KIND OF BUSINESS ENGAGED IN BY PURCHASER: Public School Board - Exempt pursuant to Section 40-23-4(a)(15), Code of Alabama 1975, as amended.

Any tangible personal property obtained under this certificate of exemption may be subject to sales or use tax if used or consumed by the purchaser in any manner other than indicated on this certificate. The seller is required to act in good faith and to exercise reasonable care to determine the nature of the purchaser's business and know if goods purchased are consumed in the operation of the purchaser's business so as to render sales to him taxable. In the event it is determined at a subsequent date that the items sold are not exempt from sales and use tax, the seller, if he has acted in good faith and exercised reasonable care, is relieved of liability for the sales or use tax due on these purchases.

The seller is required to have only one certificate of exemption form on file from the purchaser. The seller must exercise reasonable care to determine that the tangible personal property obtained under this certificate is for the purpose indicated. A seller failing to exercise such care will be held liable for sales or use tax due on such purchases.

I, the undersigned, declare under penalties of false swearing, that this certificate has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is true and correct, made in good faith, pursuant to the sales and use tax laws of the State of Alabama. I am aware that, if I make illegal tax-free purchases using this certificate and/or benefit from the illegal use of this certificate, I am liable for the sales or use tax determined to be due on these purchases.
