

1ST SIX WEEKS-CUSTODIAN STANDOUT PERFORMERS

Sergio Pecina-Head Custodian Escobar Elementary

Mr. Pecina is a total boss when it comes to making sure everything is spotless and in order on campus. Sergio's attendance record is top-notch. Even on rare occasions when he's absent, he's got a backup plan in place to keep things running smoothly. He's quick to address any requests or concerns from the administration or staff, ensuring minimal delay. Sergio's got his eyes on everything, if something's amiss, he'll either fix it himself or rally the troops to get it sorted out. It's no wonder he's part of the Escobar Family, respected and liked by staff and students alike. He's a friendly and approachable guy, never without a grin, and always ready to help out however he can. From humble beginnings as a custodian, Sergio's grown into a confident and capable leader in his role at Escobar Elementary.

Enrique Grimaldo-Head Custodian -Jaime Escalante Middle School

Mr. Grimaldo is lightning-fast and always reliable, never failing to impress with his top-notch customer service skills. He's not one to shy away from lending a hand, in fact, he's a bit of a jack of all trades, eager to fix anything he can get his hands on. Not only that, but he's constantly keeping an eye out for the welfare of our students, reporting any concerns he may have to the administration or counseling staff. He's been known to whip up delicious treats to help fundraise for campus organizations or simply treat our staff to some homemade goodness. He's a true team player, always willing to go the extra mile to help out anyone in need. He even takes the time to update our administration with his team's accomplishments, showing gratitude and recognition for their hard work. Mr. Grimaldo is truly an irreplaceable asset to our organization, playing an essential role in keeping our campus safe and well-maintained.

Juan Moreno- Head Custodian Palacios Elementary

Mr. Moreno is a true hero in the workplace, always putting his best foot forward and leading by example. His dedication to keeping his campus spick and span is second to none, and he's even been known to go above and beyond by keeping us safe from fire hazards and lending a hand to other departments. With his impeccable punctuality and attendance record, it's no wonder he's a shining star on the team.

Graciela Barriero Central Office Custodian

Ms. Barriero embodies the true spirit of PSJA. Her infectious smile is highly valued and much appreciated by everyone. Graciela consistently demonstrates her willingness to assist anyone in need and always goes the extra mile without complaint. She brings positivity to the workplace and is always willing to help in any way possible.

