Mohave's Software Development Students Medal At AZ FBLA Region 5 Competition

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, January 29, 2024

Michael Jake Carter
Director of Community Engagement
CRUHS

Bullhead City, AZ – On 1/27/2024, Mohave High School software development students who are taking the AP Computer Science A Course went to the FBLA Region 5 Competition in Phoenix, AZ. The two students created coding projects in Java to meet the requirement of a prompt from the National FBLA. They also had to present and defend their projects at Grand Canyon University.

Sophomore Zephyr Chavers earned Gold for Coding and Programming category, which was an awesome accomplishment as the competition usually is meant for Juniors and Seniors. He also earned Silver for the category Test.

Freshman Elexis Smith earned Bronze for Introduction to Programming category and Bronze for the category Test.
