BOLD upends Willmar

Warriors win 7 of 10 matches

WILLMAR — The BOLD Warriors pounced on Willmar early and went on to sink the Cardinals 35-9 in a non-conference wrestling dual on Tuesday.

The Warriors are now 18-5, while Willmar's record fell to 5-8.

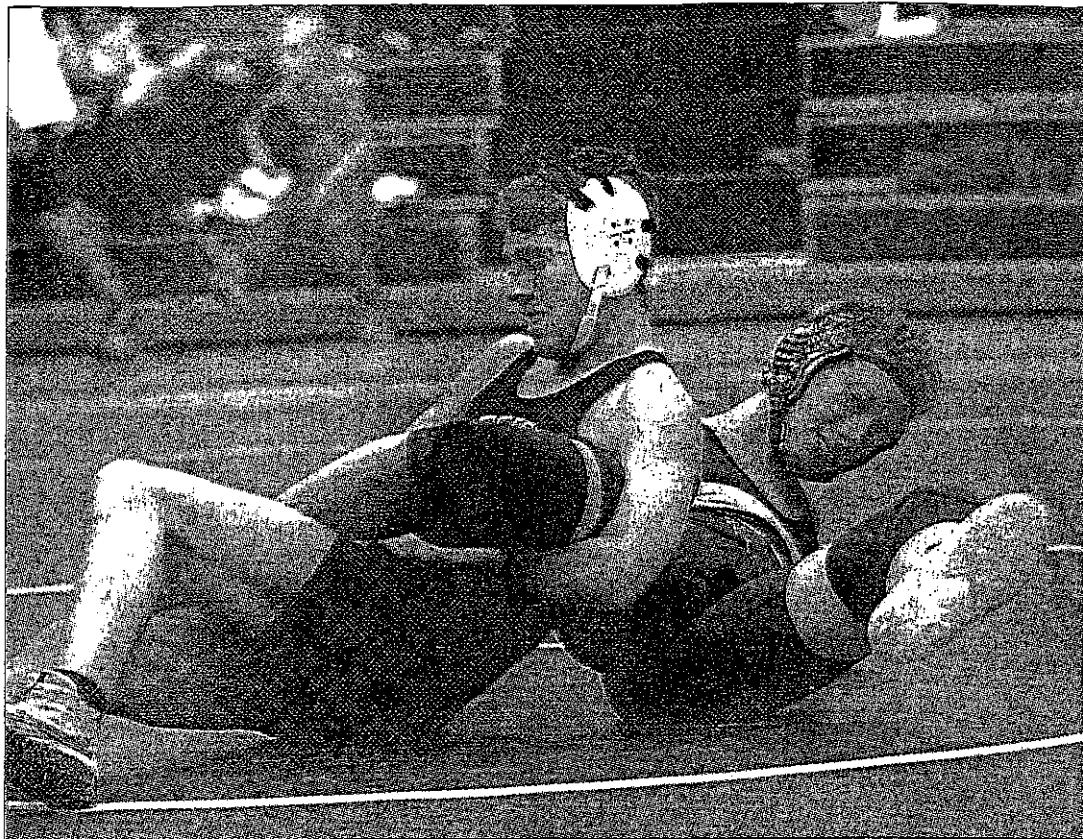

Wrestling

BOLD's Matt Grund and Ben Garcia picked up wins at 103 and 112 pounds, respectively, for a quick 9-0 lead.

Willmar's Alex Johannes got the Cardinals on the scoreboard with a 10-5 decision.

