

See What's Happenings in Wood Tech

Wood technology students finishing their first power tool project. They were able to customize their project with a CNC engraving of their own design. They have learned proper use of machine tools and procedures to create the plant stand table. These students worked hard and improved their own craftsmanship ability. “Wonderful to work with such talented students ,” Mr. Norman Lein, Rush-Henrietta Senior High School Technology teacher.