Metanoia

www.metanoia-eco.com | LinkedIn

We are a team of technical sustainability professionals passionate about the transformative potential of education for sustainability in schools.

We partner with students, school principals, teachers, facilities managers and leadership teams to unlock the sustainability learning that is embedded in the campus and the school's daily life; to develop the capacity of students and schools to do the practical as well as critical intellectual work of becoming truly sustainable communities; and to support the students of the Anthropocene era in leading the transition to a sustainable future.

Few schools have begun to integrate sustainability in a deep way into their practices and policies and weave it into the fabric of the school's daily life. For those schools that are ready to embark on a deeper sustainability journey, Metanoia supports them to develop a vision and a roadmap, clarify commitments, and implement meaningful improvements.

Using the campus as a living laboratory, we engage, educate and empower students to transform their school communities into models of sustainability, inspiring lasting behaviour change in the process. Our student-centred approach to sustainability in schools combines practical and substantive solutions with authentic educational opportunities and school-wide stakeholder engagement. We work with all stakeholders in the school community to envision and deliver ambitious versions of their aspirations - like becoming a carbon-neutral school or a zero-waste school.

Support-Edu

www.support-edu.com | john@support-edu.com

Support-Edu is a global leadership consultancy that predominantly supports aspiring, new and developing leaders in schools. We do this by providing bespoke leadership training, based on the individual needs of those we work with. We offer single modules, half day and full day seminars and extended courses which can be delivered in person, online or a hybrid of the two. This can also include coaching and help with strategic planning.

Over recent years we have trained a global cohort in excess of 150 middle and senior leaders, of which over 50% have been promoted into more senior roles, including headships. We have worked with a range of different schools across the world, from day and boarding schools in the UK, to bilingual schools in the Middle East, to start up international schools in the Far East. These organisations are on different paths and we created training to help them shape their future. These schools have found that investment in leadership training has led to increased staff wellbeing as staff felt valued; improved staff retention and succession planning and taken pressure of the senior team.

The heart of what we do, however, is always the same, to help people find strength in solutions.