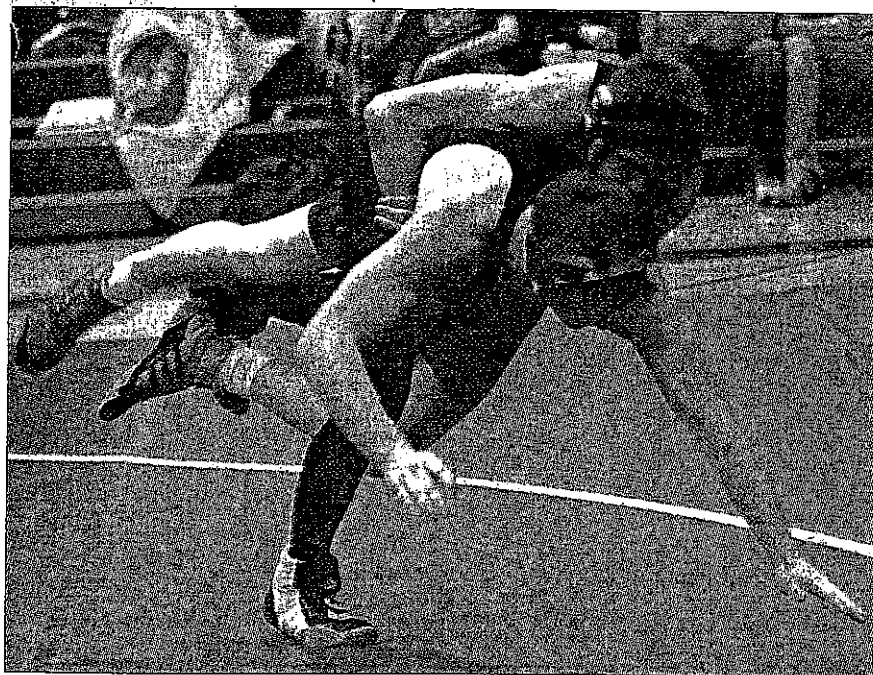

But the Warriors would seize control with three consecutive wins: a pin by Kyle Schulte at 130, and then a technical fall by Chaz Rousch followed by Tyler Seehusen's 14-0 major at 145 for a 24-3 BOLD lead.

Brainerd upends Willmar, 39-22

BRAINERD — Willmar owned an early lead, but Brainerd took control by winning five consecutive matches at one point to go on and collect a 39-22 Central Lakes Conference dual win Thursday against the Cardinals.

After Brainerd had won the first two matches to take a 7-0 lead, Alex Johannes notched a second-period pin at 119 pounds and Seth Pollock collected a 9-7 decision at 125 to put Willmar head 9-7.

Brainerd then won five straight matches behind two major decisions, two decisions and a pin from 130-152 to take a commanding 29-9 lead with five matches remaining.

Willmar ended Brainerd's run when Eugene Stepan won a 12-3 major decision at 160 and Nathaniel Swoyer earned a 5-1 decision at 171.

The Warriors then won the next two matches before Cass Herzog closed out the dual with a pin early in the second period for Willmar.

The Cardinals have a week off before hosting Rocori in another CLC dual on Feb. 4.

Willmar tops Rocori

COLD SPRING — Willmar finished its Central Lakes Conference dual-meet schedule with a 34-31 win over Rocori on Thursday.

The win gave the Cardinals a final record of 4-5 in the CLC.

The Cardinals (5-10 overall) clinched the match when 171-pounder Nathaniel Swoyer notched a pin.

Rocori (3-4, 6-12) won the final three weights by fall.

Alex Johannes also won by pin for Willmar at 119. Major decisions were scored by Nate Mittag at 103, Adam Fagerstrom at 135, Coty Milhausen at 145 and Eugene Stepan at 152.

Willmar upends St. Cloud Tech

Cardinals notch four pins in 40-33 win

Wrestling
WILLMAR — Willmar clawed and scraped its way through the first six weight classes, then recorded three pins in its next four wins to beat St. Cloud Tech 40-33 in Central Lakes Conference wrestling action Thursday.

The Cardinals held an 18-9 lead after a pin from Nate Mittag at 103 pounds, a forfeit to Zach Lueders at 119, a 5-2 decision to Alex Johannes at 125 and a 5-2 decision to Adam Fagerstrom at 135.

Tech turned around at took a 21-18 lead on two pins in the next two matches.

Willmar shuffled its lineup, moving three wrestlers to heavier weights, which paid off as Coty Milhausen won by fall at 152 pounds and Eugene Stepan picked up a major decision at 160. Martin Cabrera won by fall at 171, then Nathaniel Swoyer moved up two weight classes to 215 and won with a pin in 1:39 to secure the victory.

