For 50 years, Catholic Schools Week has been celebrated to highlight the value of Catholic schools. A look inside the classrooms of Catholic schools around the country shows the rich traditions of Catholic education where academic excellence marries faith, culture and life. It is truly a reason to celebrate. Thank YOU for choosing Cotter Schools!

Don't forget to list for Cotter students on the radio this week. They have an important Catholic Schools Week message for you. Have a great Catholic Schools Week, Cotter! For a complete schedule of events and more information visit:
