"He had an unbelievable tournament," said Cardinals co-coach Ed Oehlert. "He literally gets better with every match." Colten Carlson was 5-2 and placed fourth at 160 pounds, and Augustine Hahn won four matches and placed sixth at 195 pounds. Israel Navarro placed sixth at 106 pounds and defeated Scott West's Parker Huss, who is ranked No. 3 in Class AA. Travis Deegan was 4-2 and placed seventh at 152 pounds and Vaughn Johnson was also 4-2 and finished seventh at 182 pounds. "Obviously, we are very excited about the direction the team is headed," Oehlert said. "Our goal was to break the top 10 and we ended in seventh. But, like many others, we still have a long ways to go to get where we want to be."

In Class AAA, none of Willmar's six wrestlers could pick up victories in their final consolation-bracket matches. Brady Reigstad (285), Colten Carlson (152) and Estevan Navarro all had fourth-place finishes. Israel Navarro (106), Clay Carlson (113) and Vaughn Johnson (182) all placed sixth.

In Class AA, Thomas Stageberg of NLS defeated Noah Becker of Long Prairie-Grey Eagle/Browerville 5-2 in the 120-pound third-place match.

In Class A, Jordan Engler of Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg took third at 152 pounds with a 2-1 win over Justin Dravis of Park Rapids, and his Saints teammate Zachary Carlson won a third-place medal at 170, pinning Ethan Johnson of Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton in 2:15. Carlson also placed third last year at 160 as a junior.

Paynesville's Anthony Wendlandt edged BOLD's Ben Steffel 4-2 in overtime in the 182-pound third-place match.

Atwater-Cosmos-Grove City's Rylan Molinaro (113) and Nicholas Meyer (132) of KMS both finished fourth, and Karter VanHeuveln of KMS won 3-1 over Nils Hagen of Osakis to take home a fifth-place medal at 195.

There were 16 area wrestlers that qualified for the state tournament for the second straight season this year. Only Zachary Carlson medaled on both visits, but Estevan Navarro, Colten Carlson and Johnson of Willmar, Austvold, Molinaro and Meyer medaled this year after being eliminated before medal contention in 2014.

Zachary Carlson caps his prep career by going 135-3 in his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. The Fighting Saint was unbeaten on the season in all three campaigns before losing in the state title match in 2013 and in the state semifinals the last two trips.

MINNETONKA — Josh Frie, the head coach of the Minnetonka wrestling squad, was pleased the Skipper had reached the Section 6AAA championship match on Saturday, held in their own gym.

But after losing by 52 points to Willmar, he knew his kids have a way to go.

"[Willmar's] mental aspect is something we'd like to model," he said. "They don't quit. Even the few kids that got beat went behind their bench and did push-ups."

Frie expects the Cardinals to get the No. 3 seed for the Class AAA state tournament that starts Feb.

26 in St. Paul. That's important. Willmar won't have to face No. 1 Apple Valley or No. 2 St. Michael-Albertville in the 9 a.m. quarterfinal round. Those two teams each finished well ahead of the Cards in a Dec. 20 multi-state invite at Rochester.

Seeding is Tuesday.

Though Willmar was expected to crush the competition in 6AAA in Saturday's eight-team playdown, each of the Cardinals appeared to wrestle like he was entrusted with earning the deciding point.

"These guys love to wrestle," said Justin Brown, co-head coach with Ed Oehlert. "It's a special group. They bring it every day and show such a willingness to get better."

There's nothing like experience, too. Eight of the boys wrestled in the 2012 section meet at Mound Westonka High School, the start of Willmar's 6AAA reign.

Senior Darius O'Neill, when asked about the team's 27-0 record, said:

"If someone loses, they get upset and are frustrated. They go back into the wrestling room to get better."

"Nothing's better than having strong teammates to go at. We wrestle hard every match and in the wrestling room, too," said senior Estevan Navarro, who hiked his record to 28-4 with three wins Saturday.

"We've got a lot of desire," added senior Travis Deegan, a starter on all four section champs. "We want to get some wood at state this year."

Something more than the all-comers participation plaque which requires winning twice at the Xcel Energy Center on Feb. 26.
