THE DISTRICT AND THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

As required by Section 4 of the Act

REQUESTING PUBLIC RECORDS

To request access to public records, submit the request to the District’s FOIA Officer at the District 63 Office, 10150 Dee Road, Des Plaines, IL 60016. This form is available via the District Office, or the District’s website at www.emsd63.org/board-of-education/foia. Call (847) 299-1900 with questions.

FEES

No fees are charged for the first 50 pages of black and white, letter, or legal-sized copies. After that point, the District is permitted to charge 15¢/page – and it may charge for reproduction costs of large or color copies. For commercial requests, it may also charge for time and labor. Regarding electronic records, the District is permitted to charge the actual cost of CDs, flash drives, etc., and for data megabytes. In certain circumstances, the requester may ask for a fee waiver if the request is “in the public interest.” See Section 6 of the Act.

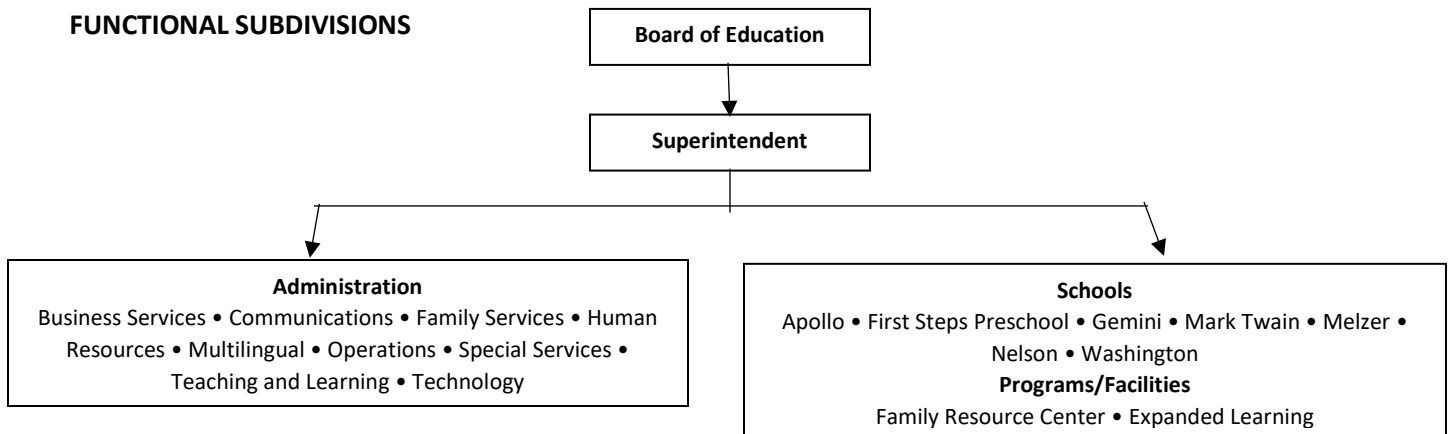

EAST MAINE DISTRICT 63

East Maine is a public school district in Illinois serving 3,600 PreK-8 students in one preschool, five elementary schools, and one middle school. The District incorporates portions of Des Plaines, Glenview, Morton Grove, Niles, and Park Ridge. A seven-member Board, elected at large by District residents, sets policy and hires/supervises a paid superintendent to carry out these policies and manage day-to-day operations.
