WHAT INSPIRES HER

I'm always inspired in my work by my roots and my initial "why." I chose to be an educator to make a lasting impact on the future. I am often reminded of a Ted Talk by the late Rita Pierson. "Every Student Deserves a Champion." As a teacher, I strived to be the champion teacher my students needed, and now, I strive to assist teachers in being a champion for their students.

WHAT SHE LOVES ABOUT RCSD

I love the work environment and culture of support, professional growth, and collective efficacy.

WHO INSPIRES HER

I am most inspired by my mother. Aside from my husband, she is my biggest supporter and encourager. She raised my two siblings and me under the anointing of God from which she prayed. She is resilient, self motivated, caring, nurturing, and firm. :-) I aspire to make her proud and show her that all of her sacrifices were not in vain.