Willmar drubs Alexandria

Cardinals win first nine matches

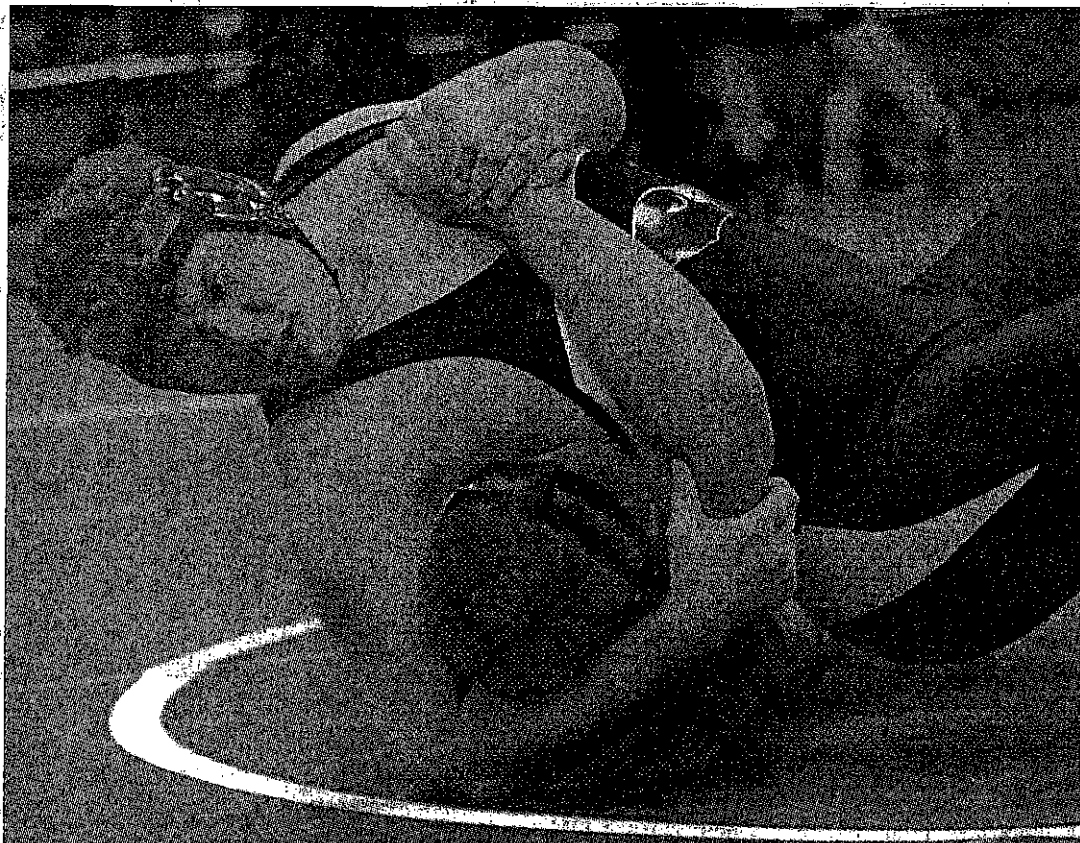

Central Lakes
ALEXANDRIA — Willmar won the first nine matches en route to hammering Alexandria 50-16 in a Central Lakes Conference wrestling dual Thursday.

An Alexandria forfeit at 103 was followed by major decisions from Austin Miley at 112 and Zach Luders at 119, and four pins from Alex Johannes at 125, Seth Pollock at 130, Zach Marris at 135 and Adam Fagerstrom at 140.

Another Alexandria forfeit at 145 and a 5-0 decision from Mason Pomerleau at 152 gave Willmar a 47-0 lead. Nathaniel Swoyer collected Willmar's other victory with a 3-0 decision at 189.

Willmar sophomore heavyweight C.J. Barkley is about to cap the Cardinals' victory with a first-period pin of Sartell junior Tier Tabatt on Monday at Willmar High School. The Cardinals had seven wins by fall to capture their first Central Lakes Conference dual victory of the season.

Cardinals earn first dual win of season, 60-6

WILLMAR — The Willmar Cardinals closed out the 2009 portion of their schedule in impressive fashion.

Monday night, on their home floor for Parent's Night, the Cardinals put together seven pins and a pair of forfeits to vanquish Sartell 60-6 in a Central Lakes dual meet.

It was the first win for Will-mar (1-2, 1-2), which was coming off an eighth-place finish at the huge (31 team) Cass Lake-Bena Invitational over the weekend.

"Our kids are doing a good job," said Casey Johnson, who is in his third winter heading up the Willmar program. "We're working hard and we're young."

Sartell is very young, too. That allowed Johnson to debut junior high wrestlers Austin Miley and Zach Lueders against opponents their own age and each responded with a pin.

Nate Mittag, a freshman, led off with a pin at 103 pounds.

Adam Fagerstrom at 140, Eugene Stepan at 160, Taylor Neumann at 189 and C.J. Barkley at heavyweight all won via a first- or second-period fall.

