tools that support goal setting, task management, and self-reflection.
- An online digital portfolio to track college, career, and financial aid planning activities called My Plan.
- Curated content for each type of user (middle school or high school students¹).
- Students benefit from a guided experience, completing grade level specific activities and associated worksheets that help them create a postsecondary plan aligned with their interests and goals.
- Students access worksheets by clicking on any one of the blue bubbles on their landing page once signed in. (See below.)
- Educators can monitor students' utilization of the platform by accessing individual students' My Plan and can pull aggregate level reports.
- Family members with accounts can view their students' My Plan and access curated content focused on supporting their students through career exploration, as well as the college and financial aid planning and application processes.

¹ Students under 13 cannot create an account on CaliforniaColleges.edu.
