Why these skills are so important for your child -

Social learning and development is just as important to your child's developmental journey as walking and talking. With a strong foundation, your child will learn how to build good relationships, handle stress or disappointment, and how to handle new situations.

5 Key Components

There are five key skills that this workshop will focus on:

1. Relating to others
2. Increasing attention span
3. Following directions
4. Taking responsibility
5. Developing emotional well-being

SPRING 2024 WORKSHOPS

In-person workshops will be held from 5-7 pm on:

April 9th at Sidney Glen Elementary School, and

April 18th at Orchard Heights Elementary School

Please choose only one date when registering.

Registration is required, and family must reside within the South Kitsap School District's boundaries.

Caregivers welcome! Please call (360) 874-7061 to register and sign up for STARS credits.

The South Kitsap School District provides equal educational and employment opportunity without regard to race, creed, religion, color, national origin, age, honorably-discharged veteran or military status, sex, sexual orientation – including gender expression or identity, marital status, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability. Equal access to activities, facilities and program is provided to the Boy Scouts of America and other designated youth groups. District procedure complies with all applicable state and federal laws. The Title IX Officer, Section 504 Coordinator, and Gender Inclusivity Officer with the responsibility for monitoring, auditing, and ensuring compliance with this policy are: Compliance/ADA/Title IX Coordinator: Will Sarett, Executive Director of Human Resources; Section 504 Coordinator: Tiffany Buckley, Assistant Director of Health Services; Gender Inclusivity Compliance Officer: Dr. Tom Edwards, Assistant Superintendent for Student Achievement.