Martin Cabrera picked up a 9-4 win at 171 and while Coty Milhausen nipped Mike Sorensen 6-5 in a well-wrestled match at 152.

Willmar is off until the Montevideo Invitational on Jan. 2.

Fergus Falls spoils Cards' opener, 45-33

Willmar in action again today

WILLMAR — Willmar was unable to hold on to a 27-15 advantage as Fergus Falls took over in the upper weights and went on to a 45-33 Central Lakes Conference victory to open the season on Thursday.

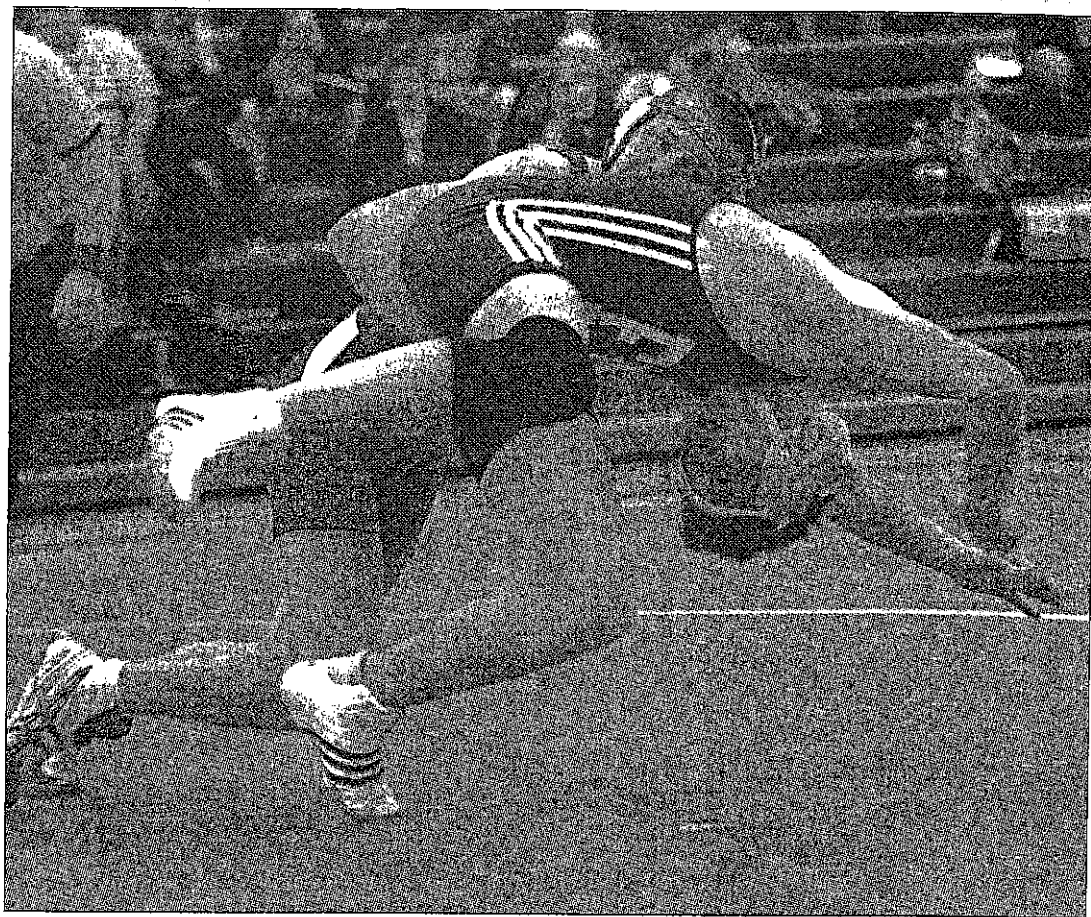

Zach Morris, Seth Pollock and Adam Fagerstrom delivered consecutive pins to give the Cardinals a 24-15 lead going into the 145-pound match.

Coty Milhausen then picked up three points, scoring a reversal to break a 2-2 tie and went on for a 7-2 victory over the Otters' Matt Laugen.

But Fergus Falls earned six-point wins in five of the last six matches — four by pin and one by forfeit.

Willmar's Nathaniel Swoyer prevented a sweep down the stretch with a one-minute pin in the 189-pound match.

The Cardinals are at the Belgrade-Brooten-Elrosa Invitational today.

KMS makes it four straight

Doraska, Bauman win individual titles for Fighting Saints; Eden Valley-Watkins 2nd

WILLMAR — Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg won its fourth straight Willmar Invitational Wrestling title on Friday night in a showdown with Eden Valley-Watkins.

The Fighting Saints finished with 196 points to 189.5 for the runner-up Eagles.

Yellow Medicine East was third with 153.5 points, followed by Benson, Waska and Willmar.

The Saints won here

despite heavy graduation losses following their state championship run in 2008-09.

The meet drew nine teams this year compared to seven a year ago. Tracy-Milroy-Balaton and Montevideo were not in the field last year.

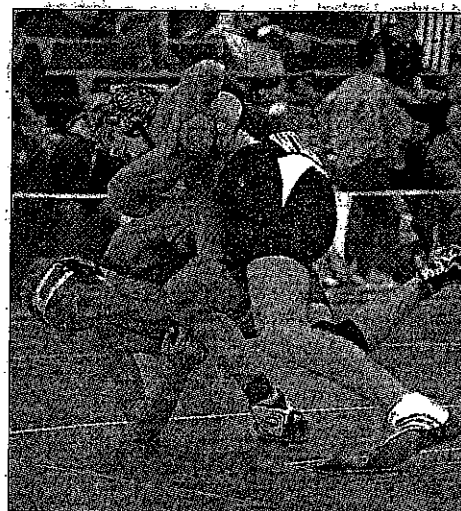

Joel Bauman of KMS, at 189, was the only repeat champion in the field. Aaron Doraska, at 140 pound, also won an individual title for KMS.

Benson and EVW each had three champions.

Willmar champions were Alex Johannes at 125 and Coty Milhausen at 145.

KMS piled up early points with nine pins in the pigtail and the quarter-final round. The Saints finished with nine wrestlers placing in the top three.

No other details were available as the tournament concluded late. Complete results will appear in Monday's paper.

Willmar 125-pounder Alex Johannes, top, wins a tight match with Justin Rothers of KMS 2-1 in the semifinals on Friday.

The individual portion of the tournament continues today. Those wrestlers losing their first match on Wednesday will be eliminated, if the wrestler that beat them loses his quarterfinal match.

In Class A, 16 of the 29 area wrestlers advanced. In Class AA, five of the eight won opening matches. And in Class AAA, Fagerstrom was the only one of four Willmar wrestlers to start off with a win. Alex Johannes at 119 pounds, Seth Pollock at 125 and Nathaniel Swoyer at 171 are all hoping to continue in the consolation round today.

Atwater-Cosmos-Grove City and Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg had three wrestlers each win matches in the first round in Class A. ACGC's Matt Lee at 125 pounds, Larry Bomstad at 130 and Dylan Nelson at heavyweight all won. Kurt Timmons at 103, Klinton VanHeuveln at 130 and Bauman for KMS were victorious.

Belgrade-Broten-Elrosa (Cole Tensen at 145 and Travis Winter at 160), BOLD (Jacob Revier at 130 and Dusty Caspers at heavyweight), Benson (Thompson and Brady Wersinger at 160), Minnewaska (Cam Schafer at 140 and Brandon Mander-schied at 215) and Paynesville (Matt Doom at 160 and Andrew Moser at 189) each saw two of its wrestlers triumph in opening matches in Class A.

Dawson-Boyd/Lac Qui Parle Valley (John Weed-ing at 103 pounds and Jake Bothun at 145) and New London-Spicer (Shawn Hatlestad at 140 and John Nething at 160) each had two Class AA wrestlers advance. Litchfield (Kody Kalkbrenner at 189) had the other opening win in Class AA.

22 area matmen win on first day

Defending champions Thompson, Bauman advance in Class A; Willmar's Fagerstrom notches 100th career win

ST. PAUL — Twenty two of the Tribune area's 41 wrestlers opened the state individual wrestling tournament with a win on Wednesday at Xcel Energy Center.

Two of three defending state champions from the area were victorious in the first round; Ryan Thompson of Benson at 152 pounds and Joel Bauman of Kerkhoven-Murdock-Sunburg at 189 pounds, both in Class A. However, Ryan Swenson of Dawson-Boyd/Lac qui Parle Valley was pinned in his opening match at 135 pounds in Class AA.

Willmar's Adam Fagerstrom, the lone senior on the team, earned the 100th win of his career, getting a 4-2 decision at 135 pounds in Class AAA.
