WHAT SHE LOVES ABOUT RCSD

Even though RCSD is the second largest district in the state, our district has a familial feel. The level of relational connectivity that spans across our school district is unparalleled. This sense of community provides a place where people feel safe and supported and are eager to grow personally and professionally.

MEET JANA COMER...

Jana graduated from the University of Mississippi with a Bachelor's degree in Secondary Education and later from Arkansas State University with a Master's degree in Educational Leadership. She is currently working on her doctorate at the University of Southern Mississippi. A fourteen-year educator, she began her career in north Mississippi, where she taught English I and English II, coached basketball, and facilitated the 21st Century Grant After-School Remediation and Enrichment program at Shannon High School. Upon relocating, she taught eighth-grade English Language Arts at Brandon Middle School for three years. In her past six years with Rankin County School District, she has served as a Secondary English Language Arts Curriculum Specialist and R.I.S.E. Institute Coordinator.

WHO INSPIRES HER

Whew! This is definitely a loaded question! There are so many people who have inspired and continue to inspire me, but playing it safe, I'll have to give this credit to my mother. My mother is the epitome of a strong, southern woman. She is loyal, supportive, intelligent, and fierce. She is a fighter even when the odds are stacked against her. She loves her people and she loves them hard. AND she's had to raise me for 39 years, so there's that. :) All jokes aside, I am so grateful to have her as my biggest fan and source of inspiration.
