Accordingly, your child is suspended from school for _____ day(s), beginning on _____. Your child may return to school on _____ after you and your child participate in a re-entry meeting with the school administration. This suspension was verbally communicated to you on _____.

During the period of this suspension and until your child has participated in a re-entry meeting, your child is not allowed to be on any District property, may not use district transportation and may not participate in any District- or school-sponsored activity regardless of its location, unless specifically approved in writing by the school director. Violation of these directives may result in a trespass citation from the police and additional school consequences.

Suspension is classified as an excused absence. Students are responsible for all coursework missed due to suspension. Please contact _____ about obtaining coursework that your child may submit for credit and consideration in the student's final grade.

It is important to note that we regard suspension and the events that cause it to be very serious. Suspension is one of our last resorts when discipline issues arise. It is very important that the behavior that resulted in suspension does not reoccur. We pledge to make available resources at school that may help reduce the occurrence of this and other inappropriate behavior. We ask you to talk with your child and develop your home-
