PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE MOMENT OF SILENCE

DISCUSSION

Mrs. Ryan was present, as well as her husband and a group of parents, to discuss her concerns regarding her daughter and the current CNA/ Personal Care Aide situation. She would like her child to be assisted by the PCA she had last year and was concerned about the changes since the District switched to Kelly Services, Inc. who provides the teacher aides, but have a 'no touch' policy regarding students. She and her husband would like her daughter to have the same services as last year and feels the current situation is a possible IEP violation.

Mr. and Mrs. Pears agreed with Mrs. Ryan noting that their son was very comfortable with his PCA and would like those services to continue through the school district.

Mr. Larry Boggs and Ms. Amanda Boggs also agreed with the discussion, Although they do not have a problem with their daughter being taken care of by the CNA. They are currently happy with her care.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Mays thanked the parents for addressing their concerns.
