Understand the Full Picture of Your Students

Student success means more than academics. Abre's all-on-one platform connects well-being, partner programs, extracurriculars, and more for 360° whole child support.

Track the Impact of Your Efforts

Gathering insights should take minutes, not days. Abre provides real-time performance and engagement data to inform your school initiatives.

Connect Students & Families with Partners

Maximize the impact of community partnerships. Abre integrates community partner management to make it easier for kids, families, and staff to get the support they need.

Centralize Communication

Abre eliminates communication headaches with families by providing one place for parents and guardians to get all the info on their students' progress, as well as targeted announcements.

“ With Abre, it's all in one spot. Our staff can individualize and focus on instructional goals. ”

MELISSA PROHASKA
Middletown City Schools

“ Abre allows everything to come together in one place. We can bring resources and information and further our support for a child. ”

MIAMI UNIVERSITY

“ In Abre, we have a comprehensive view of partners, students, and goals they're working toward. All of that in one package – no one else does it. ”

ERIC KING
Cincinnati Public Schools
