

Public Notice

The State Board of Education requires all Proclamation 2024 pre-adoption samples of instructional materials submitted for adoption be made available to the public.

Little Elm ISD is in the process of reviewing textbooks and resources to facilitate this proclamation and it is being considered for the following courses:

Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills (TEKS)

- Science
- Career Development - Education and Training, Health Science, Technology Applications
- Social Studies -Personal Financial Literacy and Economics

The District will provide an opportunity for the public to review and give feedback on the materials being considered.

To participate, community members will need to check in through the main office at the Little Elm ISD Administration Building prior to reviewing the materials.

QR codes will be available for all feedback and digital copies of the curriculum.
