

Canterbury School of Florida educates and nurtures the whole child in mind, body, and spirit in preparation for college and an honorable life as a responsible steward of our world.

Canterbury School of Florida is seeking a Kindergarten teacher for the 2024-2025 school year who has a commitment to the School's Mission and an interest in school-wide participation, such as committees and activities. This nurturing educator will teach and continue to enhance the curriculum while collaborating with their Kindergarten colleagues, including all enrichment teachers. This candidate will also incorporate LEADS (Canterbury's character education program) into the curriculum and will be expected to perform various duties that support the Lower School Campus (Hough Campus). The curriculum must meet the emotional, physical, cognitive, and social needs of both the individual child and the group. It is expected that each faculty member contributes to a positive culture by building collaborative, collegial, and respectful relationships with colleagues and overtly supporting fellow teachers and administrators.

Requirements:

- Bachelor Degree in Elementary Education with a teacher certification; Master's Degree preferred
- Minimum 2 years of teaching experience
- Exceptional skills in elementary childhood pedagogy, childhood development and instructional strategies
- Excellent communication skills, both oral and written
- Proficient at designing and using assessments to guide instruction
- Commitment to professional development
- Proficient in educational technology
- Ability to coordinate across the curriculum

Those interested should send a letter of interest and resume to employment@canterburyflorida.org
