| Class | Child's Name | Type of Merit | Merit |
|-------|--|---|--|
| 3E | Ibrahim | Reflective | Ibrahim has reflected very well on the advice given to him by adults about his behaviour. There has been a huge improvement recently! Well done Ibrahim, Miss Emery is very proud. |
| | Nicole | Relationships | Nicole has built fantastic friendships with lots of her peers and is always looking out for them, making sure that they are OK. Thank you for being a great friend to your classmates, Nicole. |
| 3G | Kai (from Mrs. Chandra) | Resilience | Kai has progressed so much in Lego Club. His ideas are impressive and he has shown great growth in his problem-solving skills. I am proud of you, Kai! |
| | Kavinav | Resourceful, resilient, reflective | Kavinav is a super curious learner, who loves learning new things, especially about science and maths. He will join in with debates and he extends his knowledge if he is unsure of something - well done, Kavinav! |
| 3H | Kieron | Resilience | Kieron has worked really hard to improve his attitude to learning. He is now showing more focus during lessons and answering lots of questions during class discussions. Well done Kieron! |
| | Oscar | Resilience and reflective | Oscar has had a fantastic week. He listened really well during lessons and has shared his ideas and answers during class discussion. Keep up the great work! |
| 4D | Elijah | Relationships | Elijah has really improved his team working skills and patience in Lego club and Mrs Chandra is very proud of him. |
| 4K | Ryan and Zakh | Resilience | Ryan and Zakh have challenged themselves in their learning about Fractions and managed to present some impressive learning in their Maths books. Well done boys! |
| | Ritik | Kind Relationships | Ritik displays kind behaviour towards all his peers and supports his friends in their learning. He is an excellent Digital leader, who is always on task. Thanks Ritik. |
| 4U | Pari, Dhruvika, Molinae, Angel, Ritika, Sheryl, | Responsibility, relationships, curiosity, teamwork. | Led by the ever inquisitive Pari, these girls are doing a research project to put together a presentation about India Republic Day. This is today and the girls wanted to share with the rest of the class about this special event. They are using their research skills linked to Geography and History! They are also using teamwork to make it happen. Well done team! |

| 5F | Omkar, Prithvi, Anu, Arlo, Daivik, Michelle | Be curious, Respectful | When going out for a practice birdwatch in preparation for next week, these children were excited and engaged and spotted lots of beautiful birds. They also showed respect to nature as they were quiet and did not want to scare or disturb any creature in its natural habitat. Thank you and bring on next week! |
| | Ayan and Aarush | Golden rules -Do be helpful | Ayan, 5F's digital leader, and Aarush, his deputy, have been amazing at looking after our devices. They collect them and return them sensibly, and with care. Thank you for being so responsible. |
| | Amruta, Siddhi and Michelle | Golden rules -Do be helpful and Resourceful | From Mrs Cooper. Thank you very much to all three of you for noticing that the Reading Shed was not being looked after properly. You tidied it up beautifully and you also presented an assembly to ensure that it is properly looked after by all of us in the future. Thank you! |
| 5L | Mia | Reflective | It has been wonderful to see Mia being so reflective in class this week whilst we have been discussing the space theme. She has given a number of good ideas about the Mars rovers and tried her best. Well done! Keep it up! |
| | Kamauri | Resourceful | Kamauri has given his all when working with Mrs Lawmann in his reading comprehensions. He has impressed us both with his reading, ideas and his writing in these sessions. Well done! Keep this up! |
| 5P | Mahith | Reflective | Mahith mastered short division this week! Mahith took time to go through the steps to success in order to achieve any question he was asked to complete using the bus stop method. Well done Mahith for being such a reflective learner - keep it up!! |
| | Elanur | Reflective | Elanur's presentation of learning in all subjects has improved greatly! Your learning is a joy to read - thank you for taking pride in your learning, it has not gone unnoticed! |
| 6I | Ella | Reflective | Ella has come so far in her learning this academic year. Mrs Iwin is extremely proud of her effort in all lessons. She was confident in sharing her learning to the class and even showed curiosity researching more about topics she has learnt in school this week. |

| | Diyaan and Thomas | Resourceful | These two showed excellent participation during the Ancient Roman workshop this week. They gained so much knowledge and even shared more facts with the whole class. |
| | Nethra and Mayukha | Relationships | These girls were noticed by Mrs Iwin in their swimming lessons THIS week. They were praising children in the swimming pool who found swimming difficult. It was lovely seeing them show a thumbs up at them and making the others' feel good about themselves. What true ROLE MODELS! |
| | Kyiah | Resilience | From Miss Emery and Miss Turner Kyiah showed fantastic resilience during the netball match on Tuesday. Her opponent was physically tough but Kyiah did not let this faze her and scored some great goals. Well done! |
| 6M | Nikhil | Reflective and Relationships | Nikhil is respectful, kind and helpful. He fully engages in class discussions and is always challenging himself to aim higher. Keep it up! Thank you for always helping others when they find their learning challenging. |
| 6A | Emma | 5Rs | Emma has been a kind, respectful member of our class, she has taken extra care of our new pupil, supporting them with everyday routine and extending a helping hand in their learning. |
| | Ahmed | Reflective | Ahmed has reflected well in his English writing this week, asking questions relevant to his work and editing where appropriate to enhance his writing using the success criteria - Miss Mohamed |
| HT Award | 6I | HT AWARD | Polite and well mannered children/ High engagement in their lessons |
| Young Voices | Young Voices children | All 5Rs! | Last week, 27 children (please stand up where you are!) represented our school at the Young Voices concert at the O2 arena. They sang as part of 8,900 voiced choir with impeccable behaviour all day long. Their singing was outstanding and I'm sure that this memory for them will last a very long time! Thank you Young Voices children for being so wonderful! (They also have a certificate which I will hand out to their classes later on). |
