National Holocaust Remembrance Day

1/27/24

The United Nations (UN) General Assembly designated January 27—the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau—as International Holocaust Remembrance Day. On this annual day of commemoration, the UN urges every member state to honor the six million Jewish victims of the Holocaust and millions of other victims of Nazism and to develop educational programs to help prevent future genocides.

Fred Korematsu Day of Civil Liberties and the Constitution

1/30/24

Fred Korematsu was a civil rights leader and pioneer. When the Army forced Japanese Americans into concentration camps during WWII, Fred Korematsu refused to comply with the orders. His defiance led to a historic test of liberty and an infamous Supreme Court precedent that still emerges over American law today.
